SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | JULY 22, 2018
DECIMOSEXTO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO | 22 DE JULIO DE 2018

Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David. — Jeremiah 23:5a
Viene un tiempo, dice el Señor, en que haré surgir un renuevo en el tronco de David. — Jeremías 23:5a

The Pastor's Corner

When you walk into a Catholic home you're likely to see a crucifix up on the wall; first in the kitchen, then perhaps in the living room, and again in the bedroom. You enter a home signed by the cross of Jesus. Catholics recognize they receive their identity from this central moment in history. Like our forebears celebrating the Passover each year and recalling the blood of the lamb on the door of their homes in Egypt, we know it's the blood of the lamb that protects us and gives us life.

Saint Paul reaffirms this today in our second reading and describes how we are changed in relationship to others through this blood. This is beautiful: not only are we transformed, but we discover that we can relate to others in a completely new way. Saint Paul writes: "In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity."

Being able to see, not just the rooms of our home, but the face of each person we meet in this new light introduces so much grace. Where we may have found someone pleasant or unpleasant before, attractive or troubling, now the blood of Jesus presents the person in a new way. Jesus is our peace; he breaks down the walls that divide us.

Rincón del Pastor

Al entrar a un hogar católico es muy probable que veamos crucifijos en la pared; en la cocina, la sala y los dormitorios. Entramos a un hogar firmado por la cruz de Jesús. Los católicos reconocen que reciben su identidad desde este momento central de la historia. Al igual que nuestros antepasados los cuales celebraban la Pascua cada año y recordaba la sangre del cordero en la puerta de sus hogares en Egipto, nosotros sabemos que es la sangre del cordero la que nos protege y nos da vida.

San Pablo lo reafirma hoy en nuestra segunda lectura y describe cómo somos transformados en relación con los demás a través de esta sangre. Esto es hermoso: no solo nos transformamos, sino que descubrimos que podemos relacionarnos con los demás de una manera completamente nueva. San Pablo escribe: ". Ahora, unidos a Cristo Jesús, ustedes, que antes estaban lejos, están cerca, en virtud de la sangre de Cristo. Porque él es nuestra paz; él hizo de los judíos y de los no judíos un solo pueblo; él destruyó, en su propio cuerpo, la barrera que los separaba."

Poder ver, no solo las habitaciones de nuestra casa, sino la cara de cada persona con la que nos encontramos bajo esta nueva luz, presenta tanta gracia. Donde antes pudimos encontrar a alguien agradable o desagradable, atractivo o perturbador, ahora la sangre de Jesús presenta a la persona de una manera nueva. Jesús es nuestra paz; él rompe las barreras que nos separan

MUCH-NEEDED PRAYER

Each Christian needs half an hour of prayer each day, except when we are busy; then we need an hour.

—St. Francis de Sales

With the gift of Jesus' Precious Blood on the Cross and in the Eucharist, let us reflect on the freedom given to us through our Baptism into him- to be heirs of the promise and liberated from sin. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the way by which persons become "citizens of the Kingdom" through Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. If you are interested in starting this process, this summer we are sharing Symbolon, The Catholic Faith Explained video series. We meet every Sunday in the parish dining hall behind the church, hospitality provided at 9:15 and we end by 10 am.

Faith Formation Registration Update

A friendly reminder to all the families who came in to register their children. Please remember that your child will not be placed in a class until the registration is complete with all required documents. If you fail to do this, the spot for your child may be given to a child that has been on the waiting list. Due date is July 27.
