The Pastor's Corner

Fourth Sunday! We've passed the halfway point! We're making our way through Lent!

Our readings today give us one of the best known Psalms in the Jewish Psalter: "If I forget you Jerusalem, let my right hand wither." A lament from exile, sung by the streams of Babylon, it expresses our extraordinary urgency as those who are far from home, far from our heavenly home. Urgency and fragility--the recognition that in the attractions and bustle of our surroundings, we could lose sight and forget our true home.

Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you--the Psalm recognizes that we collapse, we lose our meaning, if we become detached from our true identity. Like Jesus would ask many generations later, "What does it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his soul?"

Today is our chance to redouble our Lenten practices, to throw ourselves more fully into our Lenten endeavor so as to reawaken our heart's longing for the truth, for who we truly are. And as a parish, we hold the significant responsibility of handing on this reality to our children, of ensuring that this insight is not extinguished with us.

I'd like to renew my request that you support our parish school in awakening this vision in our children. If you haven't yet done so, go to our parish website www.stisidore-yubacity.org (you can google our parish to find the page), and there you'll find a link to contribute via Online Giving. Please make a monthly pledge to the school there via Faith Direct, whether $5 a month or a full tuition's worth of $370 monthly, and assist us in handing on the fire of the Faith.

If you and I allow the Faith to die with us, if we don't hand on what we have received, if we allow the heavenly Jerusalem to be forgotten by the next generation, we are more than withered, more than lost. The memory of Jerusalem our home may be erased, but let it not be with us or our children.

El Rincón del Párroco

¡Cuarto domingo! ¡Hemos ya pasado la mitad del camino! ¡Vamos avanzando en la Cuaresma!

Nuestras lecturas de hoy nos dan uno de los salmos más conocidos en el salterio judío: "Si te olvido, Jerusalén, que se me paralice la mano derecha". Un lamento del exilio, cantado por las corrientes de Babilonia, expresa nuestra extraordinaria urgencia como aquellos que están lejos de casa, lejos de nuestro hogar celestial. Urgencia y fragilidad: el reconocimiento de que, en las atracciones y el bullicio de nuestro entorno, podríamos perder de vista y olvidarnos de nuestro verdadero hogar.

Que se me pegue la lengua al paladar, si no me acuerdo de ti, el Salmo reconoce que colapsamos, perdemos nuestro significado, si nos separamos de nuestra verdadera identidad. Como Jesús preguntaría muchas generaciones después: "¿De qué le sirve a un hombre ganar el mundo entero y perder su alma?"

Hoy es nuestra oportunidad de redoblar nuestras costumbres cuaresmales, de lanzarnos más plenamente a nuestro esfuerzo de Cuaresma a fin de despertar el anhelo de nuestro corazón por la verdad, por lo que realmente somos. Y como parroquia, tenemos la importante responsabilidad de transmitir esta realidad a nuestros hijos, de garantizar que esta visión no se extinga con nosotros.

Me gustaría pedirles nuevamente que apoyen a nuestra escuela parroquial para despertar esta visión en nuestros niños. Si aún no lo ha hecho, vaya al sitio web de nuestra parroquia www.stisidore-yubacity.org (puede buscar nuestra parroquia en google para encontrar la página), y allí encontrará un enlace para contribuir a través de Online Giving. Haga un donativo mensual para la escuela a través de Faith Direct, ya sea de $ 5 al mes o una matrícula completa de $ 370 mensuales, y ayúdenos a pasar la llama de la Fe a nuestros niños.

Si usted y yo permitimos que la Fe muera con nosotros, si no entregamos lo que hemos recibido y si permitimos que la próxima generación olvide a la Jerusalén celestial, estamos más que marchitos, más que perdidos. El recuerdo de Jerusalén, nuestro hogar, puede borrarse, pero que no se borre con nosotros ni con nuestros hijos.

A NOTE FROM THE FINANCE COUNCIL

Some feedback that we received after the mid-year Parish financial report had been given at the Sunday Masses during the weekend of February 17 and 18 indicated that you might have been surprised to hear that we were running about $27,000 over budget at the end of December 2017. Following your feedback, we noted that the summary of the Sunday collection that appears in the bulletin every week indicates that we are collecting more than our budgeted expenses, and we see how this might have been the cause of your surprise. We are sorry to report now that the summary of the collections has been mistaken because we reported an amount taken from a wrong line in the budget. We have corrected this mistake, and you can see now how the Sunday collections are running below budget.

Next week, our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services

Collection (CRSC). Funds from this collection help provide food to the hungry, support to displaced refugees, and bring Christ's love and mercy to all people here at home and abroad. Next week, please give generously to the CRSC, and help Jesus in disguise. Learn more about the collection at www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.

What does Lent have to do with those becoming Catholic?

In Lent, RCIA participants move into the final period of preparation for the sacraments. They have been nourished by the graces of various liturgical Rites throughout the RCIA process, which have helped them to embrace God's call. In Lent, God pours purifying and enlightening graces upon them, through the spiritual preparation they receive in RCIA sessions, the special Rites that mark the Sundays of Lent, and the prayers offered for them by the faithful.

We have 2 more Scrutinies, the 11th at the 8 am Mass and the 18th at the 10 am Mass. What are the Scrutinies? These Rites are celebrated to help deliver the elect from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life (RCIA 141). The Gospel story of the Samaritan woman at the well for the 1st Scrutiny, the Gospel story of the healing of the man born blind for the 2nd Scrutiny, and the Gospel story of the raising of Lazarus for the 3rd Scrutiny. The celebrations of the Scrutinies also remind the whole parish community of the need to reflect on their own sins and the need for God's help.

TOLD. Come & Learn about “Why now is the Time of Mercy”. Beginning on Tuesday, April 3, you are invited to learn about Divine Mercy in the Second Greatest Story Ever Told. This will be 5 DVD sessions featuring Fr. Michael Gaitley. These DVD sessions, followed by small group discussion, bring together the prophetic witness of St. John Paul II, and the profound connection between Marian Consecration and Divine Mercy. It is a call to respond to the urgent need for mercy in our time of unprecedented evil. All are welcome. No book is required, but may be purchased: workbook $25, book $20, but need to call to order by March 25. Call Cathy at 755-1536 & leave a call back phone. Location: Bishop Quinn Hall at 6:30 PM, Tuesday, April 3 to May 1.

Come to the Feast of Divine Mercy on Sunday, April 8th! Holy Hour at 3:30 & Divine Mercy Chaplet. Bilingual Mass at 5:00 PM

Did you know that Jesus said this feast would one day be the “last hope of salvation”? Why? What is so special about this new Feast of Divine Mercy you might be asking yourself? It is the promise of the total forgiveness of all sins and punishment for any soul that would go to Confession and then receive Jesus in Holy Communion on this very special Feast of Divine Mercy!

Why would Jesus offer us something so great at this time? Jesus told St. Faustina that she was to prepare the world for His Second Coming and that He would be pouring out His Mercy, in very great abundance, before He comes again as the Just Judge and as the very last hope of salvation.

Don't miss out on this incredible gift of mercy that is available, in every Catholic Church, at every Mass on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 8th!

To properly celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy and to receive the forgiveness of all sins and punishment, you must go to Confession within 20 days before or after Divine Mercy Sunday. Or if you are in the state of very serious or mortal sin, you must always confess them before receiving Jesus in Holy Communion. For more information, contact Cathy at 755-1536, leave a call back phone number.
