ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | JUNE 17, 2018
UNDÉCIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO | 17 DE JUNIO DE 2018

They that are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God. —Psalm 92:14
Plantados en la casa del Señor, en medio de sus atrios los justos darán flores. — Salmo 92(91):14

The Pastor's Corner

Recently I read a quote from Harmon Killebrew recounting his childhood:

“My father used to play with my brother and me in the yard. Mother would come out and say, ‘You’re tearing up the grass.’ ‘We’re not raising grass,’ Dad would reply. ‘We’re raising boys.’”

When we are aspiring to who we’ll become when we’re young, we may not yet recognize that our greatest challenge and greatest meaning will come from offspring we haven’t even met yet. And in a truly human fashion, the role of fatherhood, like motherhood, always calls us further: it never becomes a box you can check off your list. Like Reed Markham said: “Being a great father is like shaving. No matter how good you shaved today, you have to do it again tomorrow.”

As we celebrate our fathers today, and our sharing in the role of fatherhood, the men of our parish should hear with confidence today’s words from Saint Paul: “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.” The reckoning measured out to us will above all be measured from our sacrifice. To have been a father, and to have lived for wife and children, is to enter with assurance into the halls of achievement.

El Rincón del Pastor

Recientemente leí una frase de Harmon Killebrew que relata su infancia:

"Mi padre solía jugar con mi hermano y conmigo en el patio. Mi madre salía y decía: 'Estás destrozando el césped'. 'No estamos criando césped', papá respondía. 'Estamos criando niños' ".

Cuando aspiramos a ser lo que nos convertiremos cuando somos jóvenes, es posible que aún no reconozcamos que nuestro mayor desafío y mayor significado vendrá de una descendencia que aún no hemos conocido. Y de una manera verdaderamente humana, el papel de la paternidad, como la maternidad, siempre nos llama a dar más: es una tarea que nunca se puede acabar. Reed Markham dijo: "Ser un gran padre es como afeitarse. No importa cuán bueno te afeitaste hoy, tienes que volver a hacerlo mañana ".

Al celebrar el día del Padre hoy, y compartir el papel de paternidad, los hombres de nuestra parroquia deben escuchar con confianza las palabras de hoy de San Pablo: "¡Porque todos tendremos que comparecer ante el tribunal de Cristo, para recibir el premio o el castigo por lo que hayamos hecho en esta vida." Todo será medido dependiendo el sacrificio que ábamos echo. Haber sido padre, y haber vivido para esposa e hijos, es entrar con seguridad en los pasillos del éxito.

FAITH FORMATION

In the Atrium

Thank you for your prayers! Last week we held a 4-day retreat for several of our children in the atrium. It is a very special time to draw closer to Jesus, especially in the Blessed Sacrament. Congratulations to our First Communion recipients: Dario, Lily, and Sabian!!

At Pentecost several weeks ago, it marked the great gift of the Holy Spirit to those God the Father calls to be his own. Perhaps you can think of someone who longs to have a closer relationship with our Heavenly Father. Can you plant the seeds of hope as you speak of our Father's loving care and his everlasting promises fulfilled in the sending of his Son, and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit? Ask about the RCIA inquiry sessions for those who are not baptized, are of other faiths, or are adult Catholics who were not Confirmed by contacting Jennifer Hackney, jhackney@stisidore-yubacity.org 673-1573
