TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | AUGUST 26, 2018
VIGÉSIMO PRIMER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO | 26 DE AGOSTO DE 2018

As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord. — Joshua 24:15b
En cuanto a mí toca, mi familia y yo serviremos al Señor. — Josué 24:15b

The Pastor's Corner

“For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.” Saint Paul quotes from the first verses of the Bible to present Jesus in his marriage to his bride. Jesus leaves heaven, going all the way to the cross, in order to find his bride. The Church as well is called to give herself totally to him.

Each of us individually as well are called to this leaving of what's familiar to unite ourselves to Jesus. Abraham left his homeland to journey to the unknown land of Canaan; Joseph, sold by his brothers, had to go to Egypt to fulfill God's plan; Ruth leaves her own people in order to be joined to God's covenant in Israel.

In our marriages as well we embody this sacrifice. Leaving what's familiar from our own childhood, a couple melds two experiences to form a new path. Each have to let go of their own preferences to create a new home. The cross of Christ, his sacrifice, shows us the way to authentic love.

El Rincón del Pastor

"Por esta razón un hombre dejará a su padre y su madre y se unirá a su mujer, y los dos serán una sola carne." Dice de San Pablo en los primeros versos de la Biblia para presentar a Jesús en su matrimonio a su novia. Jesús deja el cielo, y va todo el camino a la Cruz, para encontrar a su novia. La iglesia también está llamada a entregarse totalmente a él.

De igual manera, así nosotros individualmente somos llamados a salir de lo que es familiar para unirnos a Jesús. Abraham dejó su tierra natal para viajar a la desconocida tierra de Canaán; José, vendido por sus hermanos, tuvo que ir a Egipto para cumplir el plan de Dios; y Ruth salió de su propia gente para ser unida al Compromiso de Dios en Israel.

En nuestros matrimonios, así nos encarnan este sacrificio. Dejando lo que es familiar desde nuestra infancia, dos experiencias nuevas en combinación para formar un nuevo camino. Cada uno tiene que dejar ir sus propias preferencias para crear un nuevo hogar. La Cruz de Cristo y su sacrificio, nos indica el camino al amor auténtico.

year of learning about Jesus, our Good Shepherd, and drawing ever closer to Him.

If you have any questions or would like information about CGS, please email Michelle Knox Mknox@stisidore-yubacity.org

How does our parish attract inquirers each year who consider becoming Catholic?

The short answer is you! When any parish has many inquirers year after year, it is the fruit of the Holy Spirit as parish members open their hearts to welcome others. Members of a welcoming and evangelizing community take seriously their call to share the Divine message of salvation. It happens in parish families, in the workplace, in gatherings with friends and neighbors, and in daily contacts. Give thanks to God as he continuously strengthens each of us who seek to do his will in offering a gentle, humble, and clear welcome to the Catholic faith. "Go out into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15)

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This is the height of vacation season, but as anyone who has ever been to Rome in the summer knows, no time to visit there! The city is sweltering, and in a pre-air-conditioned world long ago, Romans figured out that they needed a break in the surrounding hills. Even the pope clears out. His destination is usually Castelgandolfo, a lovely little hill town southeast of Rome, overlooking a tranquil lake. It has been a papal possession since about 1600, and in 1929, when most of the papal states were finally lost, the papal dwelling was given "extraterritorial rights," meaning that it is an extension of Vatican City and not under Italian rule. The Vatican observatory maintained telescopes here for decades, far from the glare of the city lights of Rome, but although the observatory offices remain here year round, the telescopes are in Arizona. Pope Francis spends less time here than his predecessors, though he still slows down the pace of his work in Rome.

Vacations can help us visit friends and relatives, and revive those human contacts that the pace of our lives keeps us from cultivating. The pope needs a break, and so do you. Vacation comes from a word meaning to empty oneself. There's still time to clear the calendar for at least one golden summer day even if you don't have a personal castle in the hills!
