The Pastor's Corner

Which tables in your life could Jesus knock over and you still would listen to him? As he spills the coins of the money changers, how much could he disrupt your finances before you would push him out?

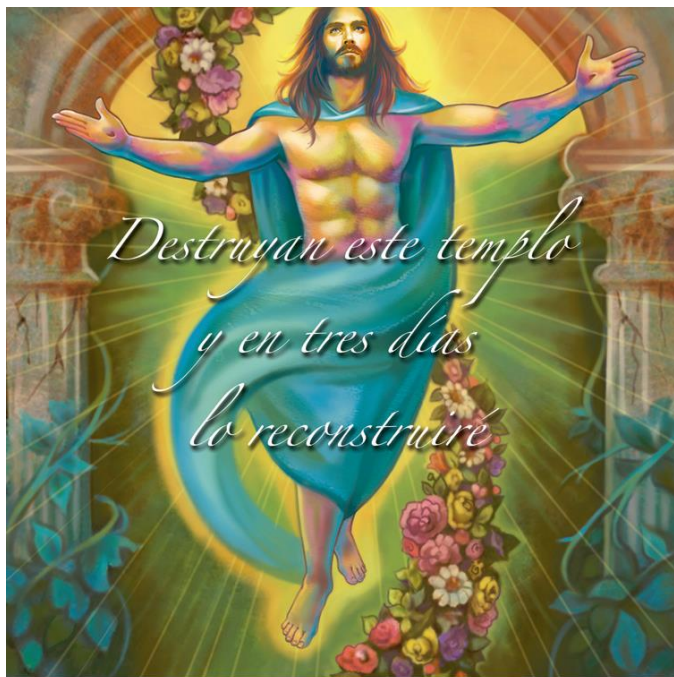

Today almost halfway into Lent we are bumped into by a Jesus who seems very ready to disrupt some pretty important things in our lives. Things like how we spend our money, how we spend our time--these are important for us. Jesus seems ready to crash right in.

This is why Paul today calls Jesus and his cross a stumbling block to the Jews and foolishness to the Gentiles. Most people who encounter him are going to encounter someone they don't like because he messes things up.

Even for us Catholics one of the ways we can keep Jesus acceptable is by keeping him at arm's distance. Paying him lip service, or admiring things like the Ten Commandments on paper, we can maintain a protective buffer keeping him from intruding into our personal lives.

But here you are in church this Sunday, and here you are reading this reflection, and perhaps Jesus is letting you know he's about to break in. Lent is our season that reminds us we only have a little time left on this earth--'Remember you are dust and to dust you shall return'--and Jesus knows what upheaval is necessary to get us where we need to be.

If you're willing for God to introduce freedom into your life, to introduce joy, fulfillment, and meaning, let him know. Just know that he knows what it will take to let the light in.

Estaremos resando la oración de San Miguel Arcángel antes de cada misa durante la cuaresma. Habrá tarjetas con la oración disponible en las bancas.

El Rincón del Párroco

¿Qué mesas en tu vida podría Jesús volcar y aun así lo escucharías? Mientras desparrama las monedas de los cambistas de dinero, ¿cuánto más podría interrumpir tus finanzas antes de que lo corrieras?

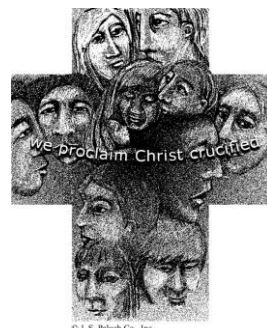

Hoy, casi a la mitad de la Cuaresma, nos encontramos con un Jesús que parece estar listo para desbaratar algunas cosas muy importantes en nuestras vidas. Cosas como la forma en que gastamos nuestro dinero, cómo gastamos nuestro tiempo, estos son importantes para nosotros, pero Jesús parece estar listo para derribarlos.

Es por esto que Pablo hoy llama a Jesús y su cruz una piedra de tropiezo para los judíos y una tontería para los gentiles. La mayoría de las personas que lo conocen se van a encontrar con alguien que no les va a agradar porque parece que a él le gusta arruinar algunas cosas.

Incluso para nosotros, los católicos, una de las maneras en las que aceptamos a Jesús es manteniéndolo lejos de nosotros. Al prestarle servicio de labios, o admirar cosas como los Diez Mandamientos, podemos mantener una defensa de protección evitando así que se entrometa en nuestras vidas personales.

Pero aquí estás en la iglesia este domingo, y aquí estás leyendo esta reflexión, y quizás Jesús te está dejando saber que está a punto de entrar. La cuaresma es la época que nos recuerda que nos queda poco de tiempo en esta tierra ... Recuerda que polvo eras y al polvo volverás', y Jesús sabe lo que es necesario para llevarnos a donde debemos estar.

Si estás dispuesto a que Dios introduzca la libertad en tu vida, le de alegría, plenitud y sentido, házselo saber. Ten por seguro que él sabe exactamente lo que se necesita hacer para que esa luz entre.

St. Isidore Lenten Communal Penance Service

Thursday, March 8th

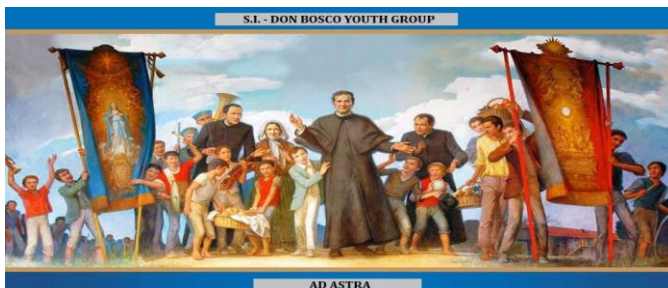

At 6:00pm in the Church

Several priests will be available to hear confessions.

“Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand”
-Matthew 4:17

There will be no regular confessions at 4pm or 6:30pm Spanish Mass, on Thursday, March 8 due to the Lenten Penance Service that evening.

- ❖ Our Don Bosco Youth Group meetings will be every Friday from 5:00 – 6:15pm in the School Science Room. Come and participate in your Catholic faith- this is your group this is your Church. Viva Cristo Rey.

This weekend starts the First of Three Scrutinies for the unbaptized adults in RCIA. The Scrutinies take place on the third, fourth and fifth Sundays of Lent. “The scrutinies, solemnly celebrated on Sundays and reinforced by an exorcism, are Rites for self-searching and repentance and have above all a spiritual purpose. The scrutinies are meant to uncover, then heal all that is weak, defective or sinful in the hearts of the elect [those preparing for the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and the Eucharist]; to bring out, then strengthen, all that is upright, strong and good. The Scrutinies are celebrated in order to deliver the elect from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ, who is the way, the truth and the life. These rites, therefore, should complete the conversion of the elect and deepen their resolve to hold fast to Christ and to carry out their decision to love God above all”.

Essentially these rites are composed of prayers of intercession and the laying on of hands so that the Holy Spirit may be invoked and the spirit of evil cast out. They are celebrated purposefully at Mass so that the whole congregation is given the opportunity to pray for and support those preparing for the Easter sacraments and to make the point that conversion is not only a personal matter but a communal commitment. They have their origin in the early Church.

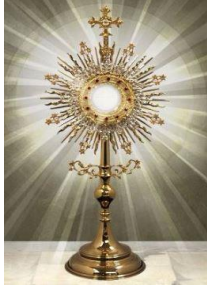

Adopt a Student Tuition Assistance Fund – St. Isidore School

During the weeks of February 25th through March 18th, St. Isidore Parish and School is increasing awareness of the financial assistance needed by many families who desire a Catholic school education for their children. More than 50 % of our school families cannot afford the full tuition. Hopefully through your prayers and support we can increase our Adopt-a-Student program 100%.

The second collection next week is for St. Isidore School. Thank you for your continued support to our Parish School.

Thank you, Father Brown for approving our participation again for our 8th year and very special thanks to Deacon Eldon for always being there.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Durante la Cuaresma es importante orar, pero muchas personas se declaran ignorantes sobre el tema de la oración. Dicen que nunca aprendieron a orar o que les gustaría poder orar mejor. Tristemente, muchos tienen un entendimiento equivocado sobre lo que es la oración. Piensan que orar es solo recitar oraciones memorizadas o esperan que la oración produzca visiones extraordinarias como la transfiguración de Jesucristo en el monte Tabor. Esperan que patriarcas y profetas, o por lo menos ángeles y santos, se les aparezcan de repente.

No digo que estas cosas no pasan, muchas personas lo han experimentado, algunos de ellos por ser muy santos mientras otros más por ser locos. Sinceramente la oración es otra cosa, es más fácil que aprender oraciones de memoria y mucho más simple que éxtasis y visiones. Orar es hablar como hijo o hija al Dios que nos ama como madre, padre, hermano, hermana, amante y amigo. Orar es contarle al Señor como nos van las cosas, nuestros temores, nuestros problemas, nuestros gozos y nuestros anhelos. Orar es pasar tiempo con Dios, a veces platicando, y a veces calladitos, pero siempre amados.
