You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence. — Acts 2:28

ON THE ROAD

One central metaphor employed to describe the Christian life is a journey. In today's second reading, Peter addresses the early Christian community: "Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning" (1 Peter 1:17). When we think of a journey, we normally think of some kind of movement from point A to point B. The Christian journey, begun in the waters of baptism (point A) has as its ultimate destination eternal life with God in heaven (point B). Unfortunately, we find ourselves on all kinds of detours along the way. Because of sin, we make foolish turns and sometimes seem unable to detect the presence of the Lord. Today's story of the two disciples on their way to Emmaus illustrates for us the fact that, even when we are dejected or on one of our many detours, the Lord is there, walking right beside us. - Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — God has raised the crucified Jesus, who now pours forth the Holy Spirit upon us (Acts 2:14, 22-33).

Psalm — Lord, you will show us the path of life (Psalm 16).

Second Reading — Our faith and hope are in God who raised Jesus from the dead (1 Peter 1:17-21).

Gospel — Through his words and in the breaking of the bread, the risen Christ made himself known to two disciples on their way to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35).

EN EL CAMINO

Una metáfora importante que se emplea para describir la vida cristiana es la de una peregrinación. En la segunda lectura de hoy, Pedro se dirige a la primera comunidad cristiana: "Vivan siempre con temor filial durante su peregrinar por la tierra" (1 Pedro 1:17). Al pensar en una peregrinación, normalmente se nos ocurre algún tipo de movimiento del punto A al punto B. La peregrinación cristiana, que comenzó en las aguas del bautismo (punto A) tiene como destino final la vida eterna con Dios en el cielo (punto B). Desafortunadamente, en el transcurso tomamos todo tipo de desvíos. Debido al pecado, tontamente nos desviamos y a veces parecemos incapaces de detectar la presencia del Señor. Hoy, el relato de los dos discípulos camino a Emaús ilustra el hecho de que, aunque nos sentamos abatidos o muy desviados, el Señor está allí, caminando junto a nosotros.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — No era posible que Jesús quedara bajo el dominio de la muerte (Hechos 2:14, 22-33).

Salmo — Señor, nos mostrarás el sendero de vida (Salmo 16 [15]).

Segunda lectura — Han sido salvados por la Sangre preciosa de Cristo, como un cordero sin mancha ni defecto. (1 Pedro 1:17-21).

Evangelio — Reconocieron a Jesús en la fracción del pan (Lucas 24:13-35).

In our first reading, today we encounter a transformed community. Last Sunday we found the apostles locked away in the Upper Room, where Jesus brings to them the grace of his resurrection. Today, in our first reading we meet the apostles again bursting forth from the Cenacle as they proclaim the new breakthrough God is introducing into the world.

But this new dispensation is grounded in what is ancient. Peter refers today back to King David, the king anointed by the prophet Samuel, David who rules in Jerusalem and whose tomb is found below the Upper Room even till now.

Peter cites the prophecy made to David that one of his descendants would reign on his throne forever. The Gospel authors likewise clearly point to the promise as it is fulfilled in the person of Jesus, Son of David who now in his risen triumph has inaugurated his eternal reign.

Discovering the new grace Jesus brings to us draws us into the ancient plan God has been preparing from the beginning. God's been preparing this for a long time. He has both the plan and the ability to draw us in as participants in this victory of His Son. As the invocation at ordination states, "May he who has begun the good work in you bring it to fulfillment."

Experience fulfillment. Return to the age-old plan of our Creator; seek the same Holy Spirit who inspired both prophecy and brings about its fulfillment. In the Resurrection of Jesus, we are called to burst forth into transformed life.

En nuestra primera lectura, hoy nos encontramos con una comunidad transformada. El domingo pasado encontramos a los apóstoles encerrados en el Cenáculo, donde Jesús les llevo la gracia de su resurrección. Hoy, en la primera lectura, encontramos nuevamente a los apóstoles saliendo del Cenáculo precipitados proclamando el logro que Dios introducía al mundo.

Pero esta nueva dispensación está basada en lo antiguo. Pedro se refiere hoy al rey David, el rey ungido por el profeta Samuel, David, que gobierna en Jerusalén y cuya tumba se encuentra por debajo del Cenáculo hasta ahora.

Pedro cita la profecía que se le hizo a David de que uno de sus descendientes reinaría en su trono para siempre. Los autores del Evangelio también señalan claramente la promesa tal como se cumple en la persona de Jesús, Hijo de David, quien ahora en su triunfo resucitado ha inaugurado su reino eterno.

Esta nueva gracia que Jesús nos trae, nos lleva hacia el antiguo plan que Dios ha estado preparando desde el principio. Dios ha estado preparando esto por mucho tiempo. Él tiene tanto el plan como la habilidad para hacernos partícipes en esta victoria de Su Hijo. Como dice la invocación en la ordenación, "Que el que haya comenzado la buena obra en ti, la cumpla".

El cumplimiento de la experiencia. Regresa al plan antiguo de nuestro Creador; Busca el mismo Espíritu Santo que inspiró tanto la profecía como su realización. En la Resurrección de Jesús, somos llamados a transformar nuestra vida.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

In the Atrium

"I am the light of the world." Jesus identifies Himself as the "light" in John 8:12a. In the atrium this week we celebrate the light of the Risen Christ. In our celebration with the children we talk about the Paschal candle and how it represents this light. Jesus shares His Risen Light with us, so each one of us receives a small candle lit from the Paschal candle, very similar to our Easter Vigil. They are so happy to be called by name to receive this light. Their prayer reflects this joy: "Thank you, Jesus, for your light." "Thank you for our candles." "Thank you for dying on the cross and rising from the dead." My prayer this week is that each of us will hear our good shepherd when He calls us by name and follow Him, because "...he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." Jn 8:12b.

Catequesis Del Buen Pastor

"Yo soy la luz del mundo". Jesús se identifica a sí mismo como la "luz" en Juan 8: 12a. En el atrio esta semana celebramos la luz del Cristo Resucitado. En nuestra celebración con los niños hablamos del cirio pascual y de cómo representa a esta luz. Jesús comparte esta luz con nosotros, así que cada uno de nosotros recibió una pequeña vela encendida del cirio pascual, muy similar a nuestra Vigilia pascual. Estamos tan contentos de ser llamados por nombre para recibir esta luz. Su oración refleja esta alegría: "Gracias, Jesús, por tu luz." "Gracias por nuestras velas." "Gracias por morir en la cruz y resucitar de entre los muertos." Mi oración esta semana es que cada uno de nosotros escuchemos a nuestro buen pastor cuando nos llama por nuestro nombre y le sigamos, porque "... Yo soy la luz del mundo; el que me sigue, no andará en tinieblas, sino que tendrá la luz de la vida.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Some monks and nuns trace their community origins back a thousand years or so, before it became customary to reserve the Blessed Sacrament in tabernacles. In their rules of life, which evolved from the lifestyle and prayer of their predecessors, the core experience of Christ's presence is at the altar itself, and in the symbol of assembly for prayer. To this day, when the monks or nuns file into their church in procession, they march two by two, and then bow profoundly to the altar before turning and bowing in reverence toward the brother or sister at their side. It is probably more difficult, in practice, to revere the presence of Christ in a person who irks you by taking the car keys, shirking a work duty, or burning the toast!

We can trace in these religious orders' enduring customs the ancient appreciation for the altar as the center of the church building, and of the community of the faithful as the Body of Christ. Usually, a monastery today will reserve the Blessed Sacrament in some quiet corner of the monastic church, in a fairly small space, more suitable for private prayer than for the gathering of the whole community. In a cloister, the architecture may allow the public limited access to this space. Liturgical law tells us, in both monasteries and parish churches, that there is no need for more than a few hosts in the place of reservation, just enough for viaticum, the "food for the journey" that is the final sacramental celebration for a dying Christian. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El 3 de mayo en el sur de Ilocos, Filipinas, se celebra la fiesta del Cristo milagroso o Apo Lacay como lo llaman los filipinos. Esta imagen fue encontrada dentro de una caja que flotaba en el mar, junto con la Virgen Milagrosa. Fueron unos pescadores quienes hicieron el hallazgo. Los pescadores eran de los pueblos de Badoc y Sinait y decidieron llevarse el Cristo a Badoc, pero no lograron moverlo. Una vez que decidieron llevarse al Cristo a Sinait, la imagen se hizo muy ligera de peso, por lo cual se piensa que Cristo deseaba estar en Sinait.

Este Cristo negro recuerda a los Cristos milagrosos de Latinoamérica, como el Santo Cristo de Esquipulas (Guatemala), los Cristos de Tila, Chalma y Otaltitlán (México), el Señor de los Milagros (Perú) y otros. Probablemente se trata de una evangelización española ya que en 1595, el rey Felipe II mandó varios Cristos negros a los cristianos indígenas de América. En todo caso, estos Cristos han resultado milagrosos gracias a la fe del pueblo, porque como dice Jesús: nuestra fe es la que nos salva (Marcos 5:34; 10:46-52). —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Your 33 Days to Morning Glory Retreat Tracker...

You should be at Day 20 or 21 in your retreat. Hopefully you've enjoyed the reflections and insights from St. Louis de Montfort and St. Maximilian Kolbe on the mystery of our Blessed Mother and how she can help us deepen our relationship with her son, Jesus Christ. During this fourth and final week our "most Marian Pope", St. John Paul II, builds on the work of the Second Vatican Council to provide us with the most biblical treatment of Marian consecration, which he calls "entrustment".

A Woman's Friend Walk

Our priests and deacons are excited about being part of the Walk for Life Fundraiser for A Woman's Friend on May 6th. Each one is hoping you will sponsor him after Mass. Again, look for the Walk for Life table and consider sponsoring a clergy member or become a walker yourself? If everyone gives a little, it becomes a lot. Walkers need to turn in their sponsor sheets, with any money/checks, to Gloria in the Church Office by Thursday, May 4th, or bring them to the Walk on Saturday the 6th and turn in at the St. Isidore Table. Thank You – See you there! Yes, you have the opportunity to save a life – and it is so easy. Come see us at the table in front of the Church.

Caminata por la vida de la Clínica A Woman's Friend

Nuestros sacerdotes y diáconos están emocionados de ser parte de la recaudación de fondos de la Clínica A Woman's Friend el 6 de mayo. Cada uno espera que lo patrocine después de la Misa. Una vez más, ¿busque la mesa de A Walk for Life y considere la posibilidad de patrocinar a un miembro del clero o convertirse en un caminante usted mismo? Si todo el mundo da un poco, se convierte en mucho. Las personas que tienen pensando caminar por favor de entregar las formas de sus patrocinadores junto con el dinero a la oficina parroquial antes de mayo 4 o traerlo consigo el día de la caminata el 6 de mayo y entréguelos en la mesa de San Isidro. ¡Sí! usted tiene la oportunidad de salvar una vida - y es tan fácil. Ven a vernos en la mesa frente a la Iglesia. Gracias por su apoyo.

40 Days for Life – Thank You

The Spring 40 Days for Life finished strong at Planned Parenthood in Yuba City. Thank you to all who came and prayed to End Abortion. Thank you also to those who prepared the Altar for the Blessed Sacrament every Friday and for Fr. Avram and Fr. Fernando bringing our Lord. What a powerful witness this was to our community. Ramon at El Central Restaurant stored our signs and allowed the Altar and Blessed Sacrament in his parking lot. The National 40 Days for Life has reported that 471 babies were saved, (2 babies were from our community) and their mothers were spared the aftermath of the abortion decision. Also, some abortion businesses closed. Great things happen when God's people come together and pray. Thank you all! Please check the bulletin, as we will resume our monthly vigil in front of Planned Parenthood.

Catholic Home Missions Appeal

Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the United States are considered home missions because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support funds programs—such as religious education, seminary formation, and lay ministry training—to build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Esta semana llevaremos a cabo el Llamado para las Misiones Católicas. Hoy, a más del 40 por ciento de las diócesis en Estados Unidos se le considera como diócesis misioneras ya que no les es posible financiar las labores pastorales básicas en sus comunidades. Su apoyo a este llamado ayuda a aliviar los esfuerzos de estas diócesis. Por favor, en oración, consideren la manera de apoyar a este llamado.
