SEEING CHRIST CLEARLY

We start today looking through the portals of Jerusalem, seeing crowds of people, cheering and waving palm branches in the air. The whole atmosphere is one of joy, triumph, and celebration. We can get distracted or enthralled by the scene, and not see clearly the features of Jesus as he enters. But our readings from Isaiah and Paul's letter to the Philippians clarify his features for us. He is the Suffering Servant, meek and mute before his captors and persecutors; he is the very image of the unseen God, yet will not clutch at equality with God before he endures his final confrontation in humility. Isaiah and Paul help us "behold the Lamb of God" before we hear the story of his final and greatest confrontation. It is important that we see Christ clearly before we hear the account of his passion, for we—his Body through baptism, the church—now bear his face. We must, with him, enter into this time of trial so we can, also with him, enter into his final triumph.

THE CROSS

We should glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, in whom is our salvation, life and resurrection; through whom we are saved and delivered.

—Entrance Antiphon, Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, Roman Missal

PARA VER A CRISTO CLARAMENTE

Hoy comenzamos viendo a través de las puertas de Jerusalén, vemos a la multitud, aclamando y agitando ramos de olivo en el aire. Es una atmósfera de júbilo, triunfo y celebración. Podemos distraernos o embelesarnos con la escena y no ver claramente las características de Jesús cuando entra. Pero nuestras lecturas de Isaías y la carta de Pablo a los filipenses aclaran estas características. Él es el Siervo que Sufre, manso y callado ante sus captores y perseguidores; es la mismísima imagen del Dios invisible, sin embargo, no se aferrará a la igualdad con Dios antes de sufrir su enfrentamiento final en humildad. Isaías y Pablo nos ayudan a "ver al Cordero de Dios" antes de oír el relato de su mayor y último enfrentamiento. Es importante que veamos a Cristo claramente antes de oír el relato de su Pasión, porque nosotros —su Cuerpo por medio del Bautismo, la Iglesia— somos su rostro. Debemos, junto con él, pasar por este tiempo de sufrimiento para que podamos, también junto con él, pasar por su triunfo final.

LA CRUZ

Nosotros hemos de gloriarnos en la cruz de nuestro Señor Jesucristo: en él está nuestra salvación, vida y resurrección; él nos ha salvado y liberado.

—Antífona de entrada, Misa vespertina de la Cena del Señor, Misal Roman

"Hosanna to the Son of David!"

Our acclamation on this splendid day resonates with themes of victory. The word hosanna actually has the same roots as Jesus' name: Jesus in Hebrew, Yeshua, translates to 'God Saves', while the word hosanna comes from the same root, yasha-na, meaning 'save us now', or 'O save'.

In crying out with this acclamation, the people of Jerusalem, invoking God's salvation, were following the practice of the Jewish priests at the feast of Tabernacles, when waving willow branches they would process around the altar of burnt offering proclaiming hosanna.

This confident petition is united with the title they give to Jesus, Son of David. With this powerful invocation, made even more significant in the city of the king itself, Jerusalem, the people would be confirming God's fidelity to his covenant promises. Generations before, at the time of David himself, God through the prophet Nathan had pledged that the Son of David would be established in God's eyes: "Your house and your kingdom are firm forever before me; your throne shall be firmly established forever."

Jesus had begun his ministry declaring that God's kingship was about to be established: "Repent, for the Kingdom of God is at hand." Today, as we draw near to his coronation with the Roman thorns, his exaltation on the cross, we approach the moment of the manifestation of his dominion over both life and death, heaven and earth.

"¡Hosanna! ¡Viva el Hijo de David!"

Nuestra aclamación en este día espléndido, resuena con temas de victoria. La palabra hosanna tiene en realidad las mismas raíces que el nombre de Jesús: Jesús en hebreo, Yeshua, se traduce a "Dios salva", mientras que la palabra hosanna proviene de la misma raíz, yasha-na, que significa "sálvanos ahora" o "O salva".

Al decir esta aclamación, el pueblo de Jerusalén, invocaba la salvación de Dios, seguían la práctica de los sacerdotes judíos en la fiesta de los Tabernáculos, al olear ramas de sauce que procesarían alrededor del altar de la ofrenda quemada proclamando hosanna.

Esta petición confiada se une con el título que dan a Jesús, Hijo de David. Con esta poderosa invocación, hecha aún más significativa en la ciudad del propio rey, Jerusalén, el pueblo estaría confirmando la fidelidad de Dios a sus promesas de pacto. Generaciones antes, en el tiempo del mismo David, Dios por medio del profeta Natán había prometido que el Hijo de David se establecería a los ojos de Dios: "Tu casa y tu reino estarán firmes para siempre delante de mí, tu trono será establecido firmemente por siempre."

Jesús había comenzado su ministerio declarando que el reinado de Dios estaba a punto de ser establecido: "Arrepentíos, porque el Reino de Dios está cerca". Hoy, cuando nos acercamos a su coronación con las espinas romanas, su exaltación en la cruz, nos acercamos al momento de la manifestación de su dominio sobre la vida y la muerte, el cielo y la tierra.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

In the Atrium

Several weeks ago, we spread a purple cloth on our prayer table and began our Lenten journey with the children in the atrium. In listening to Psalm 23 and the parables of The Good Shepherd and the Found Sheep, we have pondered Jesus' great love and care for us. The children respond to this love, wanting to know how they can "hug" Him and be closer to Him. Let us pray that during Holy Week, we may all come to know the love of our Good Shepherd, who lays down His life for His sheep.

Catequesis del Buen Pastor

En el atrio

Hace algunas semanas, extendimos una tela morada sobre nuestra mesa de oración y comenzamos nuestro viaje de Cuaresma con los niños en el atrio. Al escuchar el Salmo 23 y las parábolas del Buen Pastor y la oveja perdida, hemos reflexionado sobre el gran amor y cuidado que Jesús tiene por nosotros. Los niños respondieron a este amor, deseando saber cómo poder "abrazarlo" y estar más cerca de Él. Oremos para que durante la Semana Santa, todos podamos conocer el amor de nuestro Buen Pastor, aquel que da la vida por sus ovejas.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Now we have come to the center of the Christian year, beginning with today, Passion Sunday, Holy Week, and culminating in the Pasch, the Sacred Triduum. Some have called the culminating event in this week's journey of faith "The Three Days of Easter." The origins of many of our observances, including today's blessing of palms and solemn entry into the church, harken back to old Jerusalem.

In the late fourth century, a woman living a consecrated life in southern France made a four-year pilgrimage to Jerusalem. There, she encountered the rich liturgies of the city, bursting with Christians. She was a keen observer, and fortunately for us wrote vivid letters of her experience to a circle of women friends she calls her sisters. By the time of her journey, it is clear that even some catechumens were undertaking the dangerous journey so that they could be formed at the very site of the events of Christ's passion and rising. At the heart of the pilgrim experience were processions, such as today's joyous procession to the Mount of Olives, and brilliant catechesis from the bishop every day, as well as intense fasting and prayer. When you resolve to keep this week holy in your own life, and especially when you commit to participate in the full Triduum with worship in church and fasting at home, a very ancient tradition is within your grasp. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El Viernes Santo es el día más impresionante que se conmemora en el calendario cristiano. Es el día en que Jesús, muriendo en la cruz, se revela al mismo tiempo como Hijo del Hombre e Hijo de Dios. Los hispanos conmemoramos este día no sólo con la liturgia oficial de la Iglesia, sino también con nuestras devociones populares como el Vía crucis en vivo, el Pésame a la Virgen y el sermón de las Siete Palabras. Esta última devoción es también conocida como el Sermón de tres horas y es mayormente usada por las Iglesias protestantes, sin embargo, tiene su origen gracias al sacerdote Jesuita Francisco del Castillo, en Perú.

Como Jesús, este santo varón dedicó toda su vida a los pobres y marginados. El Viernes Santo de 1660, mientras predicaba en la iglesia de Nuestra Señora de los Desamparados, ante la efigie del Señor en agonía, decidió hacer una comparación del sufrimiento de Cristo al sufrimiento de los desamparados, llamando a los cristianos al apostolado de caridad y justicia. Las siete últimas palabras de Jesucristo deben movernos al servicio de los desamparados.

RCIA is Open to All!

Although many consider RCIA to be faith formation for adults and children seeking full reception into the Catholic Church, it is also a place for anyone looking to expand their knowledge of the Catholic faith and improve one's personal relationship with Jesus. The RCIA team invites everyone to attend. All the questions you have about your faith can be addressed at RCIA. Have you wondered why we dip our fingers into the holy water and genuflect when we enter the Church? What graces are given in the Holy Mass? Why do we pray to the saints? Why do we confess to a priest? What is purgatory? Who are the Church Fathers and the history of the Church? Why does the priest wash his hands before the Eucharist prayer? What does "Eucharist" mean? Our faith is rich, deep, historic, and true. Come learn more. RCIA meets Sunday mornings after the 8:00am Holy Mass in Bishop Quinn Hall behind the school.
