CHRIST, KING OF ALL

On this, the final Sunday of the liturgical year, we celebrate the solemnity of Christ the King. By concluding the year with this feast we are proclaiming our faith that Jesus Christ is the one and only king over all seasons, all peoples, and all of creation.

At the end of time as we know it, Christ's work of restoring all things to unity and harmony with their Creator God will be completed. This Sunday, when we claim Christ as both our Shepherd and our King, we recognize our own calling to participate in Christ's saving work by caring for those whom Jesus calls "the least ones" (Matthew 25:45).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I will rescue my scattered sheep (Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17).

Psalm — The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want (Psalm 23).

Second Reading — As in Adam all die, so too in Christ all shall be brought to life (1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28).

Gospel — Whatever you did to the least ones, you did to me (Matthew 25:31-46).

The Pastor's Corner

I went for a long drive two Wednesdays ago, at night. You've probably been on longer drives, of 6, 10 or 12 hours. I was driving for just 2 hours, but in the pouring rain, in the darkness, it felt like a long time. You've had that experience, where the wipers are swiping through the streaking drops, and the headlights reaching through the rain into the black.

I was going to a place I'd never been before, so I had the small glowing light of my GPS directing me to turn left here, bank right there. Here in the California valley the land is completely flat, so flat you can flood fields for rice seedlings, but we're surrounded by the foothills that lead into the mountains. My route led me into those foothills, so I went from the ruler straight valley roads to the winding rolling country highways where the autumn oaks stretched their bare branches over the road like skeleton hands.

I arrived at my destination at a tiny community center in a tiny town, a public building like you've been in before which is just walls and a roof, and this one with its Maximum Capacity 90 sign inside. When I arrived the space was already crowded and continued to fill so we were far exceeding the sign's instruction. I found there four other priests, and about that many Protestant pastors, amidst the families, adults and children: some holding the tiny candles that today are powered by batteries.

We were gathered there for the familiar purpose of Catholics in the month of November, to pray for the dead. We were also there to remember those who were hurt, who were wounded in the violence of the day before. One of the pastors had a wireless microphone, which we passed around to the different members of the gathering, so they could share their story.

What stood out the most was gratitude. Parents described their gratitude for the teachers whose quick response had saved the lives of their children. Teachers shared their thankfulness for the children who had been so brave, and that they had lived. We had a lot of tears, and still some fear and anger.

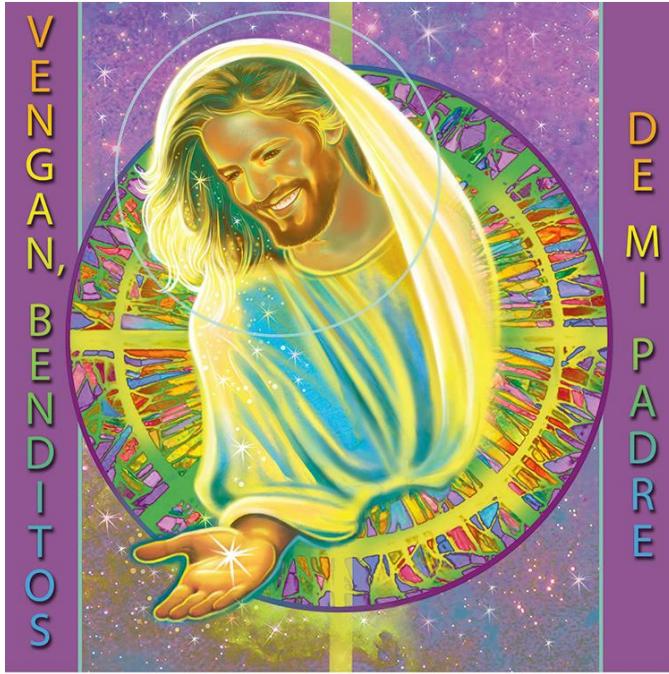

When I was handed the microphone, I reflected on the moment when Jesus encounters his friends Martha and Mary, and they lead him to where their brother is dead. That's the one place, I pondered, where we find Jesus weeping in the Gospels.

I described how close Jesus is to us when we weep for the departed, and reflecting on how the disciples saw how close Jesus was to his Father, I invited the gathering to pray the prayer that Jesus taught them.

For us who believe, we don't know what fear, what violence, we will have to face in our lives. But we do know the one who has conquered death, whose light shines through every darkness.

A lot of things in life can offer us happiness, comfort, or soothing. But we have to ask each of them how they handle death. And if they don't have an answer like our God can give, that's our cue to leave them behind and embrace the one whose death gives us life.

I'll always remember the dark road I drove and the candlelit gathering I found at the end. And I hope when I arrive at my last day, I'll embrace the one who has the answer for every death. And I hope I'll find you there.

CRISTO, REY DE TODOS

En este, el último domingo del año litúrgico, celebramos la solemnidad de Cristo Rey. Al concluir el año con esta fiesta proclamamos nuestra fe en que Jesucristo es el solo y único rey sobre todos los tiempos, todos los pueblos y toda la Creación.

Al final del tiempo que conocemos, quedará completa la obra de Cristo de restaurar todas las cosas en unidad y armonía con Dios su Creador. Este domingo, cuando proclamamos que Cristo es nuestro Pastor y nuestro Rey, reconocemos nuestro llamado a participar en la obra salvadora de Cristo al cuidar de quienes Cristo llama “aquellos más insignificantes” (Mateo 25:45).

El Rincón del Párroco

El miércoles antepasado, hice un viaje largo. Probablemente algunos de ustedes han viajado por 6, 10 o 12 horas. Yo solo maneje 2 horas, pero bajo la lluvia torrencial, y de noche, el viaje pareció mucho más largo.

Me dirigía a un lugar al que nunca había ido antes, así que traía la pequeña luz brillante de mi GPS que me indicaba a donde ir. Aquí, en el valle de California, la tierra es completamente plana, pero estamos rodeados por vías que conducen a las montañas. Mi ruta me condujo hacia las montañas, así que pasé de los rectos caminos del valle a las carreteras rurales donde los árboles tendían sus ramas desnudas por el otoño sobre el camino como manos esqueléticas.

Así pues, llegué a mi destino, a un pequeño centro comunitario en una pequeña ciudad, un edificio público el cual es solo paredes y un techo. Tenía un letrero indicando la capacidad máxima de 90 personas solamente. Cuando llegué, el lugar ya estaba lleno y continuaba llegando gente, así que estábamos excediendo las instrucciones del letrero. Encontré allí a otros cuatro sacerdotes, y algunos pastores protestantes, en medio de las familias, los adultos y los niños: algunos sostenían pequeñas velas las cuales prende con batería.

Nos reunimos allí con el propósito ya conocido por los católicos en el mes de noviembre, para orar por los difuntos. También estuvimos allí para recordar a las personas, que fueron heridas en la violencia del día anterior. Uno de los pastores tenía un micrófono inalámbrico, que pasamos a los diferentes miembros de la reunión, para que pudieran compartir algunas palabras.

Lo que más se destacó fue la gratitud. Los padres describieron su gratitud por los maestros cuya respuesta rápida había salvado la vida de sus hijos. Los maestros compartieron su agradecimiento por los niños cuya valentía les salvo la vida. Tuvimos muchas lágrimas y aún algo de miedo e ira.

Cuando me entregaron el micrófono, medite sobre el momento en que Jesús se encuentra Marta y María, y lo llevan al lugar donde su hermano está muerto. Ese es el único lugar, pensé, donde encontramos a Jesús llorando en los Evangelios

Describí cuán cerca está Jesús de nosotros cuando lloramos por los difuntos, al reflexionar sobre cómo los discípulos vieron lo cerca que estaba Jesús de su Padre, fue que invitó a la congregación a rezar la oración que Jesús nos enseñó.

Nosotros los creyentes, no sabemos qué miedos, o qué violencia, tendremos que enfrentar en nuestras vidas. Pero conocemos a aquel que ha vencido a la muerte, cuya luz brilla en cada oscuridad.

Muchas cosas en la vida pueden ofrecernos felicidad, comodidad o calma. Pero tenemos que preguntarle a cada una de esas cosas cómo es que lidian con la muerte. Y si no tienen una respuesta como la que Dios nos da, esa es nuestra señal para dejarlos atrás y abrazar a aquel cuya muerte nos da vida.

Siempre recordaré este viaje, el camino oscuro y la reunión con velas que encontré al final. Y espero que cuando llegue mi último día yo abrace aquel tiene la respuesta para cada muerte. Y espero también encontrarte allí.

WORKING ON THE MARGINS

Thank you for your generous support last week to the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development! As a parish we raised $2,208.50 to support those on the margins living in poverty. If you missed the collection, it's not too late to give! Visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections and click "How to Give" on the left.

Church Beautification – Help Needed

We are planning to replace the six candlesticks on the upper Altar by the tabernacle. This would restore them to their original beauty and shine. We have obtained a price from the same company that replated the sacred vessels we use on the Altar. The cost is $200 per candle stick. These candlesticks are believed to be part of the original furnishings of the Church. They have become tarnished over the years and simple cleaning methods will not restore them to their original condition. Please consider making a donation marked Candlesticks and we will be able to get the job done quickly. Now over $600 have already been donated for this work. Thank you in advance.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

In the Atrium

As the season of Advent approaches, the children in the atrium have been looking at the geography of Israel. We have been finding where Jesus lived on a globe, tracing Mary and Joseph's travel from Nazareth to Bethlehem on a topographical map, and exploring the different regions of the area: Galilee, Judea, and Samaria. All of this helps to cement in the children's minds the reality of the Incarnation. Please pray for us as we continue to ponder this beautiful mystery.

R.C.I.A. Adapted for Children and Teens

R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation) Adapted for Children and Teens is the process by which unbaptized young people at the age of reason (7 years of age or older) prepare to enter the Catholic Church through the sacraments of initiation- Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist (Holy Communion). Children who are already baptized in this age group, but who are not catechized, can also prepare to celebrate the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. You can see the names of these children who are in our parish Adapted RCIA program. Check out the Bulletin Board in the back of the church. Please pray for these children that God will strengthen their parents resolve as they assist their children on this journey. If you would like to be a prayer partner for this group of children, please contact Jennifer Hackney at 673-1573. The children would be ecstatic and empowered to know that their parish community holds them up in prayer. There are 81 children in this program. Thank you!

Catequesis Del Buen Pastor

A medida que se acerca la temporada de Adviento, los niños en el atrio han estado mirando la geografía de Israel. Hemos encontrado dónde vivía Jesús en un globo terráqueo, siguiendo el recorrido de María y José desde Nazaret hasta Belén en un mapa topográfico, y explorando las diferentes regiones del área: Galilea, Judea y Samaria. Todo esto ayuda a consolidar en las mentes de los niños la realidad de la Encarnación. Por favor, oren por nosotros mientras continuamos reflexionando sobre este hermoso misterio.

- ❖ Nuestras reuniones del Grupo de Jóvenes Don Bosco, serán todos los viernes de 5:00 - 6:15 pm en la Sala de Ciencias Escolares. Venga y participe en su fe católica-este es su grupo esta es su Iglesia. ¡Viva Cristo Rey!

Embellieciendo nuestra Iglesia: ¡Necesitamos su Ayuda!

Estamos planeando pulir los seis candelabros que están junto al tabernáculo. Esto los restauraría a su belleza y brillo original. Hemos obtenido un precio de la misma compañía que restauró los copones que usamos en el Altar. El costo es de $200 por candelabro. Se cree que estos candeleros son parte del mobiliario original de la Iglesia. Se han manchado a lo largo de los años. Simples métodos de limpieza no los restaurarán a su condición original. Consideré hacer una donación para estos Candelabros y podremos hacer el trabajo rápidamente. Ya recibimos una donacion de poco más de $ 400. Gracias de antemano.
