The Pastor's Corner

Bortle and his scale may not be a topic you've pondered lately, but he developed a measurement of darkness, or more precisely, a measurement of the brightness of the nighttime sky and the impact of light pollution in our cities. Remarkably, in our 21st century world, most of us don't know true darkness, or the full intensity of a nighttime sky.

Since indoors and outdoors we pass our days with one form of illumination or another, with nightlights or TV screens, cellphones or street lamps, we've forgotten what it's like to truly be in the dark. And of course conversely, we've forgotten what it is to truly appreciate the light.

In a pre-electronic world, in a preindustrial world, one of the most consoling sights for the nighttime traveler was the light in the window, a lantern in the darkness. Today our solemnity is a feast day of light, the extraordinary radiance of Christ's Epiphany. Today we celebrate the radiant light of Christ shining into our darkness, the vision of heavenly brilliance scattering the shadows in our hearts and world.

As our hearts reawaken to this astonishing gift, the intensity of God's glory can illuminate our lives in a way we did not know we needed, until his brilliance reveals how dim and faint we've become. Celebrating the Epiphany of our Lord, may all of 2018 bring God's new strength and blessing to you.

El Rincón del Párroco

Es posible que Bortle y su escala no sean un tema que consideremos últimamente. El desarrolló una medición de la oscuridad, o más precisamente, una medición del brillo del cielo nocturno y el impacto de la contaminación lumínica en nuestras ciudades. Sorprendentemente, en nuestro mundo del siglo 21, la mayoría de nosotros no conocemos la verdadera oscuridad, o la intensidad total de un cielo nocturno.

Ya que en interiores y exteriores pasamos nuestros días con una forma de iluminación u otra, con luces de noche o pantallas de televisión, teléfonos celulares o lámparas de la calle, hemos olvidado lo que es estar verdaderamente a oscuras. Y, por supuesto, contrariamente, hemos olvidado lo que es realmente apreciar la luz.

En un mundo pre electrónico, en un mundo preindustrial, uno de los lugares más reconfortantes para el viajero nocturno era la luz en la ventana, una linterna en la oscuridad. Hoy nuestra solemnidad es un día de fiesta de luz, el extraordinario resplandor de la Epifanía de Cristo. Hoy celebramos la luz radiante de Cristo brillando en nuestras tinieblas, la visión del resplandor celestial que dispersa las sombras en nuestros corazones y en nuestro mundo.

A medida que nuestros corazones vuelven a despertar a este asombroso regalo, la intensidad de la gloria de Dios puede iluminar nuestras vidas de una manera que no sabíamos que necesitábamos, su brillo revela cuán tenues y débiles nos hemos vuelto. Celebrando la Epifanía de nuestro Señor, deseo que este 2018 traiga la fortaleza y bendición de Dios en sus vidas.

ADORACION PERPETUA

"Bendiciones para un nuevo año en 2018"

Hay innumerables formas de determinar cuáles serán nuestras resoluciones de Año Nuevo. Una forma maravillosa de empezar este nuevo año "2018" sería reflexionar sobre nuestra relación espiritual con Jesucristo. Simplemente ofreciendo 1 hora a la semana en adoración, donde tendrá tiempo para orar y preguntarle a nuestro Padre Celestial lo que desea para nosotros en la vida. No hay excusas, porque hay muchos espacios disponibles a lo largo de la semana para que pueda escoger el dia y la hora que más le convenga.

"La Adoración es la transfiguración continua" Papa Emeritus Benedicto XVI

De parte del Ministerio de Adoracion les deseamos un año lleno de paz y bendiciones. Por favor de ponerse en contacto con Ruth Pendilla para más información de cómo usted puede registrarse para pasar tiempo con Jesus. 674-7193

Las clases de Catecismo reanudaran la semana del 8 de enero 2018.

REST

Most of you are familiar with the Regional Emergency Shelter Team, or more commonly called REST. REST provides emergency winter overnight shelter and food for homeless families and single women and I am so proud to announce that once again – for the 8th year – our parish will participate in this program.

Our parish is scheduled for the weeks of January 6th – 12th and February 17th – 23rd, 2018. During those two weeks we are asked to provide shelter (we offer our gymnasium) and a hearty, warm evening meal for our guests and the REST volunteers.

This is wonderful opportunity for parish ministries, families and individuals to show the love of Jesus Christ and be His hands here on earth. We are looking for people to provide meals & to serve. Gather your friends, family, Bible study groups, prayers groups, Bunco groups and volunteer.

Please contact us by email at bevignery@sbcglobal.net

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Where on earth would you go to honor the magi? Iran or Saudi Arabia, Tarshish or the Isles come to mind, but Cologne, Germany would be a good choice. There the Shrine of the Three Kings has been the centerpiece of the city's cathedral since the fourth century. Today it is the largest reliquary in the world: a gilded and ornamented triple casket gleaming high above the altar. In the fourth century, the supposed relics of the wise men were taken from Constantinople to Milan, where they remained until the German Emperor with the unlikely name Frederick Barbarossa (Red Beard) gave them to the Archbishop of Cologne. Ever since, pilgrims have streamed into the city to honor the magi, the first of all pilgrims, and thus the heavenly patrons of all who have some holy wanderlust.

This largest Gothic cathedral in Europe today was begun in the mid-1200s to house the relics. In medieval times, the relics in a city's possession were often the key to a sound international economy. The reliquary was last opened in 1864, and the remains of three men were indeed discovered. The cathedral is well worth a visit, with enormous twin spires forming the largest façade of any church in the world (it is the model for St. Patrick's in New York). Construction began in 1248 and ended in 1880, a six-hundred-year project. Today, it is a World Heritage Site, described by the U.N. as "an exceptional work of human creative genius." This great treasure of our tradition suffered fourteen direct bomb hits in World War II but did not collapse. It survived while the city burned around it, preserved, the townspeople say, by three heavenly patrons.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Melchor, Gaspar y Baltasar son los nombres que la tradición ha dado a los tres reyes magos. Pero ¿quién dijo que eran tres? Según San Mateo (Mt 2:1-12) fueron sabios del oriente que trajeron oro, incienso y mirra a Jesús. La imaginación cristiana decidió que cada regalo requería alguien que lo regalara. Se fija así el número de sabios en tres. Por ser astrólogos del oriente, tenían que ser magos. Venían buscando al nuevo rey de Israel y fue así que se les da el papel de reyes que representaban los tres continentes conocidos en la época medieval: Asia, África y Europa.

Ellos también representan tres edades humanas: juventud, madurez y vejez. Melchor (rey de la luz), fue un anciano europeo que obsequió oro al Rey Jesús; Gaspar (tesorero) fue un joven asiático que regaló incienso al Niño Dios y Baltasar (dios proteja al rey) fue un hombre africano que donó mirra al Hijo del Hombre.

Hoy día habría que incluir una niña americana y una adolescente australiana a la lista de reyes magos.

LA PROMESA DE DIOS A TODOS

Hoy Isaías le recuerda al pueblo de Dios que recuperará su tierra, que se alegrará al ver que las personas regresan del cautiverio del exilio y que será una luz para todos los pueblos. En otras palabras, por medio del pueblo de Israel, el Salvador llegará a todos los pueblos que buscan a Dios con un corazón sincero. Esto traerá la alegría y el resplandor de la gloria de Dios a todo el mundo y a todos los pueblos. Gracias a la fidelidad del pueblo de Dios y, gracias a la fidelidad de Dios con ellos, todos serán sus hijos y se alegrarán con el cumplimiento de su promesa a Israel.
