TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | JUNE 10, 2018
DÉCIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO | 10 DE JUNIO DE 2018

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice! —Psalm 130:1
Desde el abismo de mis pecados clamo a ti; Señor, escucha mi clamor. —Salmo 130 (129):1

The Pastor's Corner

What world do you live in? What does reality look like for you?

Each of us take on a philosophy, an outlook toward the world, that colors or illuminates our different experiences and encounters, giving us a context with which to engage each day's events.

Depending on how we interpret the world, we could have perspectives that emphasize fight or flight, confrontation or escape. Some of us because of a feeling of oppression continually look for soothing indulgences. Some from a feeling of competitiveness constantly find ways we are entitled over others.

Saint Paul today presents us with a worldview flooded with abundance because he has removed the restraints between heaven and earth. His earth is radiant with heaven because he knows the Lord of both. That's why he can say to us things like: "Everything indeed is for you, so that the grace bestowed in abundance on more and more people may cause the thanksgiving to overflow for the glory of God."

While you may be living on a constricted emotional budget due to a stingy world, Paul is able to abide in gratitude and enthusiasm because he's glimpsed the bigger picture.

Begin with the little things, identifying each day the specific things you're thankful for. And gradually, blossom into the awareness of superabundance which is the inheritance of those reborn in God.

El Rincón del Pastor

¿En qué mundo vives? ¿Qué aspecto tiene la realidad para ti?

Cada uno de nosotros adopta una filosofía, una perspectiva del mundo, que colorea o ilumina nuestras diferentes experiencias y encuentros, proporcionándonos un contexto con el cual relacionamos los eventos de cada día.

Dependiendo de cómo interpretemos el mundo, podríamos tener perspectivas que enfatizan la lucha o el vuelo, la confrontación o el escape. Algunos de nosotros, debido a un sentimiento de opresión, buscamos continuamente indulgencias tranquilizadoras. Algunos, desde un sentimiento de competitividad, constantemente encontramos la forma de manipular de alguna manera a los demás.

San Pablo hoy nos presenta una cosmovisión inundada de abundancia porque ha eliminado las restricciones entre el cielo y la tierra. Su tierra está radiante con el cielo porque él conoce al Señor de ambos. Es por eso que puede decirnos cosas como esta: "Y todo esto es para bien de ustedes, de manera que, al extenderse la gracia a más y más personas, se multiplique la acción de gracias para gloria de Dios."

Si bien puede estar viviendo con un presupuesto emocional restringido debido a un mundo mezquino, Pablo puede permanecer en gratitud y entusiasmo porque ha vislumbrado la imagen más grande.

Comience con las pequeñas cosas, identificando cada día las cosas específicas por las que está agradecido. Y gradualmente, agá conciencia de la superabundancia que es la herencia de aquellos renacidos en Dios

FAITH FORMATION

In the Atrium

Thank you for your prayers! As we continue to prepare the children for Reconciliation and Communion, we are reflecting on certain scripture passages. This week we reflect on the parable of the Prodigal Son. The image of the loving, forgiving father particularly speaks to the children as they prepare. Please continue to pray for us! Thank you!

At Pentecost several weeks ago, it marked the great gift of the Holy Spirit to those God the Father calls to be his own. Perhaps you can think of someone who longs to have a closer relationship with our Heavenly Father. Can you plant the seeds of hope as you speak of our Father's loving care and his everlasting promises fulfilled in the sending of his Son, and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit? Ask about the RCIA inquiry sessions for those who are not baptized, are of other faiths, or are adult Catholics who were not Confirmed by contacting Jennifer Hackney, jhackney@stisidore-yubacity.org 673-1573

Congratulations to our 8th Grade Graduates!

28 eighth grade students graduated from St. Isidore on May 30th in a beautiful ceremony. We are very proud of our students! May God continue to bless you on your journey and may you stay close to God, following the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Thank You to our Parishioners

As we come to a close for this school year the school staff and students would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our parishioners and friends who have helped us along the way. Thank you to those who helped us obtain all of our new picnic tables. We do appreciate those who contributed to our Adopt-a-Student Pledge Drive to help make Catholic education affordable to all of our parish families.

Our parishioners are the #1 supporters for all of our fundraising. Our golf tournament this past weekend was profitable because of all the parishioners who came out to play. And don't forget about our annual auction, where we can always count on gathering with many parishioners. Thank you so much for your support of our Parish Catholic School, St. Isidore.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Basándose en las palabras de Jesús, Mariano de Blas, compuso su canto: "Entre tus manos". Este hermoso canto nos recuerda que "hay que morir para vivir", es decir, que no es nada fácil ser discípulo de Jesucristo. El mismo Jesús nos pide que nos neguemos a nosotros mismos (Mateo 16:24); que carguemos la cruz para seguirlo (Marcos 8:34); que perdamos nuestra vida por su nombre (Lucas 9:24). Todo esto porque Jesús reconoce que el grano de trigo debe morir para dar vida, para multiplicarse (Juan 12:24).

El canto: "Una espiga dorada por el sol", de Cesáreo Gabaráin, nos recuerda que los cristianos somos trigo del mismo sembrador. Es Jesús quien nos siembra, nos cultiva, nos cosecha, nos tritura, nos amasa, y nos hace un solo pan consagrado a Dios. Somos granos de trigo que, unidos formamos el pan de la comunión que es comunidad. Para esto, cada uno debe morir a sus egoísmos y preferencias. Morir a sí mismo tiene sentido cristiano, sólo si es para trabajar unidos y en la misión de Cristo, la cual es salvación del mundo y construcción del Reino de Dios.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The cathedral is a treasure in a diocese and in our tradition. It is not simply a "big church," as some say; some parish churches are larger. What makes a cathedral is the presence of the chair, called a cathedra (Latin for seat) reserved for the bishop.

There are many instances in our country of a local church (diocese) outgrowing a cathedral. In Baltimore and St. Louis, the former cathedrals are historic treasures in the heart of the old city, but new and larger structures now function as the seat of the bishop.

When a bishop dies or retires, it is said that "the seat is vacant," and when the new bishop is installed, the central ritual is the moment when the decree of the Holy Father is read and the new bishop is escorted to the cathedra. No one but the bishop sits in the cathedra during a ritual, but in Los Angeles the cathedra in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels is accessible, and no one seems to mind when a visitor tries the cathedra out for the bishop's point of view.
