STRENGTH AGAINST TEMPTATION

The first Sunday of the season of Lent always includes a Gospel account of the temptation of the Lord Jesus in the desert by the devil. This year, the story is set against the backdrop of the first reading from Genesis, which recounts the very first temptation by the devil. That story is set in a garden of delight. The Gospel story is set in the desert. As believers, we know that temptation comes our way in our own gardens of delight as well as the deserts of our lives. As Lent begins, our attention is drawn to that temptation within each of us to become like God—we want control, power, and answers to all of life's difficult questions. As communities of faith, we are given this season of repentance so that we can join our hearts with others on the difficult journey of conversion. We look to God and to one another for strength against temptation.

FORTALEZA ANTE LA TENTACIÓN

El primer domingo del tiempo de Cuaresma siempre incluye el relato evangélico de la tentación del Señor Jesús en el desierto por el diablo. Este año tiene como trasfondo la primera lectura de Génesis, en la que se narra la primera tentación del diablo que ocurre en el jardín del Edén. El relato del Evangelio transcurre en el desierto. Los creyentes sabemos que la tentación viene tanto en nuestros propios jardines como en los desiertos de nuestra vida. La Cuaresma comienza, y nuestra atención se dirige a esa tentación dentro de nosotros de hacernos como Dios —queremos control, poder y respuesta a todas las difíciles preguntas de la vida. A nuestras comunidades de fe se les ofrece este tiempo de arrepentimiento para que podamos unir nuestro corazón al de otros en el difícil camino de la conversión. Nos volvemos a Dios y hacia los demás buscando fortaleza ante la tentación.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Cosieron, pues, unas hojas de higuera, y se hicieron unos taparrabos. (Génesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7).

Ash Wednesday launched us into this new season of grace. I was struck by the words of the opening prayer at our liturgy that day: "Grant, O Lord, that we may begin with holy fasting this campaign of Christian service, so that, as we take up battle against spiritual evils, we may be armed with weapons of self-restraint."

Campaign. Battle. Armed. Weapons. The Church clearly sees these 40 days as a time of challenge, as a time of struggle, but ultimately as a time of victory.

To go to war entails an acceptance of the suffering combat will bring. The three primary weapons the Church gives us for this season, which Jesus gave us in the Gospel Ash Wednesday, each include the element of suffering. Prayer, fasting and almsgiving, to use an older term, bring mortification.

Prayer involves struggle primarily as our hyper brains are restrained from running after their normal distractions. In spending time in prayer, we deliberately put down our familiar pacifiers, whether cell phones or TV, the internet or the evening broadcast, and put ourselves, as it were, in a timeout where God might be able to break in.

Fasting even more explicitly is self-restraint, struggle, because our fasts are deliberately chosen to be unpleasant. Whether the earlier wakeup, the turning off your digital screens, the caffeine or alcohol ban, or going vegetarian for 40 days, the fast you choose should rub you the wrong way each day, be something that bothers you as that daily reminder we're in a distinctive season.

Almsgiving is a term our modern culture has forgotten, but Jesus recognized that his disciples are both called to be aware of the needs of others, and actively to engage in responding to those trials. The prophets of the Old Testament recognize there's more value in seeing a brother's suffering, and responding to it, than through fasting generating some little affliction of our own. Far more powerful is beginning to truly live, seeing and responding to what's around us, than continuing in our self-imposed shadow of ignoring our neighbor. We are, in answer to Cain's question, our brother's keeper. Our response to others could be the classic giving of alms, where our financial resources are freely given to transform someone's life, or in an authentically lived way, could involve us stepping out to assist, particularly by joining our parish outreaches like Saint Vincent de Paul.

We are going to war. Jesus in our Gospel today is able to overthrow our enemy who seeks our destruction, Satan the deceiver. Through our taking up of this campaign's weapons, we win victory not only for ourselves, but for our many loved ones and the suffering of our world, introducing a grace from heaven that drives back our enemy's malice.

El miércoles de ceniza es el lanzamiento a esta nueva temporada de gracia. Me sorprendieron las palabras de la oración de apertura de nuestra liturgia ese día: "Concede, oh Señor, que comencemos con el ayuno santo esta temporada de servicio cristiano, para que, al luchar contra los males espirituales, podamos estar armados con armas de autocontrol."

Campana. Batalla. Armado. Armas. La Iglesia ve claramente estos 40 días como un tiempo de desafío, como un tiempo de lucha, pero finalmente como un tiempo de victoria.

Ir a la guerra implica aceptación al sufrimiento que traerá el combate. Las tres armas primarias que la Iglesia nos da para esta temporada, las cuales Jesús nos dio en el Evangelio del Miércoles de Ceniza, cada una incluye el elemento del sufrimiento. Oración, ayuno y limosna, para usar un término más antiguo, traer flagelación.

La oración implica la lucha sobre todo porque nuestros cerebros hiperactivos se refrenan de funcionar después de sus distracciones normales. Al pasar tiempo en la oración, deliberadamente dejamos caer nuestros chupones, ya sea teléfonos celulares o TV, Internet o la emisión nocturna, y nos ponemos, por así decirlo, en un tiempo de espera en el que Dios podría entrar.

Ayunar explícitamente es autocontrol, es un lucha, porque nuestros ayunos son elegidos deliberadamente para ser desagradables. Ya sea que tengamos que despertar mas temprano, el apagar las pantallas digitales, la prohibición de cafeína o alcohol, o ser vegetariano durante los 40 días, el ayuno que elijamos debe molestarnos cada día, para que esa molestia sea nuestro recordatorio diario de que estamos En una temporada distintiva.

Limosna, es un término que nuestra cultura moderna ha olvidado, pero Jesús reconoció que sus discípulos fueron llamados a ser conscientes de las necesidades de otros, y a la misma vez activamente responder a esas pruebas. Los profetas del Antiguo Testamento reconocen que hay más valor en ver el sufrimiento de un hermano, y responder a él, que a través del ayuno generando alguna pequeña aflicción propia. Mucho más poderoso es comenzar a vivir verdaderamente, viendo y respondiendo a lo que está a nuestro alrededor, que continuar en nuestra sombra auto-impuesta de ignorar a nuestro prójimo. En respuesta a la pregunta de Caín, somos el guardián de nuestro hermano. Nuestra respuesta a los demás podría ser la entrega clásica de limosnas, en donde nuestros recursos financieros se dan libremente para transformar la vida de alguien, o de una manera auténticamente vivida, podría involucrarnos para asistir, particularmente en los ministerios de nuestras parroquias como San Vicente de Paúl

Vamos a la guerra. Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy es capaz de derrocar al enemigo que busca nuestra destrucción, Satanás el embustero. A través de nuestra toma de armas en esta temporada, ganamos la victoria no sólo para nosotros mismos, sino para nuestros muchos seres queridos y el sufrimiento de nuestro mundo, la introducción de una gracia del cielo que aleja la maldad del enemigo.

The Stations of the Cross

We will have Stations of the Cross every Friday evening except March 17TH, when we will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation. English Stations of the Cross will begin at 6:00 PM and Spanish Stations of the Cross at 7:00 PM. This year we will be having Soup and Bread served by various Parish ministries at 6:30 PM between the two Stations of the Cross. We are hoping this will provide the opportunity to join together as a parish community to share a simple meal on the Fridays of Lent.

THANK YOU to the Filipino Ministry, St. Isidore Catholic Moms group, Knights of Columbus, Guadalupanas, and Young Ladies Institute (YLI) for your generosity in providing these meals to our parishioners!

Mary's Way of the Cross, sponsored by the YLI, will be Friday April 7th at 6p.m.

Don't forget...25% of what you give is returned to our parish to assist people in our community who need help.

For all who have given generously to the Annual Catholic Appeal...for those who are still prayerfully considering what they can give... and for all those who will benefit from the funds raised.

For our sisters and brothers we pray...

Lord, hear our prayer.

Campaña Católica Anual

El próximo fin de semana tendremos la oportunidad de ser Cristo para los demás a través de obras de misericordia. ¿Cómo ayudamos a una familia en necesidad? ¿Cómo podemos ayudar mejor al hombre o a la mujer que nos encontramos a lo largo de la carretera pidiendo dinero? ¿Pasamos de largo? ¿Nos sentimos culpables? ¿Nos preguntamos cómo gastaran el dinero que les damos? Como católicos en la Diócesis de Sacramento, tenemos una manera de ayudar a aquellos que realmente los necesitan. Al hacer una generosa donación a la Campaña Católica Anual, usted puede vivir el mensaje del Evangelio y proveer asistencia. El año pasado 832 de nuestros feligreses contribuyeron $ 90,039 a esta apelación. Nuestra parroquia recibió el 25% para poder ayudar a las personas que llegaron a nuestra parroquia en busca de ayuda. La mitad de los fondos fueron distribuidos a San Vicente de Paúl y la otra mitad a nuestra escuela parroquial. Las obras caritativas de la Iglesia, ya sea en programas de servicio social católicos o en ministerios parroquiales, dependen de todos nosotros. Cada uno de nuestros regalos, no importa la cantidad, realmente hace una diferencia en la vida de alguien. Por favor, considere en oración lo que puede donar.

Oracion de los Fieles

Por la Iglesia ... el Pueblo de Dios en la Diócesis de Sacramento ... Que consideremos todo lo que Dios tan generosamente nos ha dado, y abra nuestros corazones al considerar nuestra participación en la próxima Campaña Católica Anual. .

Por nuestras hermanas y hermanos oremos al señor ... Escúchanos padre.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In recent years, there has been a resurgence of interest in various forms of adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Some people suggest that this recovers an ancient tradition in the church, when in fact the practice belongs to a later time. The custom of showing the consecrated host to the people, encased in a vessel called a monstrance, developed in a period of history when even very pious people received Communion only rarely. The opportunity to see the host raised high above the head of the priest at Mass, or to see the host exposed outside of Mass, was thought by many to be a form of spiritual Communion. Without question, our Catholic practice of reserving the consecrated host both for adoration and Communion of the sick and dying is a cherished tradition. Over the next few weeks, we'll look at how these traditions developed and how the Church envisions reservation and adoration today. We do this by the light of the liturgical reforms that have restored a heightened appreciation for how receiving the Body and Blood of Christ is central to our worship. "Perpetual Adoration," "Reservation," "Benediction," and "Reposition" are all part of the Catholic vocabulary. Often the terms are misused, and a tangled history—as well as widely varying practices in our parishes—adds to the confusion. Many Catholics today have never participated in Benediction, or even spent time in adoration on Holy Thursday night. There's plenty of interesting history, much of it surprising and challenging, and we will do our best to inform you along the way.—Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Luego de una larga peregrinación, una imagen de Cristo llegó al pueblo de Esquipulas, Guatemala, el 9 de marzo de 1595. Dicha imagen negra de Cristo crucificado fue esculpida por Quirio Cataño a pedido de los habitantes del pueblo recién evangelizado.

En 1595, la recién esculpida estatua de Cristo iba rumbo a su destino, pero por cada pueblo que pasaba la gente pedía que lo dejaran una noche para que los fieles pudieran admirarla y rendirle culto a Cristo. Por tanto, la imagen tardó varios meses en llegar a su destino final.

Recientemente, una réplica del Cristo Negro de Esquipulas también tuvo problemas en llegar a su destino. Dicha copia, hecha en Guatemala para la comunidad guatemalteca de Los Ángeles, California, tuvo problemas al cruzar la frontera entre México y Estados Unidos, ya que las autoridades de inmigración no permitieron pasarla por falta de documentos. Los fieles no tuvieron otra opción que pasarla, a precio de "mordidas" y a escondidas, por lo cual se le llama el Cristo "Mojado" de Esquipulas. Cristo tuvo que entrar en este país como muchos inmigrantes latinos, a escondidas.—Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.
