A SEASON OF JOY

“They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers” (Acts 2:42). This first line of today’s first reading sets the tone as this fifty-day celebration of Easter opens before us. Today we listen to the teachings of three apostles—Luke, Peter, and John—who remind us that even though we have not seen Christ, we nonetheless are filled with joy as we place our belief in his saving death and resurrection. Each week during the Easter season we will gather as a community of faith to find strength and support from our God and from one another. Each week we will gather to break bread and offer the great prayer of thanksgiving, actions that will manifest the very presence of the risen Christ in our midst. Let us be open to the wonders of this season of joy.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — All who believed were devoted to the teachings of the apostles, the communal life, the breaking of the bread, and prayer (Acts 2:42-47).

Psalm — Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting (Psalm 118).

Second Reading — God has given us an undiminished inheritance, safeguarded for us in heaven (1 Peter 1:3-9).

Gospel — The risen Christ comes to his disciples with peace and the Spirit. The absent Thomas doubts (John 20:19-31).

TIEMPO DE ALEGRÍA

“Acudían asiduamente a escuchar las enseñanzas de los apóstoles, vivían en comunión fraterna y se congregaban para orar en común y celebrar la fracción del pan” (Hechos 2:42). La primera línea de la primera lectura de hoy marca la pauta al comenzar esta celebración de Pascua de cincuenta días. Hoy escuchamos las enseñanzas de tres apóstoles –Lucas, Pedro y Juan– que nos recuerdan que, aunque no hayamos visto a Cristo, estamos llenos de alegría al depositar nuestra creencia en su muerte y resurrección salvadoras. Cada semana durante el tiempo de Pascua nos reuniremos como comunidad de fe para hallar fuerzas y apoyo de nuestro Dios y de los demás. Cada semana nos reuniremos para fraccionar el pan y dar gracias en oración, acciones que manifestarán la mismísima presencia del Cristo resucitado entre nosotros. Estemos abiertos a los milagros de este tiempo de alegría.

Segunda lectura — Dios nos concedió renacer a la vida que esperamos por la resurrección de Jesucristo de entre los muertos. (1 Pedro 1:3-9).

It was at a different Jubilee than last year, back in the Jubilee Year 2000, that Saint John Paul II declared the Sunday after Easter to be entitled Divine Mercy Sunday. Specifically, it was at the canonization of Saint Maria Faustina, the visionary who originally received the request from Jesus that this feast become known.

Jesus had even more to tell Saint Faustina about today's feast, the octave of Easter. In her diary, Saint Faustina records Jesus saying: "My daughter, tell the whole world about my inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy." (paragraph 699)

An ocean of graces. This is a window of opportunity we can't afford to pass up. Jesus describes this gift as being so extraordinary we can't begin to grasp it: "My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout eternity." (Paragraph 699)

Throughout these last few days, we've been drawn into the mysteries of what Christ pours out for us. After 40 days of preparation in the Lenten season, through fasting, prayer, and works of mercy, our hearts have been softened to encounter the secrets of the Triduum: Jesus' gift of himself in the Last Supper, his Passion and Resurrection. Seeing these graces through the lens of Mercy allows us to plunge into this ocean.

Our parish is called to be a community that has encountered the truth, that has experienced this gift of God, so that anyone who comes into contact with us spontaneously is met by a Mercy that flows from heaven. As each of us authentically incorporates the love and forgiveness of God in our lives, we become fountains of this same reconciliation to our brothers and sisters.

Ask God to allow you to be his channel of love. Ask for a deeper experience of his Mercy, so that you become a new person, a missionary of grace to those he puts in your life. Today is the day God promises us everything: reach out to receive what he offers.

Fue en un año de Jubileo diferente al del año pasado, en el Año Jubilar 2000, que San Juan Pablo II declaró el Domingo después de Pascua el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. Específicamente, fue en la canonización de Santa María Faustina, la visionaria que originalmente recibió la petición de Jesús de que se conociera esta fiesta.

Jesús tenía aún más que decirle a Santa Faustina acerca de la fiesta de hoy, la octava de Pascua. En su diario, Santa Faustina registra a Jesús diciendo: "Hija mía, dile a todo el mundo de mi inimaginable misericordia, deseo que la fiesta de misericordia sea refugio para todas las almas, especialmente para los pobres pecadores. Las profundidades de Mi misericordia están abiertas, derramando un océano de gracias sobre aquellas almas que se acercan a la Fuente de Mi Misericordia ". (Párrafo 699)

Un océano de gracias. Esta es una ventana de oportunidad que no podemos permitir dejar pasar. Jesús describe este don como algo tan extraordinario que no podemos comprender: "Mi misericordia es tan grande que ninguna mente, sea del hombre o del ángel, será capaz de comprenderla a través de la eternidad". (Párrafo 699)

A lo largo de estos últimos días, hemos sido atraídos hacia los misterios de lo que Cristo derrama por nosotros. Después de 40 días de preparación en la Cuaresma, a través del ayuno, la oración y las obras de misericordia, nuestros corazones se han suavizado para encontrar los secretos del Triduo: el regalo de Jesús de darnos a sí mismo en la Última Cena, su Pasión y Resurrección. Ver estas gracias a través del lente de la Misericordia nos permite sumergirnos en este océano.

Nuestra parroquia está llamada a ser una comunidad que ha encontrado la verdad, que ha experimentado este don de Dios, para que cualquiera que entre en contacto con nosotros espontáneamente se encuentra con una Misericordia que fluye del cielo. Como cada uno de nosotros incorpora auténticamente el amor y el perdón de Dios en nuestras vidas, es que nos convertimos en fuentes de esta misma reconciliación para nuestros hermanos y hermanas.

Pídele a Dios que te permita ser canal de amor. Píde una experiencia más profunda de su Misericordia, para que te conviertas en una nueva persona, un misionero de gracia para aquellos que él pone en tu vida. Hoy es el día en que Dios nos promete todo: acércate a recibir lo que él nos ofrece.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

ALLELUIA! HE IS RISEN!

What is Catechesis of the Good Shepherd?

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a distinct approach to children's faith formation in which children as young as 3 can cultivate deep, lifelong relationships with Christ and the Church. Originating in Rome in the 1950s, this approach engages children using age-appropriate, hands-on materials based on Sacred Scripture and Liturgy. Young children learn best by actively engaging their bodies and all of their senses. In the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, they work with simple, beautiful materials in a room prepared for them called the "atrium". Children from 3 to 12 can immerse themselves in this quiet, retreat-like environment.

If you are interested in learning more about Catechesis of the Good Shepherd at St Isidore parish and school, please contact Michelle Knox at mknnox@stisidore-yubacity.org.

Catequesis del Buen Pastor
¡ALELUYA! ¡ÉL HA RESUCITADO!
¿Qué es la Catequesis del Buen Pastor?

La Catequesis del Buen Pastor es un acercamiento distinto a la formación de la fe de los niños en la cual los niños pequeños de 3 años en adelante pueden cultivar relaciones profundas y duraderas con Cristo y la Iglesia. Originado en Roma en la década de 1950, este enfoque involucra a los niños utilizando materiales apropiados para su edad, prácticas basadas en la Sagrada Escritura y la Liturgia. Los niños pequeños aprenden mejor involucrando activamente sus cuerpos y todos sus sentidos. En la Catequesis del Buen Pastor, trabajan con materiales sencillos y bellos en una sala preparada para ellos llamada "atrio". Los niños de 3 a 12 años pueden sumergirse en este ambiente tranquilo y retirado.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The origins of the custom of burning a lamp before the tabernacle are in Jewish worship, where a lamp called ner tamid or "eternal flame" burns before the ark in every synagogue. The ark contains the sacred scrolls of the Torah. The flame represents the menorah in the Temple, and therefore is never extinguished. In fact, the word "tabernacle" itself is derived from Hebrew, as taber is the Hebrew word for "tent," and hearkens back to the forty years of wandering in the desert. The pilgrim people were sustained in hope by an awareness that God was not only in the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night, but had quite literally "pitched his tent with them" in the shelter for the Ark of the Covenant. Some artisans have used this theme of "ark" or "tent" to design a tabernacle for the Blessed Sacrament.

In Christian practice, Anglicans and Catholics use a sanctuary lamp to point toward the presence of the reserved sacrament, and Lutherans use it as a sign of God's presence in the house of worship, but not necessarily as a clue that the Eucharist is reserved. Why, even in an age of electric light, is the sanctuary lamp an oil light or candle? Perhaps not only to point to Christ, the light of the world, but also to point to sacrifice. For the light to exist there must be sacrifice. The oil or wax is transformed into light, just as those who pray here, or who will receive viaticum from here, are called to transformation in Christ.

Second Sunday of Easter-April 23, 2017

Segundo Domingo de Pascua-abril 23, 2017

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El 20 de abril de 1906 los ojos de una imagen de la Dolorosa comenzaron a parpadear durante un lapso de 15 minutos en el colegio jesuita San Gabriel, en Quito, Ecuador. En 1995 en Cochabamba, Bolivia, donde una imagen del Divino rostro lagrimó sangre y después, una imagen de la Inmaculada hizo lo mismo. En el transcurso del siglo veinte, muchísimas imágenes de Cristo, María e incluso, el Espíritu Santo, lloraron lágrimas de agua, sangre u óleo, emitieron aroma de rosa o mostraron alguna manifestación paranormal.

La ciencia logró explicar algunos de estos fenómenos, pero en muchos casos no fue posible. Normalmente, la jerarquía eclesiástica prefiere no hacer declaraciones oficiales al respecto, por lo menos, no antes de mucho escrutinio. El apóstol san Juan recomienda examinar cada espíritu (1 Juan 4:1-3) y esto es lo que la Iglesia hace con estas manifestaciones sobrenaturales. Con investigaciones científicas, sociales y espirituales se examinan cuidadosamente estas manifestaciones a fin de asegurar que provienen de Dios y no del diablo u otros orígenes. En fin, la mejor prueba de la veracidad de estos fenómenos es la conversión de los fieles.

Catholic Home Missions Appeal Strengthening the Church at Home

Next week, we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the US are considered home missions because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support of this appeal helps ease the struggle of these dioceses. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

La próxima semana llevaremos a cabo el Llamado para las Misiones Católicas. Hoy, a más del 40 por ciento de las diócesis en Estados Unidos se le considera como diócesis misioneras ya que no les es posible financiar las labores pastorales básicas en sus comunidades. Su apoyo a este llamado ayuda a aliviar los esfuerzos de estas diócesis. Por favor, en oración, consideren la manera de apoyar a este llamado.
