Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven. — Psalm 85:12

La fidelidad brotó en la tierra y la justicia vino del cielo. — Salmo 85(84):12

It is I; do not be afraid.

NOTHING TO FEAR

A rabbi was asked why God sends trials and troubles into human lives. "Because God gets lonely for his people" was the reply. There is some resonance with this wisdom in today's Gospel, as Jesus makes his disciples get into a boat without him and goes off alone while they venture into stormy waters. Of course, neither Jews nor Christians believe that the Almighty plays this sort of whimsical game with them, but there is some truth in the statement that we don't turn to God for saving help until we're in a bind. Peter's role today, as it is throughout the New Testament, is to be a sign or to represent each member of the church and the whole church. Our story is the tale told about Peter's faith today. What can bolster our faith is that even when Christ calls us to face bravely the tempests of life, if we are walking through them with our eyes fixed on him in faith, we have nothing to fear. Even when we falter or sink, simply crying "Lord, save me!" is enough to help us know the steady grasp of God's hand. Then, sheltered inside the walls of faith, the storms we endure lose their power over us.

NADA QUE TEMER

A un rabino le preguntaron por qué Dios envía pruebas y tribulaciones a los humanos. "Porque Dios siente la ausencia de su pueblo", fue la respuesta. Hay ecos de esta sabiduría en el Evangelio de hoy, cuando Jesús hace que sus discípulos se suban a la barca sin él y se va por su cuenta mientras ellos se aventuran en aguas turbulentas. Por cierto, ni judíos ni cristianos creen que el Todopoderoso hace este tipo de jugadas antojadizas con ellos, pero tiene algo de verdad la afirmación de que no acudimos a Dios pidiendo que nos salve sino cuando estamos en un apuro. Hoy el papel de Pedro, como aparece en todo el Nuevo Testamento, es ser un signo o representación de cada miembro de la Iglesia y de toda la Iglesia. Nuestra historia es el relato que se narra hoy sobre la fe de Pedro. Lo que puede aumentar nuestra fe es que aunque Cristo nos llama a encarar con valentía las tormentas de la vida, si las atravesamos con los ojos de la fe fijados en él, nada hemos de temer. Aunque demos un traspié o nos hundamos, basta gritar "¡Señor, sálvame!" para conocer la firmeza con la que Dios nos toma de la mano. Entonces, protegidos dentro de los muros de la fe, las tormentas que nos azoten no nos vencerán.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Sal afuera y ponte de pie en el cerro ante el Señor (1 Reyes 19:9a, 11-13a).

Salmo — Señor, muéstranos tu bondad, y danos tu salvación (Salmo 85 [84]).

Segunda lectura — Cristo es uno de los israelitas, quien como Dios, está por encima de todo (Romanos 9:1-5).

Evangelio — Señor, si eres tú, manda que yo llegue hasta ti caminando sobre el agua (Mateo 14:22-33).

The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

"Meanwhile the boat, already a few miles offshore, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against it."

These lines from our Gospel today describe a situation that seems a little too familiar for the apostles, and perhaps a little too familiar for us. If we're recent converts, we may have thought following Jesus would mean clear sailing ahead. If we have years of discipleship under our belts, we know that being a Christian means trials and at times even greater trials because of what God calls us to.

Matthew as well as the other Gospels give us many examples of the Twelve quailing in the face of challenges. For us who are called to learn from their example, and even more so from the witness of Jesus, we are invited to see menaces as moments when our deliverer intervenes.

Today the disciples become able to recognize Jesus as not being a ghost but their savior; Peter reaches out to take Jesus' hand amidst the waves; we can learn from their experience to perceive Jesus even when at first he seems absent, or when the waves grab our attention.

The freedom God offers us is the freedom of new vision: the ability to recognize the presence of Jesus. Perhaps this is one of the greatest gifts of Christian experience: knowing that hardship comes, that trial rolls over us, but in these moments we are met by grace.

The disciples today hear Jesus' command: "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." This command is also to us. "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."

"Entretanto, la barca iba ya muy lejos de la costa y las olas la sacudían, porque el viento era contrario."

Estas líneas del Evangelio de hoy describen una situación un poco familiar para los apóstoles, y tal vez también para nosotros. Si hemos sido recientemente convertidos a la fe, podríamos haber pensado que seguir a Jesús significaría una navegación clara por delante. Si tenemos años de discipulado, sabemos que ser cristiano significa pruebas y, a veces, pruebas aún mayores por lo que Dios nos llama a hacer.

Mateo, así como los otros Evangelios, nos dan muchos ejemplos de los Doce acobardándose en los retos. Para nosotros, quienes estamos llamados a aprender de su ejemplo, y más aún del testimonio de Jesús, estamos invitados a ver las amenazas como momentos en los que nuestro salvador interviene.

Hoy los discípulos reconocen a Jesús no como un fantasma sino su salvador; Pedro se estiró para tomar la mano de Jesús entre las olas; Podemos aprender de su experiencia para percibir a Jesús, incluso cuando al principio parece ausente, o cuando las olas capturan nuestra atención.

La libertad que Dios nos ofrece es la libertad de una nueva visión: la capacidad de reconocer la presencia de Jesús. Tal vez este es uno de los mayores dones de la experiencia cristiana: Saber que las dificultades y los retos vendrán, pero que en esos momentos nos encontraremos con la gracia.

Los discípulos hoy escuchan el mandamiento de Jesús: "Tranquilícense y no teman. Soy yo" Este mandamiento es también para nosotros: "Tranquilícense y no teman. Soy yo"

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Roman Canon, called Eucharistic Prayer I, is probably seldom heard in your parish. Some priests will choose it for at least one of the Masses of Christmas, or the Easter Vigil. Such sparing use of this prayer seems strange, especially since it was the only Eucharistic Prayer in the Latin Rite for many centuries, from as long ago as 500 right up to 1970.

In 1965, the vernacular language was approved for the canon of the Mass. Almost immediately, some experimental texts began to surface in the Netherlands, and priests began to use new Dutch texts without permission. By 1966, Pope Paul VI had set up a committee to consider whether or not it was time to approve such experimentation and extend it to non-Dutch churches. No sooner had the committee been formed than other individuals copied the Dutch by just plunging on ahead. The Dutch bishops had approved the use of the new prayers nationwide in 1968, and Flemish bishops in Belgium quickly agreed. By then, German translations of the Dutch prayers were in wide use, and before long nearly one hundred Eucharistic Prayers, all unapproved, were in circulation in France. The Vatican heard the widespread desire for more variety in Eucharistic Prayer forms, and, with the pope's approval, the process of creating new official prayers began.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Frecuentemente, los santos y santas son personas molestas que desafían tanto a los fieles como a los infieles. Tal es el caso del agustino Ezequiel Moreno Díaz (1848-1906), obispo de Pasto, Colombia.

Nació en La Rioja, España, en el seno de una familia pobre. En 1865 ingresó en la orden de los agustinos y fue enviado como misionero a Filipinas. Luego se ofreció como misionero en Colombia donde buscó renovar la orden de los agustinos. En 1895 el Papa León XIII lo nombró obispo de Parma, lugar en el que le esperaba un martirio moral de calumnias, desprecios y humillaciones por parte de las autoridades civiles. Sus mensajes y desafíos pastorales llevaron a los fieles a un mayor fervor apostólico a tal grado, que incomodó al gobierno.

En 1898 buscó renunciar a su puesto como obispo para no continuar como causa de polémicas y problemas para la Iglesia. El Papa no permitió su renuncia, más bien lo animó a seguir promoviendo el celo apostólico por el bien del pueblo. La polémica nunca debe desanimar a los fieles en Cristo cuando se trata de mejorar la vida moral de la sociedad en la que se encuentran.
