SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | JULY 23, 2017
DECIMOSEXTO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO | 23 DE JULIO DE 2017

Those who are just must be kind. — Wisdom 12:19

Que el justo sea humano. — Sabiduría 12:19

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

THE MERCY, POWER, AND LOVE OF GOD

The first reading today, from the book of Wisdom, makes its point over and over, at least five times in five verses! God is mighty, but lenient to all. God's power is shown in kindness and clemency, not in harshness and condemnation, and those who govern God's people must govern in the same way, with kindness. This loving kindness and gentleness is not contrary to God's might, but is a direct result of God's primacy over all. Who are we, then, to judge what is in the hearts of our fellow Christians and all people, when God commands justice with love and clemency?

Likewise, the Holy Spirit makes up for our ignorance of what we need, speaking in a language we do not yet understand. But God knows our needs before we do, understands the intercessions of the Spirit, and helps us in our weakness. This is our hope: God's mercy, power, and love.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — You taught your people that those who are just must likewise be kind (Wisdom 12:13, 16-19).

Psalm — Lord, you are good and forgiving (Psalm 86).

Second Reading — The Spirit comes to aid us in our weakness (Romans 8:26-27).

Gospel — Jesus proposes parables to the crowds, teaching them of the reign of God (Matthew 13:24-43 [24-30]).

LA MISERICORDIA, EL PODER Y EL AMOR DE DIOS

La primera lectura de hoy, del libro de la Sabiduría, va ¡al punto una y otra vez, al menos cinco veces en cinco versículos! Dios es poderoso, pero compasivo con todos. La fuerza de Dios se muestra en la bondad y la clemencia, no en la aspereza o la condenación, y quienes gobiernan al pueblo de Dios deben gobernar de igual manera, con bondad. Esta amorosa bondad y delicadeza no son contarios al poder de Dios, sino directo resultado de la primacía de Dios, sobre todo. ¿Quiénes somos nosotros, entonces, para juzgar el corazón de nuestros hermanos cristianos y a toda la gente, cuando Dios ordena justicia con amor y clemencia?

De igual manera, el Espíritu Santo suple nuestra ignorancia de lo que necesitamos, hablando en un lenguaje que no comprendemos todavía. Pero Dios conoce nuestras necesidades antes que nosotros, entiende las intercesiones del espíritu, y nos ayuda en nuestra necesidad. Esta es nuestra esperanza: la misericordia, el poder y el amor de Dios.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera Lectura—Tenemos la esperanza bien fundada de que se nos perdonaran nuestros pecados (Sabiduría 12:13, 16-19)

Salmo— Tu, Señor, eres bueno y clemente (Salmo 86 [86])

Segunda Lectura—Cuando no sabemos que pedir, el Espíritu ruega por nosotros (Romanos 8:26-27).

Evangelio—El Hijo de Hombre siembra buena semilla, que son los hijos del reino (Mateo 13:24-43).

Jesus again immerses us in parables this Sunday.

Last week it was the parable of the sower, with the well-known dispersal of seeds into inhospitable terrain, and the almost miraculous contrast when a seed finds rich soil.

This time we hear a battery of parables with seeds again showing up, this time with weeds, or as a mustard seed, and then complemented by even smaller organisms, the yeast kneaded into dough.

It's almost as puzzling as last Sunday as to why Jesus continues with parables for teaching. A week ago he explained to the Apostles that it was to deliberately prevent the hearers from understanding, because 'they have closed their eyes', 'they hear but do not listen', an ominous note that warns that we also could miss his message entirely.

Today, the reason given is again from the Old Testament, drawing from Psalm 78: "He spoke to them only in parables, to fulfill what had been said through the prophet: I will open my mouth in parables, I will announce what has lain hidden from the foundation of the world. In this context the parable is a wisdom saying, a proverb, drawn from the wisdom literature of the Hebrew Scriptures.

This indicates why our first reading today is taken from the book with that title, the Book of Wisdom. It's such a blessing that we get a chance to hear the sound of wisdom literature today, because it expands our insight into what our Faith is built upon. God's identity is revealed by his deeds, "And you taught your people . . . that those who are just must be kind; and you gave your children good ground for hope that you would permit repentance for their sins."

Justice. Kindness. Hope. Repentance. We learn who Jesus is, what he is teaching us, by understanding the way in which he speaks to us. His deliberate choice of parables, a key into the heritage of Salvation, permits us to encounter what precedes the foundation of the world.

Jesús nuevamente nos sumerge en parábolas este domingo.

La semana pasada fue la parábola del sembrador, con la conocida dispersión de semillas en terreno inhóspito, y el contraste casi milagroso cuando una semilla encuentra tierra fértil.

Hoy nuevamente escuchamos parábolas que tienen que ver con semillas, con hierbas, la semilla de mostaza, luego complementadas por organismos aún más pequeños, la levadura amasada en masa.

Es un poco desconcertante el por qué Jesús continúa hablando en parábolas para enseñar. Hace una semana explicó a los Apóstoles que era lo hacía apropiado para evitar que los oyentes comprendieran, porque "cerraron los ojos", "oyen, pero no escuchan", una nota amenazante que advierte que también podríamos perder su mensaje por completo.

Hoy en día, la razón dada es otra vez del Antiguo Testamento, extrayendo del Salmo 78: "Él les habló sólo en parábolas, para cumplir lo que había dicho por medio del profeta: abriré mi boca en parábolas, anunciaré lo que ha estado oculto desde la fundación del mundo, en este contexto la parábola es un dicho de sabiduría, un proverbio, extraído de la literatura de sabiduría de las Escrituras hebreas.

Esto indica el por qué nuestra primera lectura de hoy se toma del libro con ese título, el Libro de la Sabiduría. Es una bendición que tengamos la oportunidad de escuchar el sonido de la literatura de la sabiduría hoy, porque expande nuestra visión y nos permite ver sobre que está construida nuestra fe. La identidad de Dios se revela por sus obras: "Y enseñaste a tu pueblo ... que los justos deben ser bondadosos, y has dado a tus hijos un buen terreno para la esperanza de que permitirías el arrepentimiento por sus pecados".

Justicia. Amabilidad. Esperanza. Arrepentimiento. Aprendemos quién es Jesús, qué nos está enseñando, al comprender la manera en que nos habla. Su elección prudente de parábolas, clave en la herencia de la salvación, nos permite encontrar lo que precede a la fundación del mundo.
