THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | JULY 1, 2018
DECIMOTERCER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO | 1 DE JULIO DE 2018

You changed my mourning into dancing; O Lord, my God, forever will I give you thanks. — Psalm 30:13

Convertiste mi duelo en alegría te alabaré por eso eternamente. — Salmo 30 (29):13

The Pastor's Corner

Independence Day!

For us as a nation our identity and origin corresponds with being independent: while historically beginning with independence from the England and the Crown, it quickly defined itself as personal autonomy and self-initiative. We enshrined that in our ideals of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness (while Jefferson's earlier draft cited 'property' as our third fundamental right, this more ambiguous 'pursuit' replaced it).

Early documents of our nation clearly saw this personal freedom as being directed to personal responsibility. Unfortunately, the last few decades have collapsed this to personal license: we like freedom, but merely to do what we want.

Jesus specifically states that his mission in this world is to bring us freedom: "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free . . . So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed" (John 8:21-36). As a Church, we can almost take full credit for the concept of personal freedom. But as a society today, we've lost the point, and therefore the meaning, of what this freedom is.

This week is an ideal opportunity for us as Catholics to rediscover true independence, the invitation from our God to know freedom from the slavery of sin and addictions. Living this gift, we can reveal to our neighbors the potential freedom can bring them.

El Rincón del Pastor

!Día de la Independencia!

Como nación nuestra identidad y origen corresponden con ser independientes: históricamente comenzando con la independencia de Inglaterra y su Monarquía, muy pronto se autodefinió como autonomía y iniciativa propia. Hemos protegido esto en nuestros ideales de vida, libertad e búsqueda de la felicidad (una versión anterior de la declaración de independencia escrita por Jefferson citaba "propiedad" como nuestro tercer derecho fundamental, esta 'búsqueda' más ambigua la reemplazó).

Documentos anteriores de nuestra nación claramente presentaban esta libertad personal siendo dirigida a la responsabilidad personal. Desafortunadamente, estas últimas décadas han colapsado esto a una licencia personal: nos gusta la libertad, pero solamente para hacer lo que nos plazca.

Jesús claramente especifica su misión en este mundo de traernos libertad: "Ustedes serán verdaderos discípulos míos si perseveran en mi palabra; entonces conocerán la verdad, y la verdad los hará libres"... "Por tanto, si el Hijo los hace libres, ustedes serán realmente libres." (Juan 8:31-36) Como Iglesia, casi podemos tomar todo el crédito por el concepto de libertad personal. Pero como sociedad de hoy en día, perdimos el punto, y por lo tanto el significado, de lo que libertad es.

Esta semana es la oportunidad ideal para nosotros como Católicos de reencontrar la verdadera independencia, la invitación de nuestro Dios de conocer la libertad de la esclavitud al pecado e vicios. Viviendo este regalo, podemos revelar a nuestros vecinos el potencial que la libertad les traerá.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As Independence Day draws near, we think of the men and women of the military who serve with courage and competence, some far from home. How does the Church accompany them? In 1939, Pope Pius XII created an independent jurisdiction of the Catholic Church called the "Military Vicariate." In 1985 Pope John Paul II created the "Archdiocese for Military Services, USA." Spanning the globe and serving nearly one and a half million Roman Catholics, more than one thousand priests minister in hospitals, on military bases of all the armed forces, on ships at sea, and on the battlefield. The AMS does not ordain priests, but accepts priests on loan from religious orders and dioceses.

In 1824 a Jesuit priest named Adam Marshall enlisted in the Navy and died at sea in 1825. He was assigned as a "schoolmaster," but he sought out and ministered to Catholic sailors. Twenty years later, President Polk was worried that the war with Mexico was seen as anti-Catholic, so he recruited two Jesuit priests to serve in the army as chaplains. At the time of the Civil War, only about ten percent of Americans were Catholic. Military policies forced Catholic soldiers to attend Protestant services. The Church protested this rule, and many priests volunteered to become chaplains. Their witness and the courage of the "Nuns of the Battlefield" (several orders of sisters who assisted Civil War victims) helped temper prejudice against Catholics and pave the way for the life and ministry of this vigorous and unique archdiocese.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Esta semana conmemoramos al apóstol santo Tomás, el cual es normalmente recordado por haber dudado de la resurrección de Jesucristo. La incredulidad de este santo es explicada en el Evangelio según san Juan (20:19-31) con la famosa frase: "Si no veo en sus manos la señal de los clavos y no meto mi dedo en el agujero de los clavos y no meto mi mano en su costado, no creeré."

Los latinos somos de culturas religiosas que consideran la incredulidad como algo pecaminoso y camino al ateísmo. Hay que aceptar que la duda es algo normal en el ser humano. Dudo que exista alguien que nunca haya dudado de su fe. Sólo al aceptar esta duda estaremos abiertos a la invitación de Jesús: "Acerca aquí tu dedo y mira mis manos; trae tu mano y métela en mi costado, y no seas incrédulo sino creyente." Santo Tomás aceptó esta invitación y llegó a su gran proclamación de fe: "Señor mío, y Dios mío". La duda no es mala, para muchos es el camino a una fe más profunda y a un compromiso mayor.
