19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die."

- Jn 6:48-50

PASTOR'S CORNER

What Jesus offers is amazing. The problem is today offers lot of amazing things. It seems Jesus can't compete.

Science says it can keep you from getting sick. Technology says it can entertain you endlessly. Politics says it's figured out good people from bad people and you need to pay attention right now.

In all the commotion Jesus offers us life. But that's not impressive. He adds that it's eternal life. But that is even more remote than all the insistent things today.

And today's offerings have gone from being just attractive and insistent to being belligerent and insistent. If you blink for a moment you discover bitterness, fury, anger, shouting and reviling demanding that you pay attention: this crisis in front of you is the biggest crisis yet.

Do the 2,000 year ago words of Jesus matter today? When he offers us life, and eternal life, was he aware of how loud our modern world would be?

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven," he tells us today, "whoever eats this bread will live forever." Bring to Jesus all the noise that has distracted you, and ask him if his heavenly gift can answer it. Can he bring you the peace your heart is looking for?

Rincón Del Pastor

Lo que Jesús ofrece es asombroso. El problema es que hoy ofrece muchas cosas asombrosas. Parece que Jesús no puede competir.

La ciencia dice que puede evitar que te enfermes. La tecnología dice que puede entretenerlo infinitamente. La política dice que ha descubierto a las buenas personas de las malas y es necesario prestar atención ahora mismo.

En toda la conmoción, Jesús nos ofrece la vida. Pero eso no es impresionante. Agrega que es la vida eterna. Pero eso es incluso más remoto que todas las cosas insistentes de hoy.

Y las ofertas de hoy han pasado de ser simplemente atractivas e insistentes a ser beligerantes e insistentes. Si parpadeas un momento, descubres amargura, furia, enfado, gritos y injurias que te exigen prestar atención: esta crisis que tienes frente a ti es la más grande hasta ahora.

¿Importan hoy las palabras de Jesús de hace 2000 años? Cuando nos ofrece la vida y la vida eterna, ¿estaba consciente de lo ruidoso que sería nuestro mundo moderno?

“Yo soy el pan vivo que descendió del cielo,” nos dice hoy, “el que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre.” Lleva a Jesús todo el ruido que te ha distraído y pregúntale si su don celestial puede responder. ¿Puede traerte la paz que tu corazón está buscando?
