17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. - Jn 6:9, 11

PASTOR'S CORNER

A surprise blessing? When was the last time you received an unexpected gift? Perhaps the phone rang confirming you'd gotten the job. Or that your spouse made it through surgery. Or maybe years ago you walked into a coffee shop and that marvelous person was there whom you later married. Life does not always go as planned, and sometimes the unexpected can be a most extraordinary blessing.

This Sunday we embark on a remarkable five-week journey. We begin the sixth chapter of John, which we'll follow through mid-August. Today begins with a miracle, and over the next few weeks Jesus will explain to us what this miracle means.

And it is the most unexpected gift imaginable. As fresh as it was 2,000 years ago, we can imagine what it would have been like to have been one of the new followers of Jesus. On this day we would have been particularly hungry after listening to him out in a deserted place, and maybe frustrated with ourselves for having been so enthusiastic about following him that we forgot to bring food.

And when Jesus speaks to a young boy and blesses the boy's five loaves and two fish, we would have been amazed that Jesus gave us all food to eat.

But we wouldn't have realized that this was Jesus' preparation for his most amazing gift: he wants to feed us always, and he wants to feed us with food from heaven that will change us forever: himself.

Over these next few weeks John will lead us deeper into this unexpected gift in his sixth chapter, and we can discover more completely what an amazing blessing God wants to share with us today.

Rincón Del Pastor

¿Una bendición sorpresa? ¿Cuándo fue la última vez que recibiste un regalo inesperado? Quizás sonó el teléfono para confirmar que habías conseguido el trabajo. O que tu esposo/esposa sobrevivió su cirugía. O tal vez hace años entraste en una cafetería y allí estaba esa persona maravillosa con la que luego te casaste. La vida no siempre sale según lo planeado y, a veces, lo inesperado puede ser una bendición extraordinaria.

Este Domingo nos embarcamos en un extraordinario viaje de cinco semanas. Comenzamos el sexto capítulo de Juan, que seguiremos hasta mediados de Agosto. Hoy comienza con un milagro, y durante las próximas semanas Jesús nos explicará lo que significa este milagro.

Y es el regalo más inesperado que te puedas imaginar. Tan fresco como lo era hace 2,000 años, podemos imaginar cómo habría sido haber sido uno de los nuevos seguidores de Jesús. En este día habiéramos estado particularmente hambrientos después de escucharlo en un lugar desierto, y tal vez frustrados con nosotros mismos por haber estado tan entusiasmados por seguirlo que nos olvidamos de traer comida.

Y cuando Jesús le habla a un niño y bendice los cinco panes y los dos pescados del niño, nos habría sorprendido que Jesús nos diera toda la comida para comer.

Pero no nos habiéramos dado cuenta de que esta era la preparación de Jesús para Su regalo más asombroso: quiere alimentarnos siempre y quiere alimentarnos con comida del cielo que nos cambiará para siempre: Él mismo.

Durante las próximas semanas, Juan nos conducirá más profundamente en este regalo inesperado en su sexto capítulo, y podremos descubrir más completamente la maravillosa bendición que Dios quiere compartir con nosotros hoy.

GOD MULTIPLIES WHAT WE SURRENDER TO HIM

For Sunday, July 25, 2021

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

2 Kings 4:42-44

Ephesians 4:1-6

John 6:1-15

What is God calling me to give? Where does He want to send me to find the hungry and the suffering? Who needs to hear me witness about my faith? What would it take for me to really surrender my time, treasure and talents to His service?

It does not take much to do good, to relieve suffering, or to show love. Consider the example of St. Teresa of Calcutta. When she began her ministry among the poor, she had nothing. She started her order with no master plan or endowment. Rather, she walked the streets, feeding the hungry, and caring for the sick with whatever resources she could muster. She gave the little she had, and through her generosity and holiness, she touched hearts and changed lives.

One day, she came upon a homeless man dying in the gutter. With the help of some men, she brought him to her home. There she washed him, prepared a small meal for him, and prayed. For three hours she did nothing but sit with him. He looked up at her and said, "My whole life I have been treated like an animal, now I will die like an angel." She was not able to give him much — just her time and her love — but it meant that, in his final hours on earth, instead of dying in the streets, he could die in the arms of a saint.

In the Gospels, Jesus never turns away those in need. Whether they have a question, whether they need healing or whether they are hungry, He gives them what He has, and it never fails to satisfy. Today's story about the multiplication of the loaves and fish is a case in point. The five barley loaves and two fish would not have been enough to feed the apostles, never mind a throng of five thousand. Yet Jesus refused to keep the food to Himself. Rather He took it, blessed it and gave it away. That small act of generosity was enough to satisfy a hungry mass of people with plenty left over.

It is a spiritual law that God uses those who have the least ability to do His work. We often say, "If you want to get something done, ask a busy person." Well, when God wants to get something done, He asks a poor person. By choosing those who are weak, deprived and even sinful, our Heavenly Father makes it clear that it is He who is at work. Otherwise, we might chalk the good deeds up to the cleverness or resourcefulness of those who do them rather than the God who makes all things possible.

God wants to do great things in our families, parishes, and communities. He wants to feed the hungry, He wants to console the suffering and He wants to change hardened hearts. But He needs us to help Him. He needs us to give even when we think we have too little, to work even when we feel exhausted, and to open our mouths even when we think we have nothing to say. We need to take risks as St. Teresa of Calcutta did by ministering to those dying on the streets and as the boy in the Gospel did who gave his basket of food to Jesus. When we do that, when we step outside our comfort zone in faith, God will take care of the rest.

Douglas Sousa, STL

PRAYER

Dear Jesus,
Help us to spread your fragrance wherever we go.
Flood our souls with your Spirit and Life.
Penetrate and possess our whole being so utterly
That our lives may only be a radiance of yours.
Shine through us and be so in us That every soul
we come in contact with. May feel your presence in our souls. Let them look up, and see no longer us But you, Jesus. Stay with us and then we shall begin To shine as you shine, So to shine as to be a light to others. The light, O Jesus, will be all from you; None of it will be ours.
It will be you, shining on others through us.
Let us thus praise you in the way you love best
By shining on those around us.
Let us preach you without preaching,
Not by words but by example,
By the catching force,
The sympathetic influence of what we do,
The evident fullness of the love our hearts bear for you.
Amen.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It's All in the Basket

St. Therese of Lisieux made a point of going the extra mile in kindness towards those people who really got under her skin. It was part of her own brand of Everyday Stewardship — thanking God for all His creation, even the parts with which, in her own humanness, she struggled to cope.

I think about this a lot when I challenge myself to give thanks for things that bother me and people who challenge me. When I do this, I envision Christ giving thanks over those insufficient loaves. How many of us would see that paltry little basket and kick a rock in frustration because we can't feed all our people? "You didn't give me enough, Lord! You didn't give me enough patience, enough money, enough creativity, enough stamina to be a good steward. If you had given me more, I could also give more!"

In those moments of despair, we need to take a good look at the life God has given us. We need to look at the trials and the challenges and the shortcomings. The hopes that didn't pan out, the disappointments that keep cropping up. Somewhere therein lies what we need to be the steward God asks us to be, just as St. Therese's own stewardship was defined by the people she simply couldn't stand.

God does not give us all we want. He does not give us all we ask for. He does us one better: He gives us all we need. It's all in the basket.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA: RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Está todo en la canasta

Santa Teresa de Lisieux hizo hincapié por hacer un esfuerzo adicional en amabilidad hacia aquellas personas que realmente le molestaban. Era parte de su propia marca de corresponsabilidad diaria: agradecer a Dios por toda Su creación, incluso las partes que, en su propia humanidad, luchaba por afrontar.

Pienso mucho en esto cuando me desafío a mí mismo a dar gracias por las cosas que me molestan y las personas que me desafían. Cuando hago esto, me imagino a Cristo dando gracias por esos panes insuficientes. ¿Cuántos de nosotros veríamos esa canasta insignificante y patearíamos una piedra en frustración porque no podemos alimentar a toda nuestra gente? "¡No me diste suficiente, Señor! No me diste suficiente paciencia, suficiente dinero, suficiente creatividad, suficiente resistencia para ser un buen corresponsable. ¡Si me hubieras dado más, yo también podría dar más!"

En esos momentos de desesperación, debemos echar un buen vistazo a la vida que Dios nos ha dado. Necesitamos mirar las pruebas, los desafíos y las deficiencias. Las esperanzas que no dieron resultado, las decepciones que siguen apareciendo. En algún lugar ahí radica lo que necesitamos para ser el corresponsable que Dios nos pide que seamos, así como la propia corresponsabilidad de Santa Teresa fue definida por las personas que ella simplemente no podía soportar.

Dios no nos da todo lo que queremos. No nos da todo lo que pedimos. Hace algo mejor: nos da todo lo que necesitamos. Está todo en la canasta.

Life and Death

An unborn baby has a measurable heartbeat at twenty- one days and brainwaves at forty days - --- long before the earliest abortions.

What do you call it when there is no longer a heartbeat or brainwaves? Death!

What do you call it when there is a heartbeat and brainwaves? Life!

So, what does abortion do?

Pro -Life Articles

The "Fetus"

For many years, their most significant and basic argument has been that the so-called fetus is not a human life. They also claim that the question of when human life begins is uncertain and a religious issue.

However, medical textbooks and scientific reference works consistently agree that life begins at conception, when a genetically distinct individual is brought into existence. Some of the world's most prominent scientists and physicians testified to a U.S. Senate committee that human life begins at conception. At these same hearings, pro - abortionists, though invited to do so, failed to produce even a single expert witness who would testify that life begins at any point other than conception.

From the moment of conception, the unborn fetus is not simple, but very complex. The newly fertilized egg contains a staggering amount of genetic information, sufficient to control the individual's growth and development for an entire lifetime. It is scientifically inaccurate and untrue to say a fetus is not a human being simply because he or she is at an earlier stage of development than an infant.

The mother and the unborn child are two separate individuals and half the time, they are not even the same sex! The child has its own DNA, fingerprints and blood type, distinct from the mother's.

Pro Life Articles

Vida y Muerte

Los latidos del corazón de un bebe aun no nacido pueden ser contados a los veintiún día, y las ondas cerebrales a los cuarenta días de gestación, es decir mucho antes de los abortos realizados tempranamente.

Que sucede cuando el corazón deja de latir y las ondas cerebrales se paralizan? La persona está muerta.

Que sucede cuando existen latidos del corazón y las ondas cerebrales funcionan? La persona está viva.

En consecuencia, cual es el resultado del aborto?
Pro - Life Articles.

El "Fetus"

Por muchos años, el argumento más básico y significativo ha sido que el tal fetus no es un ser humano. También dicen que la pregunta acerca de cuando empieza la vida del ser humano no es incierta y que es un asunto religioso.

Sin embargo, los textos médicos y trabajos en referencias científicas constantemente están de acuerdo que la vida comienza en la concepción, cuando un individuo genéticamente marcado comienza a existir. En esta misma audiencia, invitados en favor del aborto, a pesar de que se les invitó a declarar, no les fue posible llevar un solo testigo experto que pudiera confirmar que la vida comienza en cualquier otro momento que no fuese en la concepción.

Desde el momento de la concepción, el fetus que no ha nacido, no es simple, pero muy complejo. El huevo que acaba de ser fertilizado contiene una enorme información genética, suficiente para controlar el crecimiento y el desarrollo del individuo durante toda su vida.

Es científicamente inapropiado e incierto decir que un fetus no es un ser humano simple - mente porque él o ella está en un período de desarrollo anterior a la infancia.

Estar dentro de algo no es igual que ser parte de algo. La madre y el bebé que no han nacido, son dos individuos por separado y muchas veces no son del mismo sexo. El niño tiene su propio ADN, huellas digitales y tipo de sangre, diferentes a los de la madre.
