THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | NOVEMBER 19, 2017
TRIGÉSIMO TERCER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO | 19 DE NOVIEMBRE DE 2017

Blessed are you who fear the Lord. — Psalm 128:1a

Dichoso el que teme al Señor. — Salmo 128 (127):1a

SHARING OUR GIFTS

Autumn is the season for harvesting and sharing the fruits of our labors. This week's scriptures use images of the harvest, family life, pregnancy, and investment to describe the abundant harvest in the reign of God. We discover that sharing the gifts we have been given brings eternal rewards for everyone.

In the Gospel parable a master entrusts his possessions to three servants before going on a journey. Each is given some talents. What they do with those talents determines what the master will do with them when he returns. How about us? What are we doing with our talents? How will our Master treat us when he returns?

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The woman who fears the LORD is to be praised (Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31).

Psalm — Blessed are those who fear the Lord (Psalm 128).

Second Reading — Brothers and sisters, you are children of the light (1 Thessalonians 5:1-6).

Gospel — To all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance (Matthew 25:14-30 [14-15, 19-21]).

The Pastor's Corner

Helpfully, the Book of Proverbs has 31 chapters. This facilitates, if one wanted to take up the practice, the reading of a chapter for each day of the month. If a person were to maintain that cycle for a year or two some of the most meaningful insights in Wisdom literature would become a part of who they were.

Today we read from the final chapter of Proverbs, a passage that is often selected for weddings as it describes beauty, love, and worth. The affection and tenderness in the verses reaches us even today, when we are so often at a loss as to how to find our self-worth, our own identity.

A practice often described in retreats or devotionals in reading the Scriptures is to recast the text in the first person: to reread the verses as if they applied to oneself to experience how it sounds. Today, hearing God speak these words to us personally unlocks a whole new understanding of how he sees us. "Your value," God tells us, "is far beyond pearls." When God describes to us how he sees us as his children, as the bride loved by the Lamb, God knows we have so much to discover about who we are: "Your husband, entrusting his heart to you, has an unfailing prize. You bring him good, and not evil, all the days of your life. You . . . work with loving hands. . . . You reach out your hands to the poor, and extend your arms to the needy. Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; you who fear the LORD are to be praised."

Ponder again on this way God describes you. As you let it sink in, there can be so many voices within that protest, calling up all the blemishes that don't match this new way of seeing ourselves. And this is why we read the Scriptures, why we spend time with, pray with, the Word of God. It is vital for us that the voice of our Creator define us over the voice of the Accuser who never relents.

Jesus, speaking to John in the Book of Revelation, describes how he will give to the one who is victorious a white stone with a new name engraved on it, known only to the one who receives it: God is here to rewrite our identity, to give us a new identity in his radiant compassion that draws forth all the beauty and worth he sees within us. "Behold," Jesus says again in Revelation, "I make all things new." In these final days of the liturgical year, our listening and receiving of these verses allows this illumination to shine on the whole Body of Christ, especially our brothers and sisters in Purgatory. God's affection and tenderness define our whole being, both those of us here in time and those who have passed into eternity.

El Rincón del Párroco

El Libro de Proverbios tiene 31 capítulos. Un capítulo para cada día del mes. Si mantuviéramos ese ciclo por un año o dos, algunas de las ideas más significativas en la literatura de la Sabiduría pasarían a ser parte del quienes éramos.

Hoy leemos del capítulo final de Proverbios, un pasaje que a menudo se selecciona para bodas, ya que describe la belleza, el amor y el valor. El afecto y la ternura en los versículos nos llegan incluso hoy en día, cuando a menudo estamos perdidos de cómo encontrar nuestra propia autoestima, nuestra propia identidad.

Una práctica que seguido se describe en retiros o devocionales al leer las Escrituras es volver a redactar el texto en primera persona: volver a leer los versículos aplicándolos a uno mismo para experimentar cómo suena. Hoy, al escuchar a Dios decirnos estas palabras personalmente, se abre una nueva comprensión de cómo él nos ve. "Su valor", nos dice Dios, "va mucho más allá de las perlas". Cuando Dios nos describe cómo nos ve como sus hijos, como la novia amada por el Cordero, Dios sabe que tenemos mucho por descubrir acerca de quiénes somos: "Su marido confía en ella y, con su ayuda, él se enriquecerá; todos los días de su vida le procurará bienes y no males." Adquiere lana y lino y los trabaja con sus hábiles manos. Son engañosos los encantos y vana la hermosura; merece alabanza la mujer que teme al Señor."

Medita la manera que Dios te describe. Profundiza, al profundizar puede que haya voces dentro de ti que solo te hagan ver todas las imperfecciones las cuales no coinciden con esta nueva forma de vernos. Es por eso la importancia de pasar tiempo leyendo la palabra de Dios y que oremos con ella. Para nosotros es vital que sea la voz de nuestro Creador quien nos defina y no la voz del Acusador que nunca cede.

Jesús, al hablarle a Juan en el Libro de Apocalipsis, describe cómo le dará a la victoriosa una piedra blanca con un nuevo nombre grabado, conocido solo por el que la recibe: Dios está aquí para reescribir nuestra identidad, para darnos una nueva identidad en su radiante compasión que atrae toda la belleza y el valor que él ve dentro de nosotros. "He aquí", Jesús dice otra vez en Apocalipsis, "Yo hago nuevas todas las cosas". En estos días finales del año litúrgico, nuestra escucha y recepción de estos versículos permite que esta iluminación brille en todo el Cuerpo de Cristo, especialmente en nuestros hermanos y hermanas en el Purgatorio. El afecto y la ternura de Dios definen todo nuestro ser, tanto para nosotros que aun estamos aquí como para aquellos que han pasado a la eternidad.

COMPARTIENDO NUESTROS DONES

El otoño es la estación de la cosecha y de compartir los frutos de nuestra labor. Las lecturas bíblicas de esta semana emplean imágenes de la cosecha, la vida familiar, el embarazo y la inversión para describir la abundante cosecha en el Reino de Dios. Descubrimos que compartir los dones que hemos recibido trae recompensa eterna para todos.

En la parábola del Evangelio un hombre le encarga sus bienes a tres servidores antes de partir de viaje. A cada uno le da dinero. Lo que hacen con ese dinero determina lo que el amo hará con ellos cuando regrese. ¿Y qué de nosotros? ¿Qué estamos haciendo con nuestros talentos? ¿Cómo nos tratará nuestro Maestro cuando vuelva?

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT
WORKING ON THE MARGINS

Please be generous in this week's second collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, one in six people lives in poverty. With this collection you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those who are struggling across the country. In addition, 25 percent of funds collected remains in our diocese to fund local anti-poverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

Church Beautification – Help Needed

We are planning to replat the six candlesticks on the upper Altar by the tabernacle. This would restore them to their original beauty and shine. We have obtained a price from the same company that replated the sacred vessels we use on the Altar. The cost is $200 per candle stick. These candlesticks are believed to be part of the original furnishings of the Church. They have become tarnished over the years and simple cleaning methods will not restore them to their original condition. Please consider making a donation marked Candlesticks and we will be able to get the job done quickly. Over $400 has already been donated for this work. Thank you in advance.

R.C.I.A. Adapted for Children and Teens

R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation) Adapted for Children and Teens is the process by which unbaptized young people at the age of reason (7 years of age or older) prepare to enter the Catholic Church through the sacraments of initiation- Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist (Holy Communion). Children who are already baptized in this age group, but who are not catechized, can also prepare to celebrate the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. You can see the names of these children who are in our parish Adapted RCIA program. Check out the Bulletin Board in the back of the church. Please pray for these children that God will strengthen their parents resolve as they assist their children on this journey. If you would like to be a prayer partner for this group of children, please contact Jennifer Hackney at 673-1573. The children would be ecstatic and empowered to know that their parish community holds them up in prayer. There are 81 children in this program. Thank you!

Thank you to all who volunteered their time and to all who donated to our Farm to Fork Dinner.

Catholic School Advisory Commission for St. Isidore School

Embellendiendo nuestra Iglesia: ¡Necesitamos su Ayuda!

Estamos planeando pulir los seis candelabros que estan junto al tabernáculo. Esto los restauraría a su belleza y brillo original. Hemos obtenido un precio de la misma compañía que restauro los copones que usamos en el Altar. El costo es de $200 por candelabro. Se cree que estos candeleros son parte del mobiliario original de la Iglesia. Se han manchado a lo largo de los años. Simples métodos de limpieza no los restaurarán a su condición original. Considere hacer una donación para estos Candelabros y podremos hacer el trabajo rápidamente. Ya recibimos una donacion de poco más de $ 400. Gracias de antemano.

Join us for a Divine Mercy Retreat! Journey into the Heart of St Therese of Lisieux's Little Way with the "33 Days to Merciful Love" Group Retreat. The format of the retreat is simple: The participants will read from the book 33 Days to Merciful Love and answer several questions in their workbooks daily, on their own. Then we'll all come together weekly to watch a talk by Fr. Michael on DVD, and break into small groups for discussion.

The retreat will begin on Tuesday, Jan 2 in Bishop Quinn Hall. At the conclusion of the six-week retreat, we'll make our consecration to Divine Mercy on Sunday, Feb 11.

Please consider joining us. All are welcome!
