FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | JULY 16, 2017
DECIMOQUINTO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO | 16 DE JULIO DE 2017

You have crowned the year with your bounty, and your paths overflow with a rich harvest. — Psalm 65:12
Tú coronas el año con tus bienes, tus senderos derraman abundancia. — Salmo 65(64):12

FRUIT OF THE WORD

The seed is the word of God. The agricultural metaphors in all of today's readings give richness to the message that the word of God, cultivated in our hearts, bears much fruit in our lives. Creation itself awaits the redemption of all, even as our bodies await the resurrection. Just as we will rejoice in the fulfillment of God's word, so will all of creation sing for joy in the Reign of God. The word of God is effective and holy; it brings about exactly what it says. It is not futile or empty, but rich in meaning for those who hear and are healed. Those who hear the word of God and keep it will, with all creation, bear much fruit and sing for joy.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — my word will achieve the end for which it was sent (Isaiah 55:10-11).

Psalm — the seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest (Psalm 65).

Second Reading — we, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan within ourselves awaiting the redemption of our bodies (Romans 8:18-23).

Gospel — some seed fell on rich soil and produced fruit (Matthew 13:1-23 [1-9]).

FRUTO DE LA PALABRA

La semilla es la Palabra de Dios. Las metáforas de la agricultura en todas las lecturas de hoy brindan riqueza al mensaje de que la palabra de Dios, cultivada en nuestro corazón, produce mucho fruto en nuestra vida. La creación misma espera la resurrección. Así como nos regocijamos por el cumplimiento de la Palabra de Dios así la creación toda cantara de gozo en el Reino de Dios. La Palabra de Dios es eficaz y santa, produce exactamente lo que dice. No es inútil ni vacía, sino rica en significado para quienes la escuchan y son sanados. Quienes escuchan la palabra de Dios y la guardan, con toda la creación, darán mucho fruto y cantarán de gozo.

There was a while, I think it was in the '90's, when airlines would charge you for headphones, and make the jacks in the seat armrest incompatible with any headphone cable except theirs.

As a passenger, if you didn't want to fork over the $2 or $5 they were demanding, you were left watching without sound the lively film they were screening with no way to quite follow what was happening.

We've come a long ways with portable electronics and inflight movies, so it's rare today that you're stranded 35,000 feet up without entertainment. That feeling isn't too hard to recall, however, the dissociation that comes from not being able to follow the story.

"Whoever has ears ought to hear," Jesus tells us today. He recognizes clearly that there is a high risk that we could be looking dumbly on, without realizing what is happening before our eyes. Jesus assumes it's more likely than not that we won't catch what's being offered us--his summary is pretty pessimistic: "Gross is the heart of this people, they will hardly hear with their ears, they have closed their eyes, lest they see with their eyes and hear with their ears."

A primary contrast, however, between Jesus' assessment and passengers' experience of film deprivation in the unfriendly skies, is that often the reason we miss the main feature, the message that could change our life, is because we're distracted with some other entertainment we've been caught by. The confined traveler would desperately like to be included in the story they're obviously missing, but Jesus is dealing with folks who don't even notice what they've lost.

Maybe the main thing to learn from Jesus today is how important it is to want to be in, to hear, to discover. If, like the sky high trekker, we clearly knew what we were missing, we could attune ourselves, eagerly seek to receive what our Creator is sharing with us to change our lives.

If, however, you and I continue on as we always have, content to be caught up with the small stuff, engrossed with what's in front of our noses, as Jesus saw, we'll never understand, we'll never be converted, and we'll never be healed.

Hubo un tiempo, creo que fue en los noventas, cuando las aerolíneas cobraban por los audífonos, y hacían los enchufes en los asientos incompatibles para que no pudiéramos enchufar ningún otro tipo de audífonos más que los de ellos.

Como pasajero, si no quería gastar los $ 2 o $ 5 que exigían por ese servicio, uno se quedaba viendo la película animada que estaban proyectando sin sonido, y sin manera alguna de poder seguir lo que estaba sucediendo.

Hemos recorrido un largo camino con los electrónicos portátiles y las películas a bordo, por lo que hoy en día es raro que uno este a 35000 pies de altura sin entretenimiento.

Jesús nos dice hoy "El que tenga oídos, que oiga", el reconoce claramente que hay un alto riesgo de que podamos estar mirando tranquilamente, sin darnos cuenta de lo que sucede a nuestro alrededor. Jesús asume que es más probable que no captemos lo que se nos ofrece - su resumen es bastante pesimista: "porque el corazón de este pueblo se ha vuelto insensible y con dificultad oyen con sus oídos; y han cerrado sus ojos; de otro modo, verían con los ojos y oirían con los oídos."

Sin embargo, un contraste principal entre la evaluación de Jesús y la experiencia de los pasajeros de la privación de la película en las alturas hostiles es que a menudo la razón por la que perdemos la característica principal, el mensaje que podría cambiar nuestra vida, es porque estamos distraídos con otros entretenimientos. El viajero confinado quisiera desesperadamente ser incluido en la historia que está obviamente se está perdiendo, pero Jesús está tratando con gente que no se ha dado cuenta de lo qué han perdido.

Tal vez lo principal para aprender de Jesús hoy es lo importante que es querer estar, oír, descubrir. Si, al igual que cuando estábamos en las alturas, claramente sabíamos lo que estábamos perdiendo, podríamos sintonizar nosotros mismos, ansiosamente buscan recibir lo que nuestro Creador está compartiendo con nosotros para cambiar nuestras vidas.

Sin embargo, si tú y yo no cambiamos, y continuamos siendo igual sin ver lo que tenemos delante de nuestras narices, como Jesús vio, nunca entenderemos, nunca seremos convertidos, Y nunca seremos sanados.

SAINT PAUL
+ STREET EVANGELIZATION +

Go forth and preach the Good News!

Jesus commanded his disciples to go forth and preach the Gospel to all nations. This they did, in word and in deed. More recently, the Second Vatican Council reaffirmed every Catholic's role in this Great Commission. St. Paul Street Evangelization (SPSE) helps Catholics share their faith in a non-confrontational way, and our team has discovered the amazing joy of sharing the gospel by simply offering free rosaries, miraculous metals, prayer cards, and other items to people passing by at local venues. Please help us expand our efforts and support our work with your prayers, small donations to help with the purchase of the items we give away, and/or by joining us at one of our tables, or at our booth at the Yuba-Sutter Fair, August 3-6. SPSE members will share their experiences and free training will be offered on Thursday, July 20 at 6:30 pm in the St. Isidore's School library in preparation for the Fair. However, the meeting is open to anyone who would like to learn how to share their Catholic Faith with people they meet. Please look for our table after Mass or Contact Greg Thompson for additional details at 530-713-9909.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Two centuries ago, Archbishop John Carroll worried that Americans would not appreciate the linguistic veil over our worship, and asked that the liturgy in the new United States be in English, not Latin. How did our liturgy come to be in Latin in the first place? In the first century, the dominant language in the regions where the church first flourished was Greek. Today in much of the world, almost everyone speaks at least a bit of English. Recently, the European Union even considered making English its official language, a curious proposal since only two English-speaking countries are members.

Just as English is a unifying language today, it was hard to function in the ancient world without a smattering of Greek. Even the word "Eucharist" comes from the Greek for "thanksgiving." For a long time, Greek was the language of worship, even in Rome. Slowly, society in the west shifted to a bias for Latin and against Greek. Latin first appeared in public prayer at the end of the second century, in the colonial outposts of North Africa. Soon, Latin became the language of culture, and so as fixed prayer forms were written, they were transmitted in Latin. From Rome and Africa, over the next four centuries, the new liturgical language of Latin spread north to Gaul and Britain.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Uno de los pasajes bíblicos más bellos tiene que ser el de Isaías 11:6. El profeta proclama la paz mesiánica como una paz en donde animales voraces como el lobo, el leopardo, el león y la osa habitaran tranquilamente con animales mansos como el cordero, el cabrito, el ternero y la vaca "y un niño pequeño los conducirá". Es una paz donde la justicia rectifica las desigualdades y pone fin a la violencia. En esta profecía el Cristo es un niño que pastorea el mundo con una eficacia sorprendente. El hace lo que los gobernantes del mundo pretenden hacer, pero nunca logran, pone fin a la guerra, la pobreza y el hambre. Por esta razón hay muchas imágenes del Niño Jesús como el Santo Niño de Atocha, el Niño de Jesús de Praga, el Divino Niño de Bogotá y el Niño Jesús en manos de San Antonio, entre otros. Estas captan el deseo cristiano de que el niño venga a conducirnos hacia la paz mesiánica y a la vez, nos recuerda que hay que ser como niños para entrar en el reino de Dios.
