THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | NOVEMBER 11, 2018
TRIGÉSIMO SEGUNDO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO / 11 DE NOVIEMBRE DE 2018

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

*The Lord keeps faith forever, secures justice for the oppressed, gives food to the hungry.—Psalm 146:7
El Señor siempre es fiel a su palabra, y es quien hace justicia al oprimido; él proporciona pan a los hambrientos.—Salmo 146 (145):7*

The Pastor's Corner

November brings us to the end of the liturgical year, drawing us to ponder upon the last things. This year in our lectionary cycle we make our way through the book of Hebrews, with its themes of heaven and our entry there through Jesus.

Today Hebrews confirms this mystery by revealing more clearly who Jesus is. We had seen him crucified on a hill outside of Jerusalem, offering himself for God's children. Hebrews clarifies that this sacrifice did not take place exclusively on earth, but in fact also occurred in heaven.

Referencing the first sanctuary, the tabernacle crafted by Moses and refashioned into the stone temple by Solomon, our author affirms that this place of countless sacrifices through the centuries, is in fact a copy of the true holy place, heaven itself.

Jesus' one sacrifice, which took place on earth 2,000 years ago, is therefore an eternal sacrifice. As Son of God what he offers as Son of Man is not merely a passing chronological moment but a timeless event, offered in eternity.

For us who share in that sacrifice here and now on earth, we should feel with each communion, each Mass, the tug into eternity. Each time we receive the Eucharist, the bread of heaven, we are more firmly grounded in our true home, and more able to recognize the world around us as passing. The last things, for us, become present, as with Jesus we already enter eternity.

El Rincón del Pastor

Noviembre nos trae al final del año litúrgico, nos atrae a reflexionar sobre las cosas pasadas. Este año en nuestro ciclo lectionario abrimos camino al libro de Hebreos, con el tema del cielo y de nuestra entrada allí a través de Jesús.

Hoy hebreos confirma este misterio al revelarnos más claramente quién es Jesús. Lo habíamos visto crucificado en un cerro fuera de Jerusalén, ofreciéndose a sí mismo por los hijos de Dios. Hebreos nos aclara que este sacrificio no tuvo lugar exclusivamente en la tierra, pero de hecho también ocurrió en el cielo.

Referente al primer santuario, el tabernáculo diseñado por Moisés y rediseñado en el templo de piedra por Salomón, nuestro autor afirma que este lugar de innumerables sacrificios a través de los siglos, de hecho, es una copia del verdadero lugar santo, en sí mismo el Cielo.

El sacrificio de Jesús, que tuvo lugar en la tierra hace 2,000 años, es por lo tanto un sacrificio eterno. Como hijo de Dios lo que él ofrece al hijo del hombre no es simplemente un momento cronológico de paso sino un evento sin fin, un evento ofrecido para la eternidad.

Para nosotros que participamos en ese sacrificio aquí en la tierra, debemos sentir la cercanía a la eternidad en cada comunión, y en cada Misa. Cada vez que recibimos la Eucaristía, el pan del cielo, somos más firmemente cimentados en nuestro verdadero hogar y más capaces de reconocer que el mundo que nos rodea es solamente pasajero. Las cosas pasadas, para nosotros, se hacen presentes en cuanto a través de Jesús entramos a la eternidad.

Better Way to Contribute

Many Parishioners over 70½ must take an annual withdrawal from their traditional IRA. The same parishioners may make contributions to the Church and in past years would take a deduction on their tax return. However, with the new $12,000 standard deduction, many will not get a tax deduction for the contribution. Therefore, we recommend you make your contribution directly from your IRA to get the same tax break. Your tax preparer or your IRA Plan Administrator should be able to assist you. For more details you may want to go to www.guthandchangarishlaw.com.

La mejor manera de contribuir

Muchos feligreses de más 70½ debe tomar un retiro anual de su cuenta IRA tradicional. Los feligreses mismos pueden hacer contribuciones a la Iglesia y obtener una deducción en su declaración de impuestos. Sin embargo, con la nueva deducción estándar de $12,000, muchos no obtendrán una deducción de impuestos por el aporte. Por lo tanto, recomendamos hacer su contribución directamente de su IRA a la misma rotura de impuesto. Su preparador de impuestos o su administrador del Plan IRA debe ser capaces de ayudarle. Para más detalles puede ir a www.guthandchangarishlaw.com.

Code of Canon Law Basics: Did you know Missing Mass is a Mortal Sin?

Mass happens to be one specific way Jesus asked the apostles to keep his memory alive, and the reception of Communion unites us intimately with Christ and strengthens us to live in the manner that Jesus taught. The banquet of The Lamb is a gift from God to nourish and strengthen his people in this earthly journey. Turning bread and wine into the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Christ is a life-giving miracle done before our eyes at every Mass. Let us run to Jesus in the Eucharistic feast as often as we can, and receive the blessings he gives through his presence.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states clearly in paragraph # 2181: "The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. For this reason, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason (for example, illness, the care of infants). Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin." Also, in #2192, "On Sundays and other holy days of obligation the faithful are bound to participate in Mass." CCC 2192

Intentionally missing Mass, without "serious inconvenience" is a mortal sin. If one misses Holy Mass deliberately, one must go to Confession before receiving Holy Communion.

Conocimientos básicos del Código de Derecho Canónico: ¿usted sabe que falta Misa es un pecado Mortal?

La Misa es específicamente la manera que Jesús le pidió a los apóstoles continuar para mantener viva su memoria, y la recepción de la comunión nos une íntimamente con Cristo y nos fortalece para vivir de la manera que Jesús nos enseñó. El banquete del cordero es un regalo de Dios para nutrir y fortalecer su pueblo en este viaje terrenal. Convertir el pan y el vino en el cuerpo, sangre, alma y divinidad de Cristo es un milagro hecho ante nuestros ojos en cada Misa. Corramos a

Jesús en la fiesta eucarística tan a menudo como podamos y recibamos las bendiciones que nos da a través de su presencia.

El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica claramente indica en el párrafo # 2181: "La Eucaristía de Domingo es el fundamento y la confirmación de toda la práctica cristiana. Por esta razón, los fieles están obligados a participar en la Eucaristía los días de obligación, a menos que sea justificada por una razón seria (por ejemplo, enfermedad, o cuidado de los bebés). Aquellos que deliberadamente no cumplen su obligación cometen un pecado grave". También, en #2192, "Los domingos y otros días santos de obligación de los fieles están obligados a participar en la Misa." CCC 2192

Intencionalmente faltar a Misa, sin "razón grave" es un pecado mortal. Si uno no asiste a Misa deliberadamente, uno debe ir a la confesión antes de recibir la Santa Comunión.

The Gabriel Project Needs You!

Many women faced with crisis pregnancies are abandoned by their families, the fathers of their babies and their communities. More and more, they are poor and in their teens. Some are homeless. Most feel afraid. For too many reasons, abortion seems the only answer. Churches and pro-life service groups have sought ways to expand their embrace of women in crisis pregnancies. Now comes a way they can do so together ... a way to combine the special power of prayer with a commitment to service - The Gabriel Project!

The Gabriel Project is a church-based outreach whose volunteers offer assistance to women and families facing difficult or crisis pregnancies. Participating churches will "advertise" this commitment by placing a "Sign of Hope", with its "800" number Helpline, which assures any woman that the local Christian community cares for her and is prepared to offer immediate and practical help with her pregnancy. Callers to the Helpline are referred to the nearest appropriate church coordinator. The coordinator and the church volunteers - "Angels"- work with local community resources to meet the mother's needs.

¡El Proyecto de Gabriel Le Necesita!

Muchas mujeres que afrontan crisis de embarazos son abandonadas por sus familias, los padres de sus bebés y sus comunidades. Cada vez más, son pobres y adolescentes. Algunos están sin hogar. La mayoría sienten miedo. Por muchas razones, el aborto parece ser la única respuesta. Las iglesias y los grupos de servicio de pro-vida han buscado formas para expandir y acoger a estas mujeres con crisis de embarazos. Ahora hay una forma que ellas pueden hacer juntas... una forma especial de combinar el poder de oración con el compromiso de servir - El Proyecto Gabriel!

El Proyecto Gabriel es un proyecto de la iglesia cuyos voluntarios tienen el compromiso de ofrecer asistencia a las mujeres y a familias afrontando embarazos difíciles o de crisis. Las iglesias participantes "anunciarán" este compromiso colocando un "Signo de Esperanza", con su número "800." Línea de ayuda lo cual reconforta a toda mujer que la comunidad cristiana local cuida de ella y está preparada a ofrecer ayuda práctica e inmediata en su embarazo. Las personas que llaman a la "Línea de Ayuda" son referidas a el coordinador iglesia apropiado más cercano. El coordinador y los voluntarios iglesia -"Los Ángeles"- colaboran con la iglesia comunidad local y recursos comunales local que reúnan las necesidades de las Madres.
