SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER (OR SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY) | APRIL 28, 2019
SEGUNDO DOMINGO DE PASCUA (DOMINGO DE LA DIVINA MISERICORDIA) | 28 DE ABRIL DE 2019

Once I was dead, but now I am alive forever and ever. — Revelation 1:18a
Estuve muerto y ahora, como ves, estoy vivo por los siglos de los siglos. — Apocalipsis 1:18a

The Pastor's Corner

Easter this year, day of celebration for Christians around the world, brought a vicious attack against Christians as they gathered to celebrate the victory of life. At Saint Anthony's Shrine and at Saint Sebastian's Church, as Catholics gathered for Easter Mass, at Zion Church as their Protestant brothers and sisters gathered for Sunday's service, as well as at four other locations in Sri Lanka, attacks by the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria, now expelled from Iraq and Syria, killed more people than almost any terrorist attack since 9/11.

One week later, as grieving families bury the dead, the Church arrives at the commemoration of Divine Mercy Sunday. In a world of darkness and violence, human solutions seem incapable of responding to human cruelty. After 2017's attack on Palm Sunday, killing 45 worshippers in Egypt, and 2016's Easter Massacre which killed 75 in Pakistan, the darkness of this world seems intent on obscuring the light of Christ's resurrection. As we turn toward the rays shining from Jesus' still-pierced heart, we need his mercy more than ever.

In Sacramento this year Divine Mercy Sunday coincides with Bishop Soto's releasing a list of clergy historically accused of abuse in the diocese over the last 70 years. Following last June's grand jury report from Pennsylvania, and July's revelations about then Cardinal McCarrick, Bishop Soto has felt the urgency of highlighting our response to sexual abuse. In his letter read in parishes across the diocese today, Bishop Soto asks us to join him in praying for the victims of sexual abuse and for the purification of the Church.

Wounds against the Church, whether from the outside or from within, make our union with Jesus deeply painful. Today in our second reading from Revelation John writes to us: "I, John, your brother, who share with you the distress, the kingdom, and the endurance we have in Jesus," reminding us that even as the revelation of Christ's glory emerges, it comes to us in while in trial and suffering.

The Catholic Church, both in America and around the world, is in a time of trial and purification. No human response will be adequate to respond to harm here or elsewhere. As Catholics, the reason why we turn to Jesus, is because we know that only his blood, only his mercy, can respond to our sin and suffering. Humanity, in the depths of its misery, will find healing only in the mercy and compassion of its creator.

El Rincón Del Pastor

La Semana Santa de este año, día de celebración para los cristianos del mundo, trajo consigo un feroz ataque contra los cristianos que se reunieron a celebrar la victoria de la vida. En el Santuario de San Antonio y en la iglesia de San Sebastián, como católicos reunidos para la Misa de Pascua; en la iglesia de Zion cuando los hermanos y hermanas protestantes se reunieron para el servicio del domingo, así como en otros cuatro lugares en Sri Lanka, fueron atacados por el estado islámico de Irak y Siria, ahora expulsados de Irak y Siria, mataron a más personas que casi cualquier ataque terrorista desde el 9/11.

Una semana después, las familias tristes entierran a sus muertos y la iglesia llega a la conmemoración de Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. En un mundo de oscuridad y violencia donde las soluciones humanas parecen incapaces de responder a la crueldad humana. Tras el ataque de 2017 el domingo de Ramos, matando a 45 fieles en Egipto y la masacre de Pascua del 2016 que mató a 75 personas en Pakistán, la oscuridad de este mundo parece decidida a obscurecer la luz de la resurrección de Cristo. Cuando volteamos hacia los rayos luminoso del corazón de Jesús aun traspasado, nos damos cuenta que necesitamos su misericordia más que nunca.

Este año en Sacramento el Domingo de Misericordia coincide con la lista redimida del Obispo Soto sobre el clero históricamente acusado de abuso en la Diócesis en los últimos 70 años. Dando seguimiento al informe del jurado el junio pasado en Pennsylvania y las revelaciones de julio sobre el entonces Cardenal McCarrick, el Obispo Soto ha sentido la urgencia de destacar nuestra respuesta al abuso sexual. En su carta ya leída el día de hoy en las parroquias de la Diócesis, el Obispo Soto nos pide unirnos a él en oración por las víctimas de abuso sexual y por la purificación de la iglesia.

Las heridas contra la iglesia, ya sea desde fuera o dentro, hacen nuestra unión con Jesús profundamente dolorosa. Hoy en nuestra segunda lectura de Apocalipsis Juan nos escribe: "Yo, Juan, vuestro hermano, comparto con ustedes la señal de socorro, el Reino y la perseverancia que tenemos en Jesús," nos recuerda que cuando la revelación de la gloria de Cristo surge, viene a nosotros en momentos de juicio y sufriendo.

La iglesia católica, tanto en América como en todo el mundo, está en un tiempo de juicio y purificación. No hay respuesta humana adecuada que pueda responder a los daños aquí o en otro lugar. Como católicos, la razón por qué acudimos a Jesús, es porque sabemos que solamente su sangre, sólo su misericordia, puede responder a nuestro pecado y sufrimiento. La humanidad, en lo más profundo de su miseria, encontrará sanación sólo en la misericordia y la compasión de su creador.

A BETTER USE OF YOUR TIME

Learn to give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you'll have no time for criticism of others.

VER ES CREER

¡Ver es creer! Desde que los teléfonos celulares nos conectan instantáneamente a las redes sociales, televisión en vivo y los rostros de nuestros seres queridos de cerca y lejos, “Tomás el incrédulo” podría ser nuestro santo patrón: “¡hasta que no lo vea, no lo creeré!” Pero que reconfortante para cualquiera de nosotros que compartimos las dudas de Tomás, o nos gustan los “incrédulos” que lo hacen, para ver qué tan amable responde Jesús. Al ofrecer la misma evidencia que Tomás pedía, Jesús no reprendió a Tomás, sino parece que entendió su incredulidad. ¿Es que acaso Jesús estaba pensando en nosotros, que anhelábamos creer que “¡Jesús resucitó!”, pero ver demasiado sufrimiento y quizá incluso haber causado algo, que nos preguntamos, cómo algo tan extraordinario sería verdad? En las lecturas de hoy del libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles, el amor de Jesús resucitado da consuelo por medio de sus discípulos que amaban a los demás. En el libro del Apocalipsis, “nuestro hermano Juan” no solo afirma que vio vivo a Jesús, sino que transmite las palabras de Jesús que dan vida: “¡No tengan miedo!” ¡Ver a Jesús en los demás es creer!

Para todas las nuevas familias que estén interesadas en traer a sus hijos a nuestro programa de Formación de la Fe para continuar formando a los niños en conocimiento y relación con Nuestro Señor, o si los niños necesitan una preparación sacramental, los padres deben asistir a uno de nuestros.

Reuniones obligatorias de Pre-registración para padres.

Las fechas y horarios son los siguientes:

Domingo 12 de mayo y domingo 19 de mayo. Las sesiones en español serán a las 12:15pm – 1:15pm en el salón parroquial.

El jueves, 16 de mayo a las 6:30pm – 7:30pm.

En estas juntas se les informará de nuestros programas que tenemos para ayudarles en formar a sus hijos en nuestra bella fe y podrá también hacer su cita para registrar a sus hijos.

USA MEJOR EL TIEMPO

Aprende a dar tanto tiempo para mejorarte que no tendrás tiempo para criticar a otros.

The virtue we are cultivating for the next two weeks is Obedience. This is the perfect virtue to finish up with for Lent:)

Thank you to all who took the time to help us with the Jog-a-thon. Your support of both time and money helps to build community and support our students. We look forward to seeing many of you at our Golf Tournament on Saturday, May 4.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

In the Atrium

This week in the atrium the children have been visiting the places and events of Jesus' last days before His death. Using a three-dimensional model, we have traced His steps from the Last Supper in the upper room to his arrest at the Garden of Olives. We have followed Him from Pontius Pilate at the Praetorium to Calvary. We have contemplated His death on the cross, being laid in the tomb, and His glorious resurrection. In this way we are able to prayerfully contemplate the Paschal Mystery as a historical reality and the greatest mystery of love.

If you would like to learn more about Catechesis of the Good Shepherd at St. Isidore, please contact Michelle Knox at mknox@stisidore-yubacity.org. We have need of catechists and atrium assistants. A new formation course begins in June!

Blessings!

On behalf of Perpetual Adoration, we would like to thank all of our committed adorers, substitute adorers, parishioners & visitors and their families for their faithful time and dedication to adore Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

DON'T SAY TOO MUCH

One is almost bound to fall into error if one tries to say a great deal.

—Erasmus

La virtud que estamos cultivando para las próximas dos semanas es obediencia. Esta es la virtud perfecta con la que podemos terminar la Cuaresma:)

Gracias a todos los que se tomaron el tiempo para ayudarnos con el Jog-a-thon. Su apoyo de tiempo y dinero ayuda a construir comunidad y apoyo a nuestros estudiantes. Esperamos ver a muchos de ustedes en nuestro torneo de Golf el sábado, 4 de mayo.

Catequesis del Buen Pastor

en el Atrio

esta semana en el atrio los niños han estado visitando los lugares y acontecimientos de últimos días de Jesús antes de su muerte. Usando un modelo tridimensional, hemos trazado sus pasos desde la última cena en el aposento a su arresto en el Huerto de los Olivos. Le hemos seguido de Poncio Pilato en el pretorio al Calvario. Hemos contemplado su muerte en la Cruz, su reposo en la tumba y su gloriosa resurrección. De esta manera podemos contemplar devotamente el Misterio Pascual como una realidad histórica y el misterio más grande de amor.

Si desea más información sobre el Catequesis del Buen Pastor en San Isidro, póngase en contacto con Michelle Knox en mknox@stisidore-yubacity.org. Tenemos necesidad de catequistas y ayudantes de atrio. ¡Un nuevo curso de formación comienza en junio!

¡Bendiciones!

En nombre de la Adoración Perpetua, nos gustaría agradecer a nuestros adoradores comprometidos, Adoradores sustitutos, feligreses y visitantes y a sus familias por su fiel tiempo y dedicación para adorar a Jesús en el Santísimo Sacramento.

NO HABLES DEMASIADO

Es casi seguro que cometeremos errores si tratamos de decir demasiado.

—Erasmus

Visit LAYMISSION.NET for more information as well as a free course on spiritual practices for ordinary Christians. These core practices are fundamental to the formation, and offer a hands-on look at the online learning environment.

Who?

This formation process is geared toward lay (ordinary) Catholics who seek to deepen their understanding of the faith, and to become a part of the Church’s mission to the world in the ordinary circumstances of daily life. Whether a young adult, middle aged, or elderly, single or married, professional, retired, or a homemaker, this formation could be perfect for you.

What?

The Lay Mission Project seeks to animate the lay apostolate in the Church by preparing laypeople for the sake of their fundamental calling: to transform secular society through living the faith in all aspects of life – in the family, socially, in one’s occupation, etc. This is accomplished through a formation process that involves prayer, retreats, personal and communal reflection, online education, in-person workshops, and together growing local communities of disciples of our Lord.

How?

For those who are interested in participating in this formation, visit:
SCD.ORG/LAYMISSIONPROJECT

There you will find more information about the formation, as well as a link to begin the online application process.

More Questions?

If you have general questions about the project, more information can be found at LAYMISSION.NET/

If you have more specific questions, send an email to Lauralyn Solano at LSOLANO@SCD.ORG
