

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." - Mk 14:23-25

Pastor's Corner

He is here!

On this Sunday of Corpus Christi, we celebrate the truth at the heart of our Catholic Faith. This truth is that God exists. And that he has entered into our world. And that having died for us and risen again, he has not left us.

He is here.

As Catholics, we believe that the Second Person of the Trinity is fully and personally present with us in the Eucharist. As our terminology clarifies, in the Eucharist, Jesus is with us in his body and blood, soul and divinity. What our vocabulary is attempting to communicate is that Jesus is not diminished when he encounters us in communion, but that he is here completely.

What about another word: condescension? In everyday conversation, that is a bad thing. It means talking down at someone. But in Eucharistic theology, the same word has a very different meaning. We say Jesus condescends to be with us, which means leaping downward to meet us where we are, and becoming even littler than we are so that we're not apprehensive about approaching him.

Jesus is here. He wants to connect with us, be with us, support us and strengthen us. On today's celebration of Corpus Christi, we can wake up to this truth, and stop fighting to get through each day on our own. Jesus is here. For a Catholic, every moment is meant to be lived in strength and love.

He is here.

Rincón Del Pastor

¡Él está aquí!

En este Domingo de Corpus Christi, celebramos la verdad en el corazón de nuestra fe Católica. Esta verdad es que Dios existe. Y que ha entrado en nuestro mundo. Y que, habiendo muerto por nosotros y resucitado, no nos ha dejado.

Él está aquí.

Como Católicos, creemos que la Segunda Persona de la Trinidad está plena y personalmente presente con nosotros en la Eucaristía. Como aclara nuestra terminología, en la Eucaristía, Jesús está con nosotros en Su cuerpo y sangre, alma y divinidad. Lo que nuestro vocabulario intenta comunicar es que Jesús no disminuye cuando nos encuentra en comunión, sino que está aquí por completo.

¿Qué hay de otra palabra: condescendencia? En la conversación diaria, eso es algo malo. Significa hablar mal de alguien. Pero en la Teología Eucarística, la misma palabra tiene un significado muy diferente. Decimos que Jesús condesciende a estar con nosotros, lo que significa saltar hacia abajo para encontrarnos donde estamos, y volvernos aún más pequeños de lo que somos para no tener miedo de acercarnos a Él.

Jesús está aquí. Quiere conectarse con nosotros, estar con nosotros, apoyarnos y fortalecernos. En la celebración de Corpus Christi de hoy, podemos despertar a esta verdad y dejar de luchar para pasar cada día por nuestra cuenta. Jesús está aquí. Para un Católico, cada momento está destinado a ser vivido con fuerza y amor.

Él está aquí.

1 Corinthians 12:12

"As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ."

Do you know you are the Body of Christ? YES, you.

If you are reading this, you are NECESSARY to the body of Christ at St. Isidore's; you are NECESSARY to THIS body and this community. There are no unimportant members.

Our Return to Jesus retreat is an opportunity for us to meet as the whole body, a complete Church community, all of us together, and recommit ourselves to Christ and each other. To heal and grow TOGETHER as a body – to obtain His graces and seek His peace and protection.

Corinthians continues to say:

"Now the body is not a single part, but many. If a foot should say, 'because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body; it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. Or if an ear should say 'because I am not an eye I do not belong to the body,' it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?"

Do you see how necessary you are? You are a vital part of the body of Christ and your presence at the Return to Jesus Retreat would not be the same without you.

We invite you to go to the parish website at stisidore-yubacity.org and register for either June 18-20 (Friday 6:00pm 18-Sunday 12:00pm) in English, or June 25-27 (Friday 6:00 25 – Sunday 12:00pm) in Spanish.

You are necessary! You Belong!

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

St. Clare of Assisi, Foundress of the Poor Clares of Perpetual Adoration, was a contemporary of St. Francis of Assisi in the 13th century, Umbria, Italy. She was by birth a noble lady, but relinquished all to live a Gospel life in the spirit of St. Francis. The Poor Clares desire, too, is to show forth in a lived communion, that the presence of Christ can be a reality in our world.

St Clare is often portrayed with the Blessed Sacrament and is known for her devotion to it. Her advice was:

Gaze,
Consider,
Contemplate,
Desire to imitate

Breaking this down, we can see a beautiful way to pray. This week we will consider...

Consider Him:

Having become aware of Jesus, we reflect on the reality of who He really is, as revealed to us in Scripture. Jesus came into the world to enter into our humanity fully. No matter what way we feel, there is something in Jesus' life that each of us can relate to. For instance, if we feel fearful, we recall Jesus' fear in Gethsemane, when He prayed, 'My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass me by' (Matthew 26:39). If we are burdened, we hear His invitation, 'Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest' (Matthew 11:28-29). If we are worried about the future, we can bear in mind Jesus' words, 'I am telling you not to worry about your life and what you are to eat, nor about your body and how you are to clothe it. Look at the birds in the sky. Are you not worth much more than they are?' (Matthew 6:25-26) Seeing afresh how Jesus works in people's lives, we can talk with Him about our life situation, and so form a relationship with Him.

ADORACIÓN EUCARÍSTICA

Santa Clara de Asís, fundadora de Las Clarisas Pobres de la Adoración Perpetua, fue contemporánea de San Francisco de Asís en el siglo 13. Santa Clara de Asís nació en una ciudad en Italia llamada Umbría, donde fue dama noble, pero al aceptar el Evangelio decidió vivir una vida con el mismo espíritu de San Francisco de Asís. Lo que Las Clarisas Pobres de la Adoración Perpetua quieren mostrar es que la presencia real de Nuestro Señor en la Eucaristía puede cambiar nuestras vidas completamente para estar en comunión íntima con Dios.

Por esto, las imágenes de Santa Clara comúnmente incluyen al Santísimo con ella y es muy reconocida como persona muy devota al Santísimo Sacramento. Unos de sus consejos más famosos es cuando dijo:

Mira,
Considera,
Contempla,
Desea imitar

Cuando analizamos la hermosura de estas palabras, nos da un gran consejo en cuestión de orar. Esta semana consideremos...

Considera Lo:

Cuando conocemos a Cristo, debemos reflejar en su verdadera persona, como es revelada en las escrituras. Jesús entró a este universo como hombre verdadero, y no importa lo que esté pasando en nuestras vidas, siempre hay algo en la vida de Jesús que nosotros podemos relacionarnos. Por ejemplo, si sentimos miedo, podemos recordar a nuestro Señor en Getsemaní, cuando ora "Padre mío, si es posible, pase de mí esta copa, pero que no sea como yo quiero, sino que se haga tu voluntad." (Mateo 26:39). Si sentimos cansancio y tristeza, recordamos sus palabras cuando dijo "vengan a mí todos que están cansados y agobiados, y yo les daré descanso." (Mateo 11:28). Si estamos reocupados sobre el futuro, podemos recordar las palabras de Jesús cuando dijo "por eso les digo: No se preocupen por su vida, qué comerán o beberán; ni por su cuerpo, cómo se vestirán. Fíjense en las aves del cielo. No vale usted mucho más que ellas?" (Mateo 6:25-26). Conociendo la manera que Jesús habla de nuestras vidas forma una paz en nuestras vidas y nos da el valor de acercarnos a Él, y confiar en el.

St. Isidore Church Prayer Blanket Ministry

After a long interruption due to Covid, Prayer Blankets are once again available at no charge at the parish office during regular office hours, Monday-Friday 9:00-5:00.

What is a Prayer Blanket?

They are small lap blankets that are sewn, quilted, knitted, or crocheted by group members, are prayed over by the makers, are blessed by the priests, and are given free of charge to people in need of prayer, love, comfort, and healing.

Who is eligible to receive a blanket?

Adults or children with a physical or emotional illness, living with a chronic condition or in treatment for a life-threatening illness, those experiencing a crisis such as the loss of a loved one, loss of job, relationship crisis, or military deployment.

How You Can Help:

- You can sew, knit, or crochet Prayer Blankets at home; creativity is encouraged. Most people work at home on their own time. You can make just one blanket or make many of them.
- Donate materials needed for construction of the blankets: fabric, yarn, or money. Currently, because we were unable to pass out blankets due to the pandemic, we have many blankets and don't need more materials.
- Hold the participants and recipients of the Ministry in prayer.

For more information or to donate materials, please call
Kathy Anderson (English) (530) 713-7022
Or Lupe Alcala (Spanish) (530) 844-7197
Thank you and God bless you.
