TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | SEPTEMBER 30, 2018
VIGÉSIMO SEXTO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO | 30 DE SEPTIEMBRE DE 2018

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul; the decree of the Lord is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple. — Psalm 19:8

La ley del Señor es perfecta del todo y reconforta el alma; inmutables son las palabras del Señor y hacen sabio al sencillo. — Salmo 19 (18):8

The Pastor's Corner

Jesus' words today speak to the bishops' scandals that have battered the Church over this summer: "Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea."

As the Church still appears to be at a loss as to how to address the spectacle of bishops not only covering and denying abuse happening under their watch, but also engaging in sexual immorality themselves, Jesus' warning could not be clearer.

Jesus warns about hell throughout his public ministry: today's option of drowning at sea, Satan's abode in the Scriptures, seems like a mild punishment compared to some of his other condemnations.

Jesus today warns that drastic action is necessary to confront sin: "If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off . . . If your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out." He needs us to recognize that tolerating sin in our lives will lead to disaster.

While in this case we could shrug off responsibility—"this is the bishops' problem, not ours"—both our Gospel and our first reading affirm that when something good happens to the community, it lifts us all up, and when something harmful enters the Church, we are all afflicted.

Jesus wants to heal his Church. Through our prayer and fasting, we can join our intention to his. We may not know what will purge this evil today, but we do know when this restoration comes, we want our actions to have drawn us to the whole that is restored, and not the branch that is pruned away.

EL RINCON DEL PASTOR

Las palabras de Jesús hoy hablan de los escándalos de los obispos que han golpeado a la Iglesia durante este verano: "Cualquiera que cause que uno de estos pequeños que creen en mí cometan pecado, sería mejor para él que se pusiera una piedra de molino alrededor de su cuello y se arrojara al mar".

Como la iglesia todavía parece pérdida en cuanto a cómo aprovechar el espectáculo de obispos quien no sólo cubren, y niegan el abuso bajo su vigilancia, pero también participan en inmoralidad sexual ellos mismos. La advertencia de Jesús no podría ser más clara.

Jesús advierte sobre el infierno a lo largo de su ministerio público: la opción de ahogarse en el mar, que es la morada de Satanás en las escrituras, parece ser un castigo leve en comparación con algunas de sus otras condenas.

Jesús advierte hoy la drástica acción necesaria para confrontar el pecado: "Si tu mano te hace pecar, córtala... Si tu ojo te hace pecar, sácalo." El Señor necesita que reconozcamos que tolerar el pecado en nuestras vidas nos conduce al desastre.

Mientras que en este caso nos podríamos sacudir la responsabilidad diciendo — 'es problema de los obispos, no nuestra, el evangelio y nuestra primera lectura afirman que cuando algo bueno sucede a la comunidad, nos eleva todo, y cuando algo dañoso entra en la Iglesia, somos todos afligidos. Jesús quiere sanar su Iglesia. A través de nuestra oración y ayuno, podemos unir nuestra intención a la suya. No podemos saber lo que purgará a este mal hoy, pero sabemos que cuando llegue la restauración, queremos que nuestras acciones nos llamen a este espacio restauración y no la rama que se poda lejos.

FAITH FORMATION

As summer winds down, we are busy making materials and preparing our atrium for the children.

Would you please pray for our Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program here at St. Isidore? Please pray for our families, for our catechists, and especially for the children as we embark on a new year of learning about Jesus, our Good Shepherd, and drawing ever closer to Him.

If you have any questions or would like information about CGS, please email Michelle Knox Mknox@stisidore-yubacity.org

How does our parish attract inquirers each year who consider becoming Catholic?

The short answer is you! When any parish has many inquirers year after year, it is the fruit of the Holy Spirit as parish members open their hearts to welcome others. Members of a welcoming and evangelizing community take seriously their call to share the Divine message of salvation. It happens in parish families, in the workplace, in gatherings with friends and neighbors, and in daily contacts. Give thanks to God as he continuously strengthens each of us who seek to do his will in offering a gentle, humble, and clear welcome to the Catholic faith. "Go out into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15)

The Gabriel Project Needs You!

Many women faced with crisis pregnancies are abandoned by their families, the fathers of their babies and their communities. More and more, they are poor and in their teens. Some are homeless. Most feel afraid. For too many reasons, abortion seems the only answer. Churches and pro-life service groups have sought ways to expand their embrace of women in crisis pregnancies. Now comes a way they can do so together ... a way to combine the special power of prayer with a commitment to service - The Gabriel Project!

The Gabriel Project is a church-based outreach whose volunteers offer assistance to women and families facing difficult or crisis pregnancies. Participating churches will "advertise" this commitment by placing a "Sign of Hope", with its "800" number Helpline, which assures any woman that the local Christian community cares for her and is prepared to offer immediate and practical help with her pregnancy. Callers to the Helpline are referred to the nearest appropriate church coordinator. The coordinator and the church volunteers - "Angels"- work with local community resources to meet the mother's needs.

El Proyecto de Gabriel Le Necesita!

Muchas mujeres que afrontan crisis de embarazos son abandonadas por sus familias, los padres de sus bebés y sus comunidades. Cada vez más, son pobres y adolescentes. Algunos están sin hogar. La mayoría sienten miedo. Por muchas razones, el aborto parece ser la única respuesta. Las iglesias y los grupos de servicio de pro-vida han buscado formas para expandir y acoger a estas mujeres con crisis de embarazos. Ahora hay una forma que ellas pueden hacer juntos... una forma especial de combinar el poder de oración con el compromiso de servir - El Proyecto Gabriel!

El Proyecto Gabriel es un proyecto de la iglesia cuyos voluntarios tienen el compromiso de ofrecer asistencia a las mujeres y a familias afrontando embarazos difíciles o de crisis. Las iglesias participantes "anunciarán" este compromiso colocando un "Signo de Esperanza", con su numero "800." Línea de ayuda lo cual reconforta a toda mujer que la comunidad cristiana local cuida de ella y está preparada a ofrecer ayuda practica e inmediata en su embarazo. Las personas que llaman a la "Línea de Ayuda" son referidas a el coordinador iglesia apropiado más cercano. El coordinador y los voluntarios iglesia -"Los Ángeles"- colaboran con la iglesia comunidad local y recursos comunales local que reunan las necesidades de la madre.

You,
a Vincentian?

The Two Great Commandments: The purpose of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is to fulfill the two great commandments—love of God and love of neighbor. We seek to grow spiritually in our meetings and through prayer and sharing of our faith. We develop a bond or community of faith with our fellow Vincentians. We participate in other forms of spiritual activity. We seek out God's needy, both materially and spiritually, and help where we can. Sometimes great resources are needed—sometimes we can do no more than listen and comfort—we are very good at it. We respond to the opportunities God presents to us. In coming closer to those in need, you are coming closer to God.

We're people just like you. Vincentians are doctors, office workers, lawyers, factory workers, housewives, students, retirees—people just like you. Your next door neighbor could very well be a Vincentian and you might never know it.

Vincentians are not professionally trained social workers. The important thing is the desire to serve as Jesus served—with unconditional love.

Those we serve have need of your talents, your know-how, your concern, your love. All of us have a great deal of expertise in various areas and by working together we can move mountains. Many Vincentians have raised families, run a household, built buildings, repaired autos or done just what you do so very well.

You say how much time you can give. Anyone who is willing to lend a hand is welcome to join the Society. Even a few hours of your time are very precious to the needy and distressed. In fact, all we ask is that you devote some time for works of charity and for a regular meeting. You can be an apostle right in your own parish.

*The Society of St. Vincent de Paul invites you to join it in spiritual growth, fellowship and silent works of charity;
quietly and discreetly aiding
needy families;
personal visits to homes,
hospitals, institutions;
seeking and serving
the distressed;
advocating for social justice;
and growing spiritually through the gift of self to others.*
