Tercer Domingo de Cuaresma- Marzo 19, 2017

THIRSTING FOR LIFE-GIVING WATERS

Especially during the Lenten, Holy Week, and Easter seasons, the prayer texts of the Eastern Church revel in paradoxical images of Christ: the eternal life who is put to death, the host of the supper who is also its meal, the thirsty crucified one with living water streaming from his side. These images flow from the evangelists' portrayals of Jesus and from his very ministry, during which he often upset or reversed people's expectations about him or the ways of God. This "reversal" is at play in today's Gospel, as Jesus speaks to an enemy foreigner who is also a woman beneath his status. In addition he, the thirsting one, shows the woman to be the one truly thirsting. He—whose parched lips will say "I thirst" before he dies—is the source of life and life-giving water. Lent calls upon us to dwell on how each of us is thirsting for Christ, and it leads us, ultimately, back to the life-giving waters of our baptism into his Body.

SEDIENTOS DE LAS AGUAS QUE DAN VIDA

Especialmente durante la Cuaresma, la Semana Santa y el tiempo de Pascua, los textos de oración de la Iglesia Occidental se deleitan con imágenes paradójicas de Cristo: la vida eterna que muere, el anfitrión de la cena que es también alimento, el crucificado sediento del que mana agua de vida de su costado. Estas imágenes fluyen de las representaciones de Jesús por parte de los evangelistas y de su mismísimo ministerio, durante el cual muchas veces cambió o invirtió las expectativas que las personas tenían sobre él o sobre los designios de Dios. Esta "inversión" está en juego en el Evangelio de hoy, cuando Jesús habla con una extranjera enemiga que está por debajo de su condición social. Además él, el que tiene sed, demuestra que la mujer es la única que tiene sed verdadera. Él —cuyos labios secos dirán "Tengo sed" antes de morir— es la fuente de vida y del agua que da vida. La Cuaresma nos llama a reflexionar sobre cómo cada uno de nosotros tiene sed de Cristo y nos lleva, en última instancia, de vuelta a las aguas dadoras de vida de nuestro bautismo en su Cuerpo. What is distinct about Lent 2017?

Our season of preparation, of deeper transformation, falls this year in the centenary of Fatima, the call of the Blessed Mother to our time. This year, as Lent leads into Easter, we will be drawing toward our May 13th celebration of Our Lady of Fatima.

At Fatima, Mary gave us several vital tools, weapons, to confront our dark century. Even as she predicted the coming of the Second World War and the rise of Communism, she confirmed that in the end her Immaculate Heart would triumph. She invited us to share in that triumph through penance, prayer, and devotion to her Immaculate Heart.

Penitance resonates with our Lenten practices: as we choose and strengthen our fasts this season, we do so in the knowledge that we assist in the transformation of history.

With prayer, the Blessed Mother referred particularly to the rosary. As prayer is a part of our elevated Lenten practice, consider including a daily rosary in this centennial year.

With devotion to Mary's Immaculate Heart, we as a parish can turn toward the importance of consecration to the Blessed Mother. Trust in Mary, entrusting ourselves to Mary, allows us to become like the little children praised in the Gospel. You and I dramatically limit God's ability to work in our lives because of our human preconceptions: by consecrating ourselves to the Blessed Mother, to her Immaculate Heart, we allow her to open our lives to the abundance of God's blessings.

As we enter into Holy Week this year, as a parish, as families, and as individuals we'll have the invitation to begin a month long preparation for consecration to Our Lady on her feast day, May 13th. We'll celebrate that day with a special Marian procession culminating in Mass (and of course a feast in the hall) with the consecration of ourselves and our parish to the Blessed Mother.

In our Gospel today, Jesus asks the woman for a drink of water and she ends up evangelizing her whole town. In this centenary year, let us take the first step of confidence in our mother and witness the marvelous multiplication she brings about.

EL RINCON DEL PÁRROCO

¿Qué es diferente de la Cuaresma 2017?

Nuestra temporada de preparación, de transformación profunda, cae este año en el centenario de Fátima, el llamado de la Santísima Madre a nuestro tiempo. Este año, a medida que la Cuaresma lleve a la Pascua, estaremos acercando hacia la celebración de Nuestra Señora de Fátima el 13 de mayo.

En Fátima, María nos dio varias herramientas vitales, para enfrentar nuestro oscuro siglo. Aun cuando predijo la llegada de la Segunda Guerra Mundial y el surgimiento del comunismo, ella confirmó que al final su Corazón Inmaculado triunfaría. Ella nos invita a participar en ese triunfo a través de la penitencia, la oración y la devoción a su Inmaculado Corazón.

La penitencia concuerda con nuestras prácticas cuaresmales: a medida que elegimos y fortalecemos nuestros ayunos esta temporada, lo hacemos con el conocimiento de que ayudamos en la transformación de la historia.

Con la oración, la Virgen se refirió particularmente al rosario. Como la oración es una parte de nuestra práctica de Cuaresma, considera la posibilidad de incluir un rosario diario en este año centenario.

Con devoción al Corazón Inmaculado de María, como parroquia podemos volvemos hacia la importancia de la consagración a la Santísima Madre. Confiar en María, al encomendarnos a ella, nos permite ser como los niños elogiados en el Evangelio. Tú y yo limitamos dramáticamente la capacidad de que Dios trabaje en nuestras vidas debido a nuestras preconcepciones humanas: consagrándonos a la Santísima Madre, a su Inmaculado Corazón, le permitimos abrir nuestras vidas a la abundancia de las bendiciones de Dios.

Al entrar en la Semana Santa de este año, como parroquia, como familias y como individuos, tendremos la invitación para comenzar una preparación de un mes para la consagración de Nuestra Señora en su día de fiesta, el 13 de mayo. Celebraremos ese día con una procesión mariana especial, culminando en la Misa (y por supuesto una fiesta en el salón) con la consagración de nosotros mismos y nuestra parroquia a la Santísima Madre.

En nuestro Evangelio de hoy, Jesús le pide a la mujer un vaso de agua y termina evangelizando toda su ciudad. En este año del centenario, demos el primer paso de confianza en nuestra madre y presenciamos la maravillosa multiplicación que ella trae.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Long ago, the custom of sending some pieces of consecrated bread from the Lord's table began to take hold. Originally it was a way of assuring the sick and imprisoned of their bonds of faith and affection with the community from whom they were separated. By the third century, at least in Rome, we have evidence that the bishop would consign some of the sacred elements to presbyters or deacons.

There was a crisis in the unity of the church early on, called the quartodeciman controversy, since some people wanted to celebrate the Pasch on the fourteenth day (quartodecima) of the Jewish month Nissan, even if it didn't fall on a Sunday. The debate so fractured the church that the historian of the era, Eusebius, reported a new development to the pope. He wrote that the churches holding to the Lord's Day sent out consecrated bread to the disgruntled people of the quartodeciman pastors with whom they were quarreling. Meanwhile, bishops complained about people taking the Eucharist home. St. Cyprian told a cautionary tale of a sinful woman who tried to open the "casket" containing the consecrated bread in her home. She was deterred from receiving, he said, by flames erupting from the box. Clearly, he wanted people to think twice before bringing Communion home!

The Council of Nicaea defined the "old rule of the church" as allowing for reserving the Eucharistic bread for the sake of the dying. The same council could foresee circumstances of persecution when people might have the Eucharist on hand to administer to one another in a time of great danger, literally, at the point of a sword. The first and enduring purpose for reserving the Eucharist is viaticum for the dying.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Para ser cristiano en la Iglesia católica necesitas recibir los tres sacramentos de Iniciación, es decir, el Bautismo, la Confirmación y la Eucaristía. Si te falta uno de estos sacramentos no estás completamente iniciado. Algunos cristianos insisten que si no estás confirmado no te puedes casar por la Iglesia, pero esto no es completamente cierto. Según las leyes de la Iglesia, los cristianos que desean contraer Matrimonio deberían buscar ser confirmados, si les es posible sin grave dificultad (Canon 1065).

Todos conocemos el Bautismo y la Eucaristía, pero ¿qué es la Confirmación? El nombre lo dice todo. Con la Confirmación, confirmamos ante Dios y la Iglesia que deseamos ser cristianos por el resto de nuestra vida. Confirmarse es comprometerse, es entregarse al servicio de Dios ayudando al prójimo con la gracia y el poder del Espíritu Santo. Por eso es importante recibir una buena preparación.

La mayoría de nosotros no tuvimos opción cuando nuestra mamá y nuestro papá nos bautizaron. Nuestros padres y padrinos dijeron sí por nosotros y, si cumplieron con su compromiso, nos enseñaron con palabras y buen ejemplo como decir sí al Evangelio de Cristo. Sea que nos hayamos bautizado como infantes o como adultos, la Confirmación nos da la oportunidad de dar un sí pleno. ¡Sí! a ese bautizo, ¡Sí! a la Iglesia y en especial ¡Sí! a Cristo.

Next week, our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection (CRSC). Funds from this collection help provide food to the hungry, support to displaced refugees, and Christ's love and respect to all people here at home and abroad. Next week, please give generously to the CRSC and help Jesus in disguise. Learn more about the collection at www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.

La próxima semana, nuestra parroquia llevará a cabo The Catholic Relief Services Collection (CRSC). Los fondos recaudados en esta colecta ayudarán a proveerles alimentos a los que pasan hambre, apoyo a los refugiados desplazados y el amor y el respeto de Cristo a todas las personas aquí en nuestro país y en el extranjero. La próxima semana, por favor contribuye generosamente a la colecta de CRS y a Jesús con otro rostro, ¿le ayudarás? Aprende más acerca de la colecta en www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.
