22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile." - Mk 7:14-15

PASTOR'S CORNER

After an extraordinary five week journey through John chapter 6, Jesus' powerful presentation of the gift of himself in the Eucharist, we return again to the gospel of this year, Mark, now in chapter 7. We'll continue in Mark till the end of the liturgical year in November with the Solemnity of Christ the King.

John 6 revealed how transformative Jesus' words can be. He is not just reaffirming or clarifying human truths, he is introducing supernatural power and presence. With his teaching on the Eucharist, he stuns us with a new inbreaking of love and renewal from heaven.

Today Mark continues to share words from Jesus. Here as well they bear power, here as well they give us his instruction. And just like last week many in the Gospel rejected Jesus' teaching on the Eucharist, today many will reject Jesus' teaching and commandments.

"The things that come out from within", Jesus warns us, "are what defile . . . evil thoughts, unchastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, malice . . ." He lists what is within us and tells us we have to repudiate these things to follow him.

Here each of us have to choose whether to draw near to Jesus or to remain close to what is in our own heart. To accept his word is to feel what is within us being ripped out. It is to be diminished because we are not adequate, or even good, in ourselves. Paul in our second reading affirms that we're going to have to be knocked down if we want to be built up: "Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls."

Can you accept a word from God that dismantles you? Do you trust him enough to rely more on his commandments than on your own way of thinking?

Vespers in the Church, Sunday at 5:00 PM

Rincón Del Pastor

Después de un viaje extraordinario de cinco semanas a través de Juan capítulo 6, la poderosa presentación de Jesús del don de sí mismo en la Eucaristía, regresamos nuevamente al evangelio de este año, Marcos, ahora en el capítulo 7. Continuaremos en Marcos hasta el final del año litúrgico en Noviembre con la Solemnidad de Cristo Rey.

Juan 6 reveló cuán transformadoras pueden ser las palabras de Jesús. No solo está reafirmando o aclarando las verdades humanas, está introduciendo poder y presencia sobrenaturales. Con su enseñanza sobre la Eucaristía, nos aturde con una nueva irrupción de amor y renovación del cielo.

Hoy, Marcos continúa compartiendo palabras de Jesús. Aquí también tienen poder, aquí también nos dan su instrucción. Y al igual que la semana pasada muchos en el Evangelio rechazaron las enseñanzas de Jesús sobre la Eucaristía, hoy muchos rechazarán las enseñanzas y los mandamientos de Jesús.

“Lo que sale de dentro,” nos advierte Jesús, “es lo que contamina. . . malos pensamientos, falta de castidad, hurto, asesinato, adulterio, codicia, malicia..” Enumera lo que hay dentro de nosotros y nos dice que tenemos que repudiar estas cosas para seguirlo.

Aquí cada uno de nosotros tiene que elegir si acercarse a Jesús o permanecer cerca de lo que está en su propio corazón. Aceptar su palabra es sentir que lo que está dentro de nosotros está siendo arrancado. Debe ser disminuido porque no somos adecuados, o incluso buenos, en nosotros mismos. Pablo en nuestra segunda lectura afirma que vamos a tener que ser derribados si queremos ser edificados: "Acojan con humildad la palabra que ha sido plantada en ustedes y que puede salvar sus almas."

¿Puedes aceptar una palabra de Dios que te desmantele? ¿Confías en él lo suficiente como para confiar más en sus mandamientos que en tu propia forma de pensar?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Give it all Back

Pop culture has given us a unique idea of the term justice. Justice, we often think, is about taking. Taking what's owed. Taking revenge. Taking what we deserve. This worldview tends to make mincemeat of our Catholic social teachings. Seeking the good of the poor, a call to community and participation, solidarity — on the face of it, in a society where everything must be earned and we are encouraged to hoard for ourselves whatever success we can achieve, these principles look a lot like highway robbery.

But when you remember the presence of an omnipotent, all-loving and all-merciful God, it turns our gunslinging sense of justice on its head. For how does justice inhabit the same universe as a God who is so quick to give and indeed to forgive?

Well, very easily, when we remember Who exactly is the source of every good and perfect thing in this world. There is no law that cannot be traced back to the Word. And the Word saves our souls.

Is that justice? No, that is a gift. It is the reckless, indulgent gift of a father whose love is greater than His anger. What is justice in the Biblical sense?

The answer is simple. Look at your life. See the hours in your day? See your spouse, your kids, your grandkids? See the house they live in, the money in your wallet, the food in your fridge, the breath in your lungs?

Calling it all your own, refusing to share any of it — that's robbery. Giving it all back to the One who gave it to you — that's justice.

Sharing Your Faith

Question:

My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid to. How do I share my faith?

Answer:

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you!
