THE INEXPRESSIBLE MYSTERY

The God of the universe is mysterious. Science has not been able to solve the mystery of how the universe came into being or explain exactly what continues to give it creative energy and masterful design. No religion asserts that it has found words to name fully the ineffable mystery of God, for no matter what name we use, God always transcends our limited ability to understand. God is a mystery to be believed, not known. And yet, we Christians believe that our name for God best expresses that inexpressible mystery: God is the Most Holy Trinity of three persons united in a communion of love, pouring forth that creative, saving, sanctifying love into the world. Today's scriptures celebrate the mystery of the Trinity and give us clues for living that mystery in our lives.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The LORD, merciful and gracious, rich in kindness and faithfulness (Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9).

Psalm — Glory and praise for ever! (Daniel 3).

Second Reading — Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Live with one another in peace, and the God of peace will be with you (2 Corinthians 13:11-13).

Gospel — God did not send the Son to condemn the world, but to give it abundant life (John 3:16-18).

PRAYER

They pray best who do not know that they are praying.

—St. Anthony of Padua

EL MISTERIO INEXPRESABLE

El Dios del universo es misterioso. La ciencia no ha podido resolver el misterio de cómo el universo surgió ni explicar exactamente es lo que continúa dándole energía creadora y diseño magistral. Ninguna religión afirma que ha encontrado las palabras para nombrar plenamente el misterio inefable de Dios, ya que no importa que nombre usemos, Dios siempre trasciende nuestra limitada capacidad de comprensión. Dios es un misterio en el que se cree y que no se conoce. Y sin embargo, nosotros los cristianos creemos que el nombre que usamos para Dios es el que mejor expresa ese misterio inexpressable: Dios es la Santísima Trinidad de tres personas unidas en una Communion de amor, que se vierte en amor creador, salvador y santificador sobre el mundo. Las lecturas de hoy celebran el misterio de la Trinidad y nos dan las claves para vivir ese misterio en nuestras vidas.

- San Antonio de Pauda

We get the football verse today! It's hard to imagine an NFL game without someone in the stands waving a John 3:16 sign as a succinct summary of what Christianity is all about: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." Today, having completed the Easter season and launching into Ordinary Time, we celebrate Trinity Sunday, focusing on Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and our gospel passage draws us toward that beautiful communion within God, which opens up life for us.

With the Easter Season having culminated in Pentecost, the outpouring of the Paraclete, it's fitting that with the Spirit having been revealed to us we would now see all three Persons in their unity.

For us humans the astonishing thing is that the Holy Trinity is inviting us into communion with Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It's one thing to learn of a Supreme Being, unimaginably higher than us, composed of a mysterious relationship between three persons. It's quite another to discover they want us to join in their company.

And of course this is what we witnessed the entire Easter Season: Jesus lays down his life for us as our brother so that the fulness of Divinity could triumph in him and he could pour out upon us his Holy Spirit. The purpose of all of redemption is our entry into Divine Life.

A marvelous feast day like today has the potential to peel back a little of the incomprehensibility, the remoteness of God: to make a part of our daily story the true, new, identity we've been given. Once upon a time cherubim and seraphim would not have been whom we rub elbows with; the heights of heaven would not have been what we call home. Today's feast is meant to pull into focus the reality that all three Persons of the Godhead now live within us, that we live within them, that in Jesus we are already higher than the angels.

So the next time you're playing some football, or just watching a game, or even sooner, like later this afternoon, take a moment to remember John 3:16: God has rewritten our story so that we can share in his Divine Life.

¡Tenemos el verso de fútbol hoy! Es difícil imaginar un juego de la NFL sin que alguien en la tribuna tenga un letrero de Juan 3:16 como un breve resumen de lo que es el cristianismo: "Dios amó tanto al mundo que dio a su único Hijo, para que todo el que crea en él no perezca, sino que tenga vida eterna ". Hoy, después de haber terminado la Pascua y lanzándonos al Tiempo Ordinario, celebramos el Domingo de la Trinidad, enfocándonos en el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo, y el pasaje del Evangelio nos atrae hacia esa hermosa comunión en Dios la cual nos brinda vida.

Con la culminación del tiempo de Pascua en Pentecostés, el derramamiento del Paráclito, es conveniente que con el Espíritu que nos ha sido revelado ahora veamos a las tres Personas en su unidad.

Para nosotros los seres humanos lo asombroso es que la Santísima Trinidad nos invita a la comunión con el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo. Una cosa es aprender de un Ser Supremo, inimaginablemente superior a nosotros, compuesto por una misteriosa relación entre tres personas. Y otra muy distinta descubrir que quieren que nos unamos a su compañía.

Y por supuesto esto es lo que hemos visto toda la temporada de Pascua: Jesús entrega su vida por nosotros como nuestro hermano para que la plenitud de la Divinidad triunfe en él y él pueda derramar sobre nosotros su Espíritu Santo. El propósito de toda la redención es nuestra entrada a la Vida Divina.

Un maravilloso día de fiesta como el de hoy tiene el potencial de despegar un poco de la incomprendibilidad, de la lejanía de Dios: hacer de nuestra historia cotidiana la verdadera, nueva identidad que nos ha sido dada. Érase una vez que los querubines y los serafines no habrían sido con quienes nos codeamos; el cielo no habría sido lo que llamamos hogar. La fiesta de hoy está destinada a enfocar la realidad de que las tres Personas de la Deidad ahora viven dentro de nosotros, que vivimos dentro de ellas, que en Jesús ya somos superiores que los ángeles.

Así que la próxima vez que juegues un poco de fútbol, o simplemente viendo un partido, o incluso más pronto, esta tarde, tómese un momento para recordar Juan 3:16: Dios ha reescrito nuestra historia para que podamos compartir la vida divina.

PERPETUAL ADORATION NEWS/ NOTICIAS DE ADORACION PERPETUA

Dear members of Perpetual Adoration, we are currently gathering your favorite Eucharistic Adoration quotes. Take a few minutes to send us something you know someone in history has said about Adoration. For an example read the following: "The Eucharist, as Christ saving presence in the community of the faithful and its spiritual food, is the most precious possession which the Church can have in her journey through history". By: Saint John Paul II, the Great.

What profound words! We will be posting these quotes soon in our Adoration Link on the Web. Thank you, and let us keep Adoring. Perpetual Adoration Ministry.

Queridos miembros de La Adoración Perpetua, estamos en estos días colectando citas, algún decir que se refiera a la Adoración Eucarística, y que alguien importante en la historia haya dicho. Solo les tomará unos minutos participar. Lean lo siguiente para un ejemplo: "La Eucaristía, como una presencia Salvadora de Cristo entre la comunidad de los fieles, y como su comida espiritual, es la posesión (el bien) más preciada la cual la Iglesia puede tener para sí, en su viaje por la historia". Por: El Gran, San Juan Pablo II. ¡Qué palabras tan profundas! Estaremos enlistando este estilo de citas ya muy pronto en nuestra sección de La Adoración en la Página de la Red del Internet. ¡Gracias por su apoyo, y sigamos Adorando!
