PEOPLE OF HOPE

Throughout this Easter season, the readings have drawn us into the experience of the early church. We have tasted the excitement and zeal of the first Christians. Now, with them, we listen to the words of Saint Peter, who reminds us that when people notice that we are people of hope, we should be ready to explain why. This challenges us. Do others even notice that we are people of hope? In a world often marked by cynicism and hopelessness, do we stand out as people who offer hope and reassurance to others? In today's Gospel, Jesus promises that when he leaves the earth he will not leave us orphaned. Today he promises to send his Advocate, the Spirit of truth who will be with us always. Let us acknowledge the presence of the Holy Spirit and ask the Spirit to make us people of hope.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The people of Samaria accepted the word of God preached by Philip; they received the Holy Spirit (Acts 8:5-8, 14-17).

Psalm — Let all the earth cry out to God with joy (Psalm 66).

Second Reading — Act with gentleness and reverence toward all, so that when you are maligned those who defame you will be the ones put to shame (1 Peter 3:15-18) or 1 Peter 4:13-16.

Gospel — I will not leave you orphans, but will come to you (John 14:15-21) or John 17:1-11a.

EXTREMES

PUEBLO DE ESPERANZA

Durante este tiempo de Pascua las lecturas no han llevado por la experiencia de la Iglesia en sus primeros días. Hemos saboreado el entusiasmo y el celo de los primeros cristianos. Ahora, con ellos, escuchamos las palabras de san Pedro, que nos recuerda que cuando la gente note que somos pueblo de esperanza, debemos estar preparados para explicar por qué, lo cual nos presenta un retro. Será que otros si nota que somos pueblo de esperanza? ¿En un mundo marcado por el cinismo y la desesperanza, nos destacamos por ser personas que ofrecen esperanza y confianza a los otros? En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús promete que cuando deje esta tierra no nos dejará huérfanos. Hoy promete enviar al Consolador, el Espíritu de la verdad que siempre permanecerá con nosotros. Reconozcamos la presencia del Espíritu Santo y pidamos al Espíritu que nos haga pueblo de esperanza.

THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Who's on your side? Who stands up for you?

These might be questions many of us don't ask anymore, because we've gotten to thinking we're supposed to take care of ourselves.

But when we were kids, we knew you wanted someone on your side: whether there was someone picking on you at school, or you wanted a parent to intervene with your sibling's injustices to you.

It turns out in today's Gospel Jesus sees things the same way. You're supposed to have an advocate, someone who stands up for your cause. The advocate he proposes to us is the person we usually refer to as the Holy Spirit.

One's advocate, the person who speaks on your behalf, defends you from accusations, and Biblically it's also very evident we have someone accusing us: the Greek word for accuser is diabolos, and we know to whom that refers.

Beautifully, our receiving of an advocate, a defender, is offered to us whether or not we are innocent, whether or not there are things of which we can be validly accused. The gift of divine intervention means that even when we recognize we are guilty, as we hand the case over to God, as we confess to him what we're up against, he is able to successfully defend us against the malice of our prosecutor.

In our first reading, today we hear how Peter and John travel to Samaria to visit new converts, to pray that they might receive the Holy Spirit, which they had not yet received. In these days of Easter, we can pray that we receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, that God send us our advocate, that we could experience the authentic freedom of the children of God. With Jesus, as our second reading says, we can be brought to life in the Spirit.

EL RINCON DEL PÁRROCO

¿Quién está de tu lado? ¿Quién te defiende?

Éstas pueden ser preguntas que muchos de nosotros ya no nos preguntamos, porque hemos llegado a pensar que debemos cuidar de nosotros mismos.

Pero cuando éramos niños, sabíamos que queríamos a alguien a nuestro lado: si había alguien en la escuela molestándonos, o queríamos que nuestros papás interviniieran con las injusticias de algún hermano.

Resulta que en el Evangelio de hoy Jesús ve las cosas de la misma manera. Se supone que tienes un defensor, alguien que defienda tu causa. El defensor que nos propone es la persona a la que usualmente se refiere como el Espíritu Santo.

El defensor de uno, la persona que habla en tu nombre, te defiende de las acusaciones. Bíblicamente también es muy evidente que tenemos a alguien acusándonos: la palabra griega para acusador es diabolos, y sabemos a quién se refiere.

Hermosamente, se nos ofrece la recepción de un abogado, un defensor, sea o no inocente, haya o no cosas de las que podamos ser acusados válidamente. El don de la intervención divina significa que incluso cuando reconocemos que somos culpables, mientras entregamos el caso a Dios, cuando le confesamos lo que estamos enfrentando, él es capaz de defendernos con éxito contra la malicia de nuestro fiscal.

En nuestra primera lectura, hoy escuchamos cómo Pedro y Juan viajan a Samaria para visitar a los nuevos conversos, y orar para que recibieran el Espíritu Santo, que aún no habían recibido. En estos días de Pascua, oremos para que recibamos el don del Espíritu Santo, para que Dios nos envíe nuestro abogado, para que podamos experimentar la auténtica libertad de los hijos de Dios. Con Jesús, como dice nuestra segunda lectura, podemos regresar a la vida en espíritu.

PARISH NEWS

As a continued safety measure, you may notice that the bottom half of the windows on either side of the sanctuary have been enclosed. The awning windows have been removed. This should reduce the possibility of vandalism and resolve the leaks experienced during the rainy season. Thank you again for your generosity as we work to maintain our facilities!

Como medida de seguridad continua, puede notar que la mitad del inferior de las ventanas a ambos lados del santuario han sido cerradas. Se han quitado las ventanas de la terraza. Esto reducirá la posibilidad de vandalismo y resolverá el problema de goteras experimentadas durante la temporada de lluvias. Gracias de nuevo por su generosidad mientras seguimos trabajando en el mantenimiento de nuestras instalaciones.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

What is Catechesis of the Good Shepherd?

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a distinct approach to children's faith formation in which children as young as 3 can cultivate deep, lifelong relationships with Christ and the Church. Originating in Rome in the 1950s, this approach engages children using age-appropriate, hands-on materials based on Sacred Scripture and Liturgy. Young children learn best by actively engaging their bodies and all of their senses. In the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, they work with simple, beautiful materials in a room prepared for them called the "atrium". Children from 3 to 12 can immerse themselves in this quiet, retreat-like environment.

If you are interested in learning more about Catechesis of the Good Shepherd at St Isidore parish and school, please contact Michelle Knox at mknox@stisidore-yubacity.org.

¿Qué es la Catequesis del Buen Pastor?

La Catequesis del Buen Pastor es un acercamiento distinto a la formación de la fe de los niños en la cual los niños pequeños de 3 años en adelante pueden cultivar relaciones profundas y duraderas con Cristo y la Iglesia. Originado en Roma en la década de 1950, este enfoque involucra a los niños utilizando materiales apropiados para su edad, prácticas basadas en la Sagrada Escritura y la Liturgia. Los niños pequeños aprenden mejor involucrando activamente sus cuerpos y todos sus sentidos. En la Catequesis del Buen Pastor, trabajan con materiales sencillos y bellos en una sala preparada para ellos llamada "atrio". Los niños de 3 a 12 años pueden sumergirse en este ambiente tranquilo y retirado.

Si usted está interesado en aprender más acerca de la Catequesis del Buen Pastor en la parroquia de St Isidore y la escuela, por favor de comunicarse con Michelle Knox por correo electrónico a mknox@stisidore-yubacity.org

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The custom of genuflection is not found everywhere in the Catholic Church. In fact, it is a bit of breach of etiquette to genuflect in most Eastern Catholic Churches. If you are visiting an Eastern Catholic or an Orthodox church, the "when in Rome" rule should be adopted. Watch what the home team is doing! Usually, Eastern Catholics and Orthodox reserve a small portion of the Eucharistic bread for the dying in a cupboard or Eucharistic dove, but it is not a center of attention or devotion. The rule is to make a profound bow, called a "metasis," toward the altar—bowing deeply while making the sign of the cross.

East and West split years before we Westerners began to reserve the Blessed Sacrament prominently in our churches. Thus, the East never changed the original custom of bowing toward the altar. Increasingly, as tabernacles became more widespread in the West and moved into prominent placement within churches, we replaced the bow toward the altar with a genuflection toward the Blessed Sacrament when its place of reservation is visible.

In a church where the Blessed Sacrament is reserved in a special chapel or off the main axis of the building, normally you should bow toward the altar when you enter your pew, because the Eucharistic table is the principal sign of Christ's presence in the church building. If you have ever participated in the liturgy of Dedication of a Church and Altar, there is no mistaking the altar's significance: it is first slathered with chrism and then adorned with a brazier billowing clouds of incense that fill the whole church as a sign of prayer and presence!

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En Uruguay se celebra la fiesta patronal más grande durante el mes de junio. Celebran a san Cono, un santo italiano del siglo doce. En el Siglo diecinueve los inmigrantes italianos que Vivian en Uruguay seseaban tener una capilla para honrar la memoria de este santo, oriundo de la provincia de Salerno, Italia. En junio de 1885, las campanas de una modesta capillita anunciaron el recibimiento de una imagen de san Cono que llegó en Procesión. Desde entonces esta costumbre italiana se fue haciendo parte integral de la devoción cristiana en Uruguay. Cono fue el hijo único de una pareja anciana que vivía en la ciudad de Teggiano, Salerno. Según la leyenda, una noche mientras dormían, esta pareja soñó un cono de luz que brotaba de la madre. Al nacer el niño decidieron llamarlo Cono. Desde muy niño, Cono mostró un afán por las cosas de Dios y a los diecisésis años ingresó a un monasterio Benedicto siguiendo el consejo de una voz interior que lo invitaba a consagrarse al Señor. A los dieciocho, su monasterio se llenó de luz y una voz anuncio su muerte, y al día siguiente falleció.
