23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"—that is, "Be opened!" - Mk 7:32-34

PASTOR'S CORNER

What were the best years of your life? What were the worst years?

For a lot of us high school and college are the most vivid years of our story, whether with highlights or with devastation. So many of the experiences of these years guide the course of our adult years.

Some of the impact has to do with our age, some has to do with our family, but a large part has to do with our school environment. Where were we in those critical years?

Here at Saint Isidore Parish we want to make high school the best years of your child's life. Knowing how your son or daughter will live as an adult, parent, and grandparent has so much to do with these irreplaceable moments, we can change the future.

Did you know we are taking steps to launch a Catholic High School next fall? We have an incredible opportunity to build on a new yet ancient model of education that allows us to work at the local scale. Rather than requiring tens of millions of dollars to begin a school for thousands of students, we can work at the local level with 20, 40, 100 students.

This new approach comes to us through a program called the Chesterton Academy. To learn more about this exciting opportunity we will have information sessions next week after the Sunday Masses. Join us on September 12th to discover how a dynamic and Faith filled education can transform the lives of our young people.

THE PARISH OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED ON MONDAY FOR LABOR DAY.

Rincón Del Pastor

¿Cuáles fueron los mejores años de tu vida? ¿Cuáles fueron los peores años?

Para muchos de nosotros, la high school y la universidad son los años más vívidos de nuestra historia, ya sea con momentos destacados o con devastación. Muchas de las experiencias de estos años guían el curso de nuestra adultez.

Parte del impacto tiene que ver con nuestra edad, parte tiene que ver con nuestra familia, pero una gran parte tiene que ver con nuestro entorno escolar. ¿Dónde estábamos en esos años críticos?

Aquí en la parroquia de San Isidro queremos que la high school sea los mejores años de la vida de su hijo. Saber cómo vivirá su hijo o hija como adulto, padre y abuelo tiene mucho que ver con estos momentos irremplazables, podemos cambiar el futuro.

¿Sabía que estamos tomando medidas para lanzar una high school Católica el próximo otoño? Tenemos una oportunidad increíble de construir sobre un modelo nuevo pero antiguo a la vez de educación que nos permite trabajar a escala local. En lugar de requerir decenas de millones de dólares para comenzar una escuela para miles de estudiantes, podemos trabajar a nivel local con 20, 40, 100 estudiantes.

Este nuevo enfoque nos llega a través de un programa llamado Chesterton Academy. Para obtener más información sobre esta emocionante oportunidad, tendremos sesiones de información la próxima semana después de las Misas Dominicales. Únase a nosotros el 12 de Septiembre para descubrir cómo una educación dinámica y llena de fe puede transformar la vida de nuestros jóvenes.

Ministry Days

Join us for MINISTRY DAYS 2021 on September 24 and 25 at St. Francis High School, a day to reconnect with disciples from all around the Diocese, share our experiences in this uncertain time, equip ourselves for the road ahead and receive God's protection as we JOURNEY WITH JOSEPH... Pope Francis asks us to follow the example of St. Joseph in this uncertain time. St. Joseph didn't have much control over the situation he found himself in, but he humbly accepted God's plan. We, like St. Joseph, are called to accept our current situation as part of God's loving plan for us, to tenderly accompany and collaborate with those we encounter, and move forward creatively and courageously in our ministry efforts.

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 35:4-7a

James 2:1-5

Mark 7:31-37

For over 80 years, Alcoholics Anonymous has helped people overcome addictions to alcohol, drugs, and other destructive behaviors. When people working the program achieve a certain level of serenity and healing, they learn that it is not enough to simply stop drinking or using drugs. If they are to know true and lasting healing, they cannot keep their stories to themselves. They have to reach out to others with the good news that their addictions can be overcome. It is part of the healing process itself to help bring others to experience healing in their own lives.

The same is true with those who are healed by Jesus. They are so overcome with joy after their encounter with him that they have to tell everyone about it. It is interesting that throughout the Gospel of Mark, Jesus commands people not to tell anyone who he is and what he has done for them. It seems strange to us that Jesus would want to hide his identity, but he needed it to be clear that he was not a political Messiah who would liberate them from Roman rule, but a suffering servant who would free them from the tyranny of sin. Nonetheless, those whom Jesus heals cannot help but go around telling everyone they meet about the powerful prophet who restored them to health. For them, telling the story of Jesus' healing power is part of the healing process itself.

This Sunday's gospel is no different. Jesus opens the ears of a deaf man and heals his speech impediment. Throughout his whole life he was unable to hear the sounds all around him. Now the first voice he hears is that of Jesus commanding his ears to be opened. During his life he probably spoke only when necessary because he was ashamed of his speech impediment. Now, with his tongue loosened, he cannot help but tell everyone about the miracle that God performed in his life. His first clear words were praise of God for the gift of healing he received in Jesus. How could he now be expected to keep silent about the great work God performed in his life?

Jesus continues to be in our midst exercising his healing powers. Though it is rare, it still happens that people are cured of diseases or physical impairments through the power of prayer. Most often, however, the healings we experience through faith are of an emotional or spiritual nature. Because of our own prayers or those of others, we may find ourselves finally able to forgive someone who has hurt us. Or we may find the ability to let go of a burden of anger which we have been carrying for years. Or we may simply be overcome with a sense of God's infinite mercy and believe that our sins have been forgiven. In one way or another, each of us has been touched by Jesus and healed. Now it is up to us to tell others about it so that they too may meet Jesus, the healer. If we want to hold on to the healing we have received, and if we want it to deepen in our lives, we must spread the good news about what Jesus has done for us.

PRAYER

God, our Father,
You sent your only Son, Jesus, on earth
To heal a broken-hearted and wounded world.
He had compassion on those
Who called on him for help and healing.
He touched the sick and guilt-laden,
And they walked away
In health and freedom of Spirit.
Visit us now with his saving power
So that we too may be released
In mind and body
To praise your healing grace
Through Christ our Lord. Amen
(Michael Buckley in The Catholic Prayer Book)

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Choosing Deafness

If you're a parent, you know that hearing evaluations are usually done at a child's annual physical exam starting around age four. The little person gets hoisted up onto the exam table, fitted with a pair of special headphones, and then they need raise their hand when they hear a sound.

I bet all of us parents who have sat through one of these tests with a preschooler — especially a particularly strong-willed one — have experienced a moment where we ask ourselves: I wonder if there's something wrong with her hearing. Is that why she doesn't listen to me? 'Come here, put on your shoes, pick up your toys, finish your carrots, don't touch that' — she isn't being naughty, she just can't hear it!

And then that moment, for those of us whose kids passed the hearing test with flying colors, comes crashing down into a realization that, yep, they can hear just fine. They're just choosing deafness.

But how can we really get mad when we remember that we do the same thing to God day in and day out? I often wonder if God, sitting in His Heaven, tires of calling to us in the same way young parents tire of calling out unheeded directions to their small children. Help that person. Hear My voice. Open your heart. Give of yourself here. Talk to Me. What is the call He wishes you to hear today? Can you hear it? Are you listening? — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Catholic Teaching on Labor

Question:

As we celebrate Labor Day, can you tell me about Catholic teaching regarding labor?

Answer:

One of the most important principles of Catholic social teaching is the dignity of work and the rights of workers. Four encyclicals address this foundational social teaching: Rerum Novarum (1891) by Leo XIII, Quadragesimo Anno (1931) by Pius XI, Laborem Exercens (1981), and Centesimus Annus (1991) by John Paul II. They address both the theology and dignity of work. In Genesis, God takes the initiative in creating the world, calling forth human beings to be faithful stewards of creation. We are thus formed to share in God's continuing creative activity by partnering with God in finishing the world and helping bring it to completion and fulfillment. From this perspective, work can be spiritually understood in terms of sharing in God's ongoing activity to build, create, and transform the world. Human beings are co-creators with God. This vocation demands self-discipline.

Besides an exercise in self-discipline, work is also the means by which we develop and fulfill ourselves. In work, we shape the world and our environment. Through work, we also shape ourselves. Pope John Paul II summarized this point in Laborem Exercens #6,

"the value of work is not primarily the kind of work being done, but the fact that the one who is doing it is a person."

Labor Day offers an excellent opportunity to reflect on how we view work in light of our Catholic social teaching.

Enseñanza Católica Sobre el Trabajo

Pregunta:

Mientras celebramos el Día del Trabajo, se podrán preguntar ¿cual es la enseñanza Católica sobre el trabajo?

Respuesta:

Uno de los principios más importantes de la doctrina social Católica es la dignidad del trabajo y los derechos de los trabajadores. Cuatro encíclicas abordan esta enseñanza social fundamental: Rerum Novarum (1891) de León XIII, Quadragesimo Anno (1931) de Pío XI, Laborem Exercens (1981) y Centesimus Annus (1991) de Juan Pablo II. Abordan tanto la teología como la dignidad del trabajo. En Génesis, Dios toma la iniciativa de crear el mundo, llamando a los seres humanos a ser administradores fieles de la creación. Por lo tanto, estamos formados para compartir la continua actividad creativa de Dios al asociarnos con Dios para terminar el mundo y ayudar a llevarlo a su plenitud. Desde esta perspectiva, el trabajo puede entenderse espiritualmente en términos de participación en la actividad continua de Dios para construir, crear y transformar el mundo. Los seres humanos somos co-creadores con Dios. Esta vocación exige autodisciplina.

Además de un ejercicio de autodisciplina, el trabajo es también el medio por el cual nos desarrollamos y nos realizamos. En el trabajo, damos forma al mundo y a nuestro entorno. A través del trabajo, también nos formamos a nosotros mismos. El Papa Juan Pablo II resumió este punto en Laborem Exercens # 6, "el valor del trabajo no es principalmente el tipo de trabajo que se está haciendo, sino el hecho de que quien lo está haciendo es una persona."

El Día del Trabajo ofrece una excelente oportunidad para reflexionar sobre cómo vemos el trabajo a la luz de nuestra enseñanza social Católica.
