THE WAY

Today we sense the apostles' trepidation as they begin to realize that the Lord would soon be leaving them. In their fear, they ask, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" (John 14:5). Jesus tells them that he is the way. The Easter season has been a time of growing in Easter faith so that we, too, may learn to know that Jesus is the way. We can take comfort in the Lord's promise that he is going to his Father's house to prepare a place for us, his chosen people who have been called out of darkness into God's wonderful light. As the paschal candle continues to burn during this holy season, let us remember that in baptism we were given the light of Christ. With Christ our light as the beacon lighting our way, let us march toward the glory of Pentecost.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — to meet their growing needs, the community chooses seven reputable men to serve the New Greek believers (Acts 6:1-7).

Psalm — Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you (Psalm 33).

Second Reading — we, like living stones, let ourselves be built into a spiritual house (1 Peter 2:4-9).

Gospel — "Show us the Father," Philip asks Jesus. To which Jesus replies: "Whoever sees me, sees the Father" (John 14:1-12).

EL CAMINO

Hoy sentimos la perturbación de los apóstoles cuando empiezan a dars cuenta de que el Señor pronto los dejara. Temerosos pregunta: "Señor, ¿no sabemos a dónde vas como podemos saber el camino?" (Juan 14:5). Jesus les dice que él es el camino. El tiempo de Pascua ha sido un tiempo para crecer en la fe pascual para que, así también, nosotros podamos darnos cuenta de que Jesus es el camino. Nos consuela la promesa del Señor de que va a la casa de su Padre a preparar un lugar para nosotros, su pueblo elegido que ha sido llamado de las tinieblas a la luz admirable de Dios. Mientras el cirio pascual continua ardiendo en este tiempo santo, recordemos que en nuestro bautismo nos dieron la luz de Cristo. Con Cristo, nuestra luz como faro iluminando nuestro camino, marchemos hacia la gloria de Pentecostes.

MATERNIDAD

Todas las madres son madres que trabajan.

-Anónimo

The very first mother we encounter in a beautiful garden. Even her name, Eve, refers to her motherhood: Eve comes from the Hebrew word for life, recognizing we all receive life through her.

In this month of mothers, and of the Blessed Mother, many of us restore a glimpse of the beautiful garden again, giving our mothers flowers: even if a mother has already passed on, we often bring flowers to her grave.

The Blessed Mother, of course, will be surrounded with flowers this month, as we her children bring her bouquets showing our affection. Remarkably, even Mary's image includes flowers, as her Immaculate Heart is depicted surrounded with roses.

Troublingly, her heart is shown not only with a crown of roses, it is also portrayed pierced by a sword.

This painful image of course draws from Simeon's prophecy in Luke 2:35, when he says that a sword will pierce her soul so the hidden thoughts of many hearts might be revealed.

Our mother's heart is pierced so we can perceive what is hidden within us. So profound a mystery: Mary's love for us is so deep she's willing to endure any pain to allow us to experience light within our darkest recesses.

And this sword piercing her heart in fact reaches back to the beautiful garden, our earliest home. When our choosing of shadows instead of light expelled us from Eden, Genesis 3:24 describes the first sword of the Scriptures, held by a cherubim to block the way back into the garden and the Tree of Life. As our Blessed Mother allows the sword to be plunged into her own heart, the way back to life, the way back to Paradise is restored to us.

How loved we are by our heavenly mother. She allows the sword meant for us to pierce her heart so the life lost by our faults could be given back to us. Our hearts, perhaps for the first time, can experience what it means to be loved, can reach up, reach out in affection.

This weekend we commemorate the 100th anniversary of a visit from heaven, the visit of our Mother who confirms the triumph of her Immaculate Heart. If there remained any lingering doubts about the ability of light to shine into our hearts, if there were any uncertainty we had that our wounded hearts could be restored, this is our moment. Let the confident announcement of the Queen of Heaven, her declaration of her victory, be the confirmation that our hearts can be healed. Our Mother is here: let her restore you to life.

La primera madre que encontramos fue en un hermoso jardín. Incluso su nombre, Eva, se refiere a su maternidad: Eva viene de la palabra hebrea y quiere decir vida, reconociendo así que todos recibimos la vida a través de ella.

En este mes de las madres y de la Santísima Madre, muchos de nosotros volvemos a ver el hermoso jardín, dando flores a nuestras madres: incluso si una madre ya ha fallecido, a menudo llevamos flores a su tumba.

La Madre Bendita, por supuesto, estará rodeada de flores este mes, ya que sus hijos traen sus ramos mostrando así nuestro afecto. Sorprendentemente, incluso la imagen de María incluye flores, ya que su Corazón Inmaculado está rodeado de rosas.

Conmovedoramente, su corazón se muestra no sólo con una corona de rosas, también es retratado perforado por una espada. Esta imagen dolorosa, por supuesto, se basa en la profecía de Simeón en Lucas 2:35, cuando dice que una espada le perforará el alma para que los pensamientos ocultos de muchos corazones puedan ser revelados.

El corazón de nuestra madre está perforado para que podamos percibir lo que está oculto dentro de nosotros. Un misterio tan profundo: el amor de María por nosotros es tan profundo que está dispuesta a soportar cualquier dolor para que podamos experimentar la luz en nuestros momentos más oscuros.

Esta espada que perfora su corazón de hecho se remonta al hermoso jardín, nuestra primera casa. Cuando elegimos la oscuridad en lugar de la luz y fuimos echados fuera del Edén, Génesis 3:24 describe la primera espada de las Escrituras, sostenida por un querubín para bloquear el camino de regreso al jardín y al Árbol de la Vida. Nuestra Madre Bendita permite que la espada se sumerja en su propio corazón, para que así, el camino de regreso a la vida, el camino de regreso al Paraíso se nos restituya.

Cuán amados somos por nuestra madre celestial. Ella permite que la espada destinada para nosotros perforar su corazón, para que así la vida perdida por causa de nuestras faltas fuera devuelta a nosotros. Nuestros corazones, quizás por primera vez, pueden experimentar lo que significa ser amados.

Este fin de semana conmemoramos el centenario de una visita del cielo, la visita de nuestra Madre quien confirma el triunfo de su Inmaculado Corazón. Si quedaban dudas sobre la capacidad de que la luz brillara en nuestros corazones, si teníamos incertidumbre de que nuestros corazones heridos pudieran ser restaurados, este es nuestro momento. Deja que el anuncio de la Reina del Cielo, la declaración de su victoria, sea la confirmación de que nuestros corazones pueden ser curados. Nuestra Madre está aquí para restaurar tu vida.

PARISH NEWS

We are currently restoring the original Confessionals. Half of the doors with windows are now in place. The remainder will continue to be finished by a wonderful volunteer, Demetrio Mendez. He has been working with our Facilities Manager, Bob Cortese and his daily volunteer, Hal Himenes, to return the Confessionals to their original beauty but with a 21st century flair. Thank you for your continued generosity that allows us to upgrade our parish.

Actualmente estamos restaurando los Confesionarios originales. La mitad de las puertas con ventanas están ahora en su lugar. El resto de estas puertas estan siendo terminadas por un voluntario maravilloso, Demetrio Méndez. Él ha estado trabajando con nuestro Gerente de Instalaciones, Bob Cortese y su voluntario diario, Hal Himenes, para devolver a los confesionarios a su belleza original, pero con un toque del siglo XXI. Gracias por su generosidad continua que nos permite mejorar nuestra parroquia.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

What is Catechesis of the Good Shepherd?

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a distinct approach to children's faith formation in which children as young as 3 can cultivate deep, lifelong relationships with Christ and the Church. Originating in Rome in the 1950s, this approach engages children using age-appropriate, hands-on materials based on Sacred Scripture and Liturgy. Young children learn best by actively engaging their bodies and all of their senses. In the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, they work with simple, beautiful materials in a room prepared for them called the "atrium". Children from 3 to 12 can immerse themselves in this quiet, retreat-like environment.

If you are interested in learning more about Catechesis of the Good Shepherd at St Isidore parish and school, please contact Michelle Knox at mknnox@stisidore-yubacity.org.

Fifth Sunday of Easter-May 14, 2017

Quinto Domingo de Pascua-mayo 14, 2017

¿Qué es la Catequesis del Buen Pastor?

La Catequesis del Buen Pastor es un acercamiento distinto a la formación de la fe de los niños en la cual los niños pequeños de 3 años en adelante pueden cultivar relaciones profundas y duraderas con Cristo y la Iglesia. Originado en Roma en la década de 1950, este enfoque involucra a los niños utilizando materiales apropiados para su edad, prácticas basadas en la Sagrada Escritura y la Liturgia. Los niños pequeños aprenden mejor involucrando activamente sus cuerpos y todos sus sentidos. En la Catequesis del Buen Pastor, trabajan con materiales sencillos y bellos en una sala preparada para ellos llamada "atrio". Los niños de 3 a 12 años pueden sumergirse en este ambiente tranquilo y retirado.

Si usted está interesado en aprender más acerca de la Catequesis del Buen Pastor en la parroquia de St Isidore y la escuela, por favor de comunicarse con Michelle Knox por correo electrónico a mknnox@stisidore-yubacity.org

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The fact that many monastic churches do not have a prominent tabernacle shapes the patterns of liturgical prayer. Monastic communities often protect the ancient value of "receiving from the same sacrifice," meaning that the communicants are assured that what they eat and drink in the Holy Mysteries actually comes from the same celebration. It surprises many to learn that the Church does not foresee, nor does it provide for, Communion of the faithful from the reserved Sacrament. Liturgical laws have long defended your right to receive from the same sacrifice, the same Mass, that you attend.

At one time, of course, the bread for the Eucharist was the ordinary bread of the day, except unleavened, probably prepared at home. It was broken and distributed to the faithful. Early on the loaf itself was referred to as the hostia in Latin, meaning the "sacrifice," the same word for the sacrificial animal in Jewish worship, and for Jesus as the Lamb of God. By giving his life on the cross, Jesus became the hostia for us. To this day in the Greek Church, one of the tasks of the priest's wife is to bake the bread for the Divine Liturgy, sometimes in a bakery oven dedicated to that purpose and called a "Bethlehem."

Today's familiar individual hosts first appeared in the eleventh century at about the time when tabernacles were coming into use. The turn away from "bread" bread allowed the hosts to be reserved since they did not spoil like regular bread, and made the annual "Easter duty" counts easier.—Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El 19 de abril en Uruguay se conmemora a la Virgen de Verdun, que está colocada sobre una columna de seis metros en uno de los cerros que rodean la ciudad de Minas. Esta imagen fue puesta allí por el párroco don José De Luca en 1900. Su intención era dedicar esta imagen en recuerdo del siglo diecinueve y recibir así el siglo veinte, dedicándola a María Inmaculada en honor de Cristo Redentor.

En el 2007 la peregrinación a la Virgen del Verdun llevaba como lema "De la mano de María, discípulos y misioneros de Jesucristo". Este bello refrán nos recuerda que vamos caminando de la mano de María, nuestra hermana en la fe, para ser como ella, discípulos de su hijo y misioneros del mensaje redentor de Jesucristo. No obstante, hay que reconocer que muchos cristianos, especialmente nosotros, los latinoamericanos, nos quedamos solo con María y nunca llegamos a Jesús. Eso a María no le gusta ya que toda reverencia a ella debe abrirnos a recibir a su único hijo, Jesús, y adorarlo como nuestro único Señor y salvador. -Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Congratulations

To all the young people who received the sacrament of First Communion! This year, we had close to 200 students receiving our Lord in this most precious sacrament.

A BIG thank you to all who made this day possible. In abundant gratitude, we would like to acknowledge our devoted Catechists, clergy and liturgy teams, and choirs, and last but not least, we would like to thank our parishioners who have been faithfully praying for our students. We couldn't have done it without you!
