FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER | MAY 7, 2017
CUARTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA | 7 DE MAYO DE 2017

He himself bore our sins in his body upon the cross, so that, free from sin, we might live for righteousness. — 1 Peter 2:24a
Cargado con nuestros pecados, subió al madero de la cruz, para que, muertos al pecado, vivamos para la justicia. — 1 Pedro 2:24a

THE CALL OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

The Twenty-third Psalm, today's responsorial psalm, is arguably the best known of all the psalms. The line that reads "Even though I walk in the dark valley / I fear no evil; for you are at my side / with your rod and your staff / that give me courage" (Psalm 23:4) connects this week's scriptures to the wonderful story of the road to Emmaus, which we heard last week. The Lord Jesus, our Good Shepherd, is constantly at our side. He calls us each by name, beckoning us into a deeper relationship with him. That call, issued to each of us at the moment of our baptism, carries with it the promise of the Good Shepherd: "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — All peoples called by God will receive the gift of the Spirit if they repent and are baptized (Acts 2:14a, 36-41).

Psalm — The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want (Psalm 23).

Second Reading — Once we were like straying sheep; but now we have been returned to the shepherd, our guardian (1 Peter 2:20b-25).

Gospel — The shepherd leads the sheep out into pastures of abundant life (John 10:1-10).

EL LLAMADO DEL BUEN PASTOR

El salmo responsorial de hoy es el Salmo 23 y sin duda es el más conocido de los salmos. Los versos que rezan: "Aunque camine por cañadas oscuras, / nada temo, porque tú vas conmigo; / tu vara y tu cayado me sosiegan" (Salmo 23:4) se vinculan en las lecturas bíblicas de esta semana con el maravilloso relato sobre el camino a Emaús, que escuchamos la semana pasada. El Señor Jesus, nuestro Buen Pastor, está constantemente a nuestro lado. Nos llama por nuestro nombre, atrayéndonos a una más profunda relación con él. Ese llamado, hecho cada uno de nosotros en el momento de nuestro bautismo, lleva la promesa del Buen Pastor. "Yo he venido para que tengan vida y la tengan en abundancia" (Juan 10:10).

Intention.

A familiar word for us at Mass. Each Sunday we lift up our intentions with the Prayers of the Faithful. When a priest celebrates Mass, he always has an intention, a purpose for which he is praying.

So often, our intentions have to do with the people in our lives, the people we love. We lift up those we care about who are sick, who are struggling, who have died.

Since it's so clear to us that we pray with intention, with a purpose, we can also look to how we live our lives throughout the week. What if, just as we identify our intention when we pray, we were to identify our intention when we live? What if, instead of just following routines we've developed often without questioning their origin, we were to reinvestigate our true purpose?

In our first reading today, when the people in Jerusalem witness the Pentecost proclamation, they ask what we should be asking: "Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and they asked Peter and the other apostles, 'What are we to do, my brothers?'"

Our God certainly creates with intention: he creates us for potential beyond what we've allowed ourselves to envision. Part of what makes us human, the image and likeness of our Creator, is that we can live with purpose, with an intention, digging deeper into why we choose what we choose.

In this Easter season, as we witness the unprecedented vitality of a Savior risen from the dead, let's ask again what our intention is, and ensure we haven't drifted into a perhaps familiar, perhaps acceptable, but shallow routine.

Today Jesus confirms he clearly knows his intention, why he enters into our lives. At the conclusion of our Gospel in John 10:10, a verse worth holding onto, he tells us, "I came that they might have life and have it more abundantly."

Identify your intention. Ask again, what you are living for, how you structure your life to reach your purpose: discover the intention that allows you to have life and have it more abundantly.

Intención.

Una palabra muy conocida para nosotros en la misa. Cada domingo elevamos nuestras intenciones con las oraciones de los fieles. Cuando un sacerdote celebra la Misa, siempre tiene una intención, un propósito por el cual está orando.

Muchas veces, nuestras intenciones tienen que ver con la gente en nuestras vidas, la gente que amamos. Elevamos nuestras peticiones por los que nos preocupan, por aquellos que están enfermos, que están luchando, o que han muerto.

Puesto que es tan claro para nosotros que oramos con intención, con un propósito, también podemos mirar cómo vivimos nuestras vidas a lo largo de la semana. ¿Y qué tal que, al igual que identificamos nuestra intención cuando oramos, identificamos también nuestra intención al vivir? ¿Qué pasa si, en lugar de seguir las rutinas que hemos desarrollado a menudo sin cuestionar su origen, investigamos nuestro verdadero propósito?

En nuestra primera lectura de hoy, cuando el pueblo de Jerusalén atestigua la proclamación de Pentecostés, preguntan lo que debemos pedir: Estas palabras les llegaron al corazón y preguntaron a Pedro y a los demás apóstoles: "¿Qué tenemos que hacer, hermanos?"

Nuestro Dios ciertamente nos crea con intención: nos crea para el potencial más allá de lo que nos hemos permitido imaginar. Parte de lo que nos hace humanos, la imagen y la semejanza de nuestro Creador, es que podemos vivir con propósito, con una intención, profundizando el por qué elegimos lo que elegimos.

En esta temporada de Pascua, al ser testigos de la vitalidad sin precedentes de un Salvador resucitado de entre los muertos, preguntémonos nuevamente cuál es nuestra intención y asegurémonos de que no hemos llegado a una rutina quizás familiar, tal vez aceptable, o superficial.

Hoy Jesús confirma que conoce claramente su intención, por qué entra en nuestras vidas. Al concluir nuestro Evangelio en Juan 10:10, un verso al cual vale la pena aferrarse, nos dice: "Vine para que tengan vida y la tengan en abundancia".

Identifique su intención. Pregúntese de nuevo, ¿cuál es el propósito en mi vida? y como estoy estructurando mi vida para alcanzar ese propósito. Descubre la intención que te permitirá tener vida y tenerla en abundancia.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

In the Atrium

What is Catechesis of the Good Shepherd?

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a distinct approach to children's faith formation in which children as young as 3 can cultivate deep, lifelong relationships with Christ and the Church. Originating in Rome in the 1950s, this approach engages children using age-appropriate, hands-on materials based on Sacred Scripture and Liturgy. Young children learn best by actively engaging their bodies and all of their senses. In the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, they work with simple, beautiful materials in a room prepared for them called the "atrium". Children from 3 to 12 can immerse themselves in this quiet, retreat-like environment.

If you are interested in learning more about Catechesis of the Good Shepherd at St Isidore parish and school, please contact Michelle Knox at mknox@stisidore-yubacity.org.

Catequesis Del Buen Pastor

¿Qué es la Catequesis del Buen Pastor?

La Catequesis del Buen Pastor es un acercamiento distinto a la formación de la fe de los niños en la cual los niños pequeños de 3 años en adelante pueden cultivar relaciones profundas y duraderas con Cristo y la Iglesia. Originado en Roma en la década de 1950, este enfoque involucra a los niños utilizando materiales apropiados para su edad, prácticas basadas en la Sagrada Escritura y la Liturgia. Los niños pequeños aprenden mejor involucrando activamente sus cuerpos y todos sus sentidos. En la Catequesis del Buen Pastor, trabajan con materiales sencillos y bellos en una sala preparada para ellos llamada "atrio". Los niños de 3 a 12 años pueden sumergirse en este ambiente tranquilo y retirado.

Si usted está interesado en aprender más acerca de la Catequesis del Buen Pastor en la parroquia de St Isidore y la escuela, por favor de comunicarse con Michelle Knox por correo electrónico a mknnox@stisidore-yubacity.org

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The fact that many monastic churches do not have a prominent tabernacle shapes the patterns of liturgical prayer. Monastic communities often protect the ancient value of "receiving from the same sacrifice," meaning that the communicants are assured that what they eat and drink in the Holy Mysteries actually comes from the same celebration. It surprises many to learn that the Church does not foresee, nor does it provide for, Communion of the faithful from the reserved Sacrament. Liturgical laws have long defended your right to receive from the same sacrifice, the same Mass, that you attend.

At one time, of course, the bread for the Eucharist was the ordinary bread of the day, except unleavened, probably prepared at home. It was broken and distributed to the faithful. Early on the loaf itself was referred to as the hostia in Latin, meaning the "sacrifice," the same word for the sacrificial animal in Jewish worship, and for Jesus as the Lamb of God. By giving his life on the cross, Jesus became the hostia for us. To this day in the Greek Church, one of the tasks of the priest's wife is to bake the bread for the Divine Liturgy, sometimes in a bakery oven dedicated to that purpose and called a "Bethlehem."

Today's familiar individual hosts first appeared in the eleventh century at about the time when tabernacles were coming into use. The turn away from "bready" bread allowed the hosts to be reserved since they did not spoil like regular bread, and made the annual "Easter duty" counts easier. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El 19 de abril en Uruguay se conmemora a la Virgen de Verdun, que está colocada sobre una columna de seis metros en uno de los cerros que rodean la ciudad de Minas. Esta imagen fue puesta allí por el párroco don José De Luca en 1900. Su intención era dedicar esta imagen en recuerdo del siglo diecinueve y recibir así el siglo veinte, dedicándolo a Maria Inmaculada en honor de Cristo Redentor.

En el 2007 la peregrinación a la Virgen del Verdun llevaba como lema "De la mano de Maria, discípulos y misioneros de Jesucristo". Este bello refrán nos recuerda que vamos caminando de la mano de Maria, nuestra hermana en la fe, para ser como ella, discípulos de su hijo y misioneros del mensaje redentor de Jesucristo. No obstante, hay que reconocer que muchos cristianos, especialmente nosotros, los latinoamericanos, nos quedamos solo con Maria y nunca llegamos a Jesus. Eso a Maria no le gusta ya que toda reverencia a ella debe abrirnos a recibir a su único hijo, Jesus, y adorarlo como nuestro único Señor y salvador. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM Copyright © J. S.
