The Pastor's Corner

Christ our Light. While this phrase is taken from the Triduum when the Easter Candle is brought into a darkened church, it resonates with our themes from Advent and Christmas. Isaiah in our first reading, as he speaks of the Advent, arrival, of the Lord, describes his radiance reaching every person: "Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together." Christ's presence brings the light of heaven, which drives out all darkness from our hearts.

Saint Peter, our first pope, recognizes in our second reading that this illumination can feel quite alarming if we're used to living in the shadows. This sudden transformation can come as a jolt if we're not looking for it: "But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, . . . and the earth and everything done on it will be found out."

What prefers the darkness, what clings to the shadows, of course, is sin and shame. Parts of our own identity that we'd rather not be known by others squirm into unlit corners to linger without ever being openly confronted. John the Baptist responds to this by addressing repentance and the forgiveness of sins as he prepared for this invasion of light.

Our society today is experiencing an echo of this dynamic. Those whom we would see as leaders--news anchors, film directors, political representatives--are being brought into the light as long practiced behaviors are called into the open. What is a familiar theme for the Christian, that everything done on the earth will be found out, comes as a surprise to a society that for decades has insisted that absolute license must be unchecked, that there can be no consequences to satisfying our feelings.

God willing, this will be the beginning of a groundswell of discovery in our culture: that what we've embraced for so long, sexual gratuity in the media, pornography and uninhibited eroticism in a contraceptive environment, in fact leads to harm and the denigration of the human person. For years a Christian could feel like a lonely outlier as every ad, show, and magazine celebrated a brave new world where if it feels good, we should do it; perhaps now we can accompany those wounded by the fallout as we patch together a restored fabric in our culture.

One of the significant outcomes of this #metoo moment is that women (and men) harassed and abused over the decades are for the first time feeling the support needed to bring painful episodes to the light. Many women today are describing reawakened feelings of pain as buried traumas are jostled. Perhaps some men are realizing past manipulation doesn't simply disappear. As Elizabeth Scalia wrote at Aleteia November 30th, the reality of sexual abuse in our society is widespread, "that it is not a 'sometime' thing in the lives of women and children but an 'all too often' thing."

For us Catholics who have been given an outlook based on the dignity of the human person, the value of covenant and sacrifice, the primacy of chastity over a hookup mentality, we have lifelines that can reach a capsized society, a collapsed world. We profess a God who heals, who can restore those harmed by other's sin. We proclaim a God who saves, who can break through the blindness brought by the lie of hedonism without consequences.

Advent calls upon the disciples of Jesus to convert: when in apathy we have tolerated the deformed outlook forwarded by our society, permitting shadows to enter our own homes and families. As we step toward repentance, we allow the light of Christ to call us back to our authentic dignity as children of God. Restored to whom we have been meant to be, we can become mediators of hope in a world that needs light in the darkness.

El Rincón del Párroco

¡Cristo nuestra Luz! Si bien esta frase se toma del Triduo cuando se lleva la Vela de Pascua a una iglesia oscura, hace eco con nuestros temas de Adviento y Navidad. Isaías en nuestra primera lectura, cuando habla del Advenimiento, de la llegada del Señor, describe que su resplandor alcanzará a toda persona: "Entonces la gloria del Señor será revelada, y todos los pueblos la verán". La presencia de Cristo trae la luz del cielo, que expulsa todas las tinieblas de nuestros corazones.

San Pedro, nuestro primer Papa, en nuestra segunda lectura reconoce que esta iluminación puede parecer bastante alarmante si estamos acostumbrados a vivir en las sombras. Esta transformación repentina puede ser una sacudida si no la buscamos: "Pero el día del Señor vendrá como un ladrón y la tierra y todo lo que se haiga llevado a cabo en ella se sabrá.

Lo que prefiere la oscuridad, lo que se aferra a las sombras, por supuesto, es el pecado y la vergüenza. Partes de nuestra propia identidad que preferiríamos no ser conocidos por los demás se retuercen en rincones no iluminados para quedarse sin ser confrontados abiertamente. Juan el Bautista responde a esto dirigiéndose al arrepentimiento y al perdón de los pecados mientras se preparaba para esta invasión de luz.

Actualmente, nuestra sociedad está experimentando un eco de esta dinámica. Los comportamientos de aquellos a quienes vemos como líderes - presentadores de noticias, directores de cine, representantes políticos —están saliendo a la luz. Lo que es un lema común para un cristiano, de que todo lo echo en la tierra será descubierto, sorprende a la sociedad que por décadas ha insistido en dar rienda suelta y que no hay consecuencia alguna al satisfacer nuestros sentimientos.

Si Dios quiere, este será el comienzo de una ola de descubrimiento en nuestra cultura: que lo que hemos estado abrazado durante tanto tiempo, insinuación sexual en los medios, la pornografía y el erotismo extrovertido en un ambiente anticonceptivo, ha conducido al daño y la denigración de la persona humana durante años, un cristiano podía sentirse como solitario ya que cada anuncio, programa y revista celebraba un mundo nuevo y valiente en el que, si se siente bien, deberíamos hacerlo; quizás ahora podamos acompañar a los lastimados por las consecuencias mientras remendamos nuestra cultura.

Uno de los resultados significativos de este momento #metoo (#amitambien) es que las mujeres (y los hombres) acosados y maltratados a lo largo de las décadas sienten por primera vez el apoyo necesario para sacar a la luz los episodios dolorosos. Muchas mujeres de hoy están describiendo sentimientos de dolor reavivados a medida que estos traumas salen a luz. Quizás algunos hombres se están dando cuenta de que la manipulación pasada no simplemente desaparece. Como escribió Elizabeth Scalia en Aleteia el 30 de noviembre, la realidad del abuso sexual en nuestra sociedad es generalizada, "que no es solo algo 'en algún momento' de la vida de las mujeres y los niños, sino algo 'demasiado frecuente'".

Para nosotros los católicos a quienes se nos ha dado una perspectiva basada en la dignidad de la persona humana, el valor del pacto y el sacrificio, la primacía de la castidad sobre una mentalidad de conexión, tenemos líneas vitales que pueden llegar a una sociedad zozobra, a un mundo colapsado. Profesamos un Dios que sana, que puede restaurar a los perjudicados por el pecado ajeno. Proclamamos un Dios que salva, que puede romper la ceguera traída por la mentira del hedonismo sin consecuencias.

El Adviento hace un llamado a los discípulos de Jesús para que se conviertan: cuando en la apatía hemos tolerado la perspectiva deformada que nuestra sociedad nos ha transmitido, hemos permitido que las sombras entren en nuestros hogares y familias. A medida que avanzamos hacia el arrepentimiento, permitimos que la luz de Cristo nos vuelva a llamar a nuestra auténtica dignidad como hijos de Dios. Una vez restaurados a quien somos destinados a ser, podemos convertirnos en mediadores de esperanza en un mundo que necesita luz en la oscuridad.

La 14 ° caminata por la vida Anual de la costa en San Francisco será el sábado 27 de enero. Únase a nosotros y experimente la bendición de estar entre miles de personas que se posicionan por la VIDA. "Las mujeres merecen algo mejor" es el lema de esta demostración PACÍFICA.

DOS autobuses, patrocinados por Yuba Sutter Right to Life, saldrán de la Iglesia de San Isidro a las 9:00 a.m. el sábado 27 de enero y regresarán alrededor de las 7:30 p.m. Llame a Maureen 673-1437 para obtener más información o para reservar un lugar en un autobús. El costo es de $ 30 ($ 35 después del 1 de enero de 2018), hay asistencia financiera limitada para estudiantes y familias numerosas.

¡Hemos alcanzado nuestro objetivo!

Gracias a todos nuestros feligreses y familias de la escuela por sus donaciones para nuestras mesas de almuerzo en St. Isidore School. Hemos alcanzado nuestro objetivo de comprar 20 mesas de almuerzo para nuestros estudiantes. Actualmente contamos con 12 mesas nuevas que nuestros estudiantes están disfrutando. Las otras 8 se ordenarán durante las vacaciones y esperamos que estén listas para usarlas cuando regresemos de las vacaciones de Navidad. Las placas de donación ya fueron ordenadas y las instalaremos tan pronto como tengamos todas nuestras mesas. Para aquellos que esperaban donar para nuestras mesas, no se preocupen. Nuestro próximo proyecto es pedir más casilleros (lockers) para que nuestros estudiantes de 5º a 8º grado también tengan un lugar más seguro donde poner sus artículos. Necesitamos dos juegos más de casilleros con un costo de $ 2700 cada uno.

Programa de Adviento

Los estudiantes de St. Isidore School están organizando un programa de Adviento la tarde del 21 de diciembre en el gimnasio a las 6 p.m. ¡todos están invitados!

Deseos Navideños

REST

Most of you are familiar with the Regional Emergency Shelter Team, or more commonly called REST. REST provides emergency winter overnight shelter and food for homeless families and single women and I am so proud to announce that once again – for the 8th year – our parish will participate in this program.

Our parish is scheduled for the weeks of January 6th – 12th and February 17th – 23rd, 2018. During those two weeks we are asked to provide shelter (we offer our gymnasium) and a hearty, warm evening meal for our guests and the REST volunteers.

This is wonderful opportunity for parish ministries, families and individuals to show the love of Jesus Christ and be His hands here on earth. We are looking for people to provide meals & to serve. Gather your friends, family, Bible study groups, prayers groups, Bunco groups and volunteer.

Please contact us by email at bevignery@sbcglobal.net

St. Vincent de Paul

St. Vincent de Paul is in URGENT need of a trailer to pick up and deliver furniture for our clients. The one we had has gone missing; if you would like to donate one or would like to make a donation to purchase one please contact St. Vincent de Paul. 671-5154.

St. Vincent de Paul is in need of a data entry volunteer. If you are computer savvy and good with details, please call us or come by during our office hours. Data entry can be done at your convenience, usually about one hr per week.

The Food Locker is also in need of regular donations of rice and dried beans. If you or someone you know has connections to a grower or ag company that can make ongoing donations please have them contact us or drop the donations off at the Food Locker. We go through about 200 lbs of rice a month, and about 150 lbs of beans a month. Our volunteers bag the bulk rice and beans into 1 lb bags for our clients. These are staples in the food bags we distribute and our supplies are almost depleted.

With the start of Advent, St. Vincent de Paul is getting ready to prepare Christmas baskets for many of our clients. We need volunteers to help us with food baskets; collecting food items, helping put the baskets together (Saturday morning, December 16th), and delivering the baskets the following week. Please contact SVdP at 671-5154 if you'd like to help or for more information. We are receiving some turkeys from the United Way Turkey drive. We need additional donations for the baskets, including: funds for fresh items, canned vegetables, canned fruit, canned yams, gravy mix, boxed stuffing mix, cranberry sauce, olives, hot chocolate, and boxes of candy. We are also looking for donations of pies to include with the meal. All donations can be placed in the SVdP box in the vestibule or brought to our building M-Th 9:15-11:15. Pies can be brought to the building on the morning of December 16th, or call to make other arrangements. Thank you for your ongoing support of our outreach, and may God Bless You!
