NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST | JUNE 24, 2018

LA NATIVIDAD DE SAN JUAN BAUTISTA | 24 DE JUNIO DE 2018

"Behold, one is coming after me; I am not worthy to unfasten the sandals of his feet." —Acts 13:25

"Después de mí viene uno a quien no merezco desatarle las sandalias." — Hechos 13:25

The Pastor's Corner

Your mission comes from your identity.

As Catholics we recognize this reality because we know God creates each person for a purpose—there are no accidents: what God gifted and formed you with He did for a reason.

This puts us in a profoundly different place than our peers who identify the cause of everything as random chance. For them, the discovery of talents or limitations at best can be factors in our uncharted course, at worst irrelevant annoyances to cast off. They don't see a hand guiding history and giving each of us a particular role to play.

As we celebrate the birth of John the Baptist today, his pivotal mission can be seen to spring from the identity he was given from the womb, from his origin. Unfortunately, so many of us, neglecting to delve more deeply into who we are, thereby are oblivious to what we've been called to do.

With the Psalmist today we can pray, "Truly you have formed my inmost being; you knit me in my mother's womb," and in asking our Creator to reveal our identity to us, be drawn into our mission.

El Rincón del Pastor

Tu misión proviene de tu identidad.

Como católicos, reconocemos esta realidad porque sabemos que Dios nos crea a cada uno con un propósito; no hay accidentes: los dones que Dios te otorgo y como te creo, lo hizo con un propósito en mente.

Esto nos coloca en un lugar profundamente diferente al de nuestros semejantes quienes identifican la causa de todo como una simple casualidad. Para ellos, los talentos o limitaciones en el mejor de los casos pueden ser un factor más en nuestro rumbo desconocido, en el peor de los casos, molestias irrelevantes las cuales no sirven. No miran las manos guiando la historia y dándonos a cada uno de nosotros un papel particular que jugar.

Al celebrar hoy el nacimiento de Juan el Bautista, se puede ver que su misión surge de la identidad que se le dio desde el vientre, desde su origen. Desafortunadamente, muchos de nosotros, nos descuidamos y no pensamos en lo que somos, nos olvidamos de lo que hemos sido llamados a hacer.

Con el salmista de hoy podemos orar, "Tú has creado mis entrañas, me has tejido en el seno materno. ", pidámosle pues a nuestro creador que nos revele nuestra identidad, y nos demuestre nuestra misión.

FAITH FORMATION

What face of God does your child need to see? Catechesis of the Good Shepherd offers children the time and space they need to develop a deep, loving relationship with Jesus, our Good Shepherd. Here at St. Isidore we offer atrium sessions for children ages 3 through 12. If you would like more information about CGS, please email mknnox@stisidore-yubacity.org

At Pentecost several weeks ago, it marked the great gift of the Holy Spirit to those God the Father calls to be his own. Perhaps you can think of someone who longs to have a closer relationship with our Heavenly Father. Can you plant the seeds of hope as you speak of our Father's loving care and his everlasting promises fulfilled in the sending of his Son, and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit? Ask about the RCIA inquiry sessions for those who are not baptized, are of other faiths, or are adult Catholics who were not Confirmed by contacting Jennifer Hackney, jhackney@stisidore-yubacity.org 673-1573

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Hoy recordamos a san Juan Bautista, primo de Jesucristo y precursor del Mesías. Juan se hizo famoso predicando la penitencia y bautizando con agua, insistiendo que vendría uno que bautizaría al mundo con fuego y el Espíritu Santo. Hoy es uno de los santos mas festejados en el mundo, especialmente en zonas donde su fiesta coincidía con la llegada del verano.

Para celebrar a este santo pariente de Jesús la gente en Alicante, España, hace fogatas durante la noche de su vigilia y baila en torno a ellas. En América el pueblo Boliviano también recibe al santo con hogueras, para quemar la tierra en busca de fertilidad y purificación. Los Bolivianos también festejan echándose agua los unos a los otros.

San Juan ha sido honrado en el hemisferio Americano desde 1509 cuando Juan Ponce de León nombró la Isla de Puerto Rico en su honor. También allí hacen el juego del agua en la fiesta de san Juan ya que los fieles se echan de espaldas al océano tres veces en busca de purificación y celebración.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's midsummer day! We have the advantage of celebrating one of the great hidden treasures of our liturgical calendar on a Sunday this year. There are only three "nativity" feasts on our calendar: for the Lord, the Blessed Mother (September 8), and today's birth of the Baptist. Today's date is anchored by the Annunciation (March 25), when Mary learns not only of her own child's advent, but of Elizabeth's child. We are exactly half a year away from Christmas Eve. There are strong traditions around this feast. Just as the winter solstice provides a rich vocabulary for Christmas, so does the abundance of light at midsummer inform this celebration. Just as at Christmas, a religious festival spills over into culture. As summer light reaches its peak, the sun-drenched zones of northern Europe see people staying up all night, lighting "St. John's fires" in the long summer twilight. Bonfires seem to be the unifying force in all these celebrations, kindled along the shores of the St. Lawrence in Quebec and Montreal, with harbor illuminations in France. You may be most interested in the custom in San Juan, Puerto Rico, the Baptist's own city. People there will leap into the sea between midnight and dawn to honor John. Why not find your way to a pool, a lake, or a sandy beach today and plunge in to recall your baptism? It's a tradition!

THE GREATEST NEED

The world's greatest need is not more Christians but more Christians who practice their Christianity.
