SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER (OR SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY) | APRIL 8, 2018

SEGUNDO DOMINGO DE PASCUA (DOMINGO DE LA DIVINA MISERICORDIA) | 8 DE ABRIL DE 2018

Who indeed is the victor over the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? 1 John 5:5

¿Quién es el que vence al mundo? Sólo el que cree que Jesús es el Hijo de Dios. — 1 Juan 5:5

The Pastor's Corner

*I was hard pressed and was falling,
but the Lord helped me.
My strength and my courage is the Lord,
and he has been my savior.*

Hopefully it's been a long time since you found yourself falling, heading toward a swift introduction with a hard unforgiving surface. The unexpected fall is breakneck disaster, where the question isn't whether we'll be hurt, but instead how badly. Sudden falls, even in their split second interruption, make us second-guess everything leading up to the fall: we immediately regret everything that led to this hasty and abrupt visit to the Emergency Room.

For many of us, enough time elapses between accidents that we drift into inattentiveness; we text while driving, carry one extra bag in from the car, or return to the soda and cigarettes. Then the abrupt collision drenches us in fruitless regret. Or the freefall comes at no fault of our own: some raw deal or setback knocks us off our feet, and we find our crafted plans shattering.

Today introduces something different. Today is the day to remember the soft landing; the moment we hit the ground and found nothing was broken, everything still works. This Second Sunday of Easter is the day we discover we have someone looking out for us, an ally who intervenes on our behalf.

*I was hard pressed and was falling,
but the Lord helped me.*

Today, Divine Mercy Sunday, is the day we see the worst disaster, the death of Jesus, and discover that the rebound, his launch to glory, far eclipses the crash. Jesus' resurrection means that no matter the fall, no matter the collapse, our God has our back.

Begin to believe in Jesus. Believe in a Savior who rescues, a God who saves. What peace we often forfeit, the needless pain we bear, because we don't remember our strength and our courage, the Mercy that is our ransom.

*My strength and my courage is the Lord,
and he has been my savior.*

El Rincón del Párroco

*Empujaban y empujaban para derribarme,
 pero el Señor me ayudó; el Señor es mi fuerza y mi energía,
 él es mi salvación.*

Espero que haya pasado mucho tiempo desde tu ultimo tropiezo. La caída es inesperada y usualmente pasa como un relámpago, la pregunta no es si nos iremos a lastimar, sino qué tan mal. Las caídas repentinas, nos hacen cuestionar todo lo que condujo a la caída e inmediatamente lamentamos todo lo sucedido que nos llevó a una visita repentina a la Sala de Emergencias.

Para muchos de nosotros, transcurre suficiente tiempo entre los accidentes y muchas veces nos distraemos; enviamos mensajes de texto mientras conducimos, o volvemos a tomar refresco y fumar cigarros. Entonces el golpe repentino nos llena de lamento vano. Abecés el tropiezo no es nuestra culpa. Un mal trato o una complicación nos derriba y vemos que nuestros planes se destrozan. Hoy se nos presenta algo diferente. Hoy es el día para que podamos recordar que puede haber un aterrizaje suave; en el momento en que tocamos el suelo y descubrimos que no se nos quebró nada, y que todo sigue funcionando.

Este segundo domingo de Pascua es el día en que descubrimos que tenemos a alguien que nos cuida, un aliado que interviene en nuestro nombre.

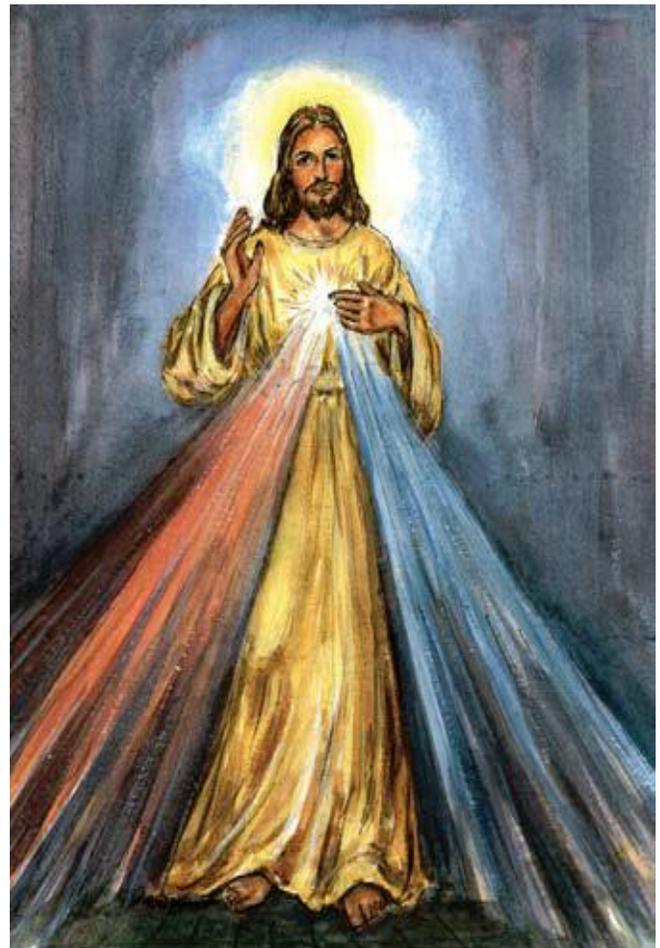

*Empujaban y empujaban para derribarme,
 pero el Señor me ayudó;*

Hoy, el domingo de la Divina Misericordia, es el día en que vemos el peor desastre, la muerte de Jesús, y descubrimos que el rebote, su lanzamiento a la gloria, eclipsa el colapso. La resurrección de Jesús significa que no importa la caída, no importa el colapso, nuestro Dios nos respalda. Comienza a creer en Jesús Cree en un Salvador que rescata, un Dios que salva. Qué paz perdemos a menudo, el dolor innecesario que soportamos, porque no recordamos nuestra fortaleza y nuestro coraje, la Misericordia que es nuestro rescate.

*El Señor es mi fuerza y mi energía,
 él es mi salvación.*

Are you looking for a way to consistently serve the parish? We are in great need of some volunteer help in the office doing some receptionist work. Our greatest need would be on Fridays. Duties include: answering phones, taking messages, assisting parishioners with Mass Intentions, directing people to appropriate coordinators, and selling candles. This is NOT a paid position, but some consistent help would enhance our ability to serve our parishioners in a more timely and effective manner.
