25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me." - Mk 9:35b-37a

PASTOR'S CORNER

Jesus and his disciples left from there and began a journey through Galilee, but he did not wish anyone to know about it. He was teaching his disciples and telling them, "The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise." But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to question him. They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, he began to ask them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they remained silent.

They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me."

Rincón Del Pastor

En aquel tiempo, Jesús y sus discípulos atravesaban Galilea, pero él no quería que nadie lo supiera, porque iba enseñando a sus discípulos. Les decía: “El Hijo del hombre va a ser entregado en manos de los hombres; le darán muerte, y tres días después de muerto, resucitará”. Pero ellos no entendían aquellas palabras y tenían miedo de pedir explicaciones. Llegaron a Cafarnaúm, y una vez en casa, les preguntó: “¿De qué discutían por el camino?” Pero ellos se quedaron callados, porque en el camino habían discutido sobre quién de ellos era el más importante. Entonces Jesús se sentó, llamó a los Doce y les dijo: “Si alguno quiere ser el primero, que sea el último de todos y el servidor de todos”.

Después, tomando a un niño, lo puso en medio de ellos, lo abrazó y les dijo: “El que reciba en mi nombre a uno de estos niños, a mí me recibe. Y el que me reciba a mí, no me recibe a mí, sino a aquel que me ha enviado”.

Mc 9, 30-37

STEWARDSHIP

Do you Want to Help others Live out their Discipleship?

Good stewardship is living out loud your relationship with Jesus by sharing your gifts, talents, and treasures. Out of gratitude for all God has given, we in turn imitate God by being generous with those gifts.

St. Isidore is building a Stewardship Committee and you are invited to learn more. Members of the Stewardship Committee will assist parishioners in living out their discipleship. Often the people of God want to serve, and become more involved in parish life, but need guidance. The Stewardship Committee will plan and develop pathways for people to respond to God's call.

You are invited to attend an information meeting to learn more about becoming involved in building stewardship in our parish. Tommy Rose, with the Catholic Stewardship Consultants, will host a meeting September 23 at 6:30pm in the Assisi Room. Come check it out. If you have questions call Helen at the parish office at 673-1573.

Men Need Brotherhood

Fraternity is not just for religious orders. God created us to unite with each other in brotherhood. When men live their faith alone and isolated, they can become weak and vulnerable to the snares of the devil. When men live their faith together in true brotherhood, they become stronger together in Christ. Sin isolates us, while holiness unites us, and the unity that we are called to is not just with God alone, but with the whole Body of Christ.

Like monastics, men can come together to live their faith loudly and open themselves up to the accountability and strength that comes from communion. That is why St. Isidore is happy to announce the launch of Fraternus!

Fraternus is a Catholic brotherhood in which men are challenged to accept and live the reality that they are sons of God. As sons of God, they are truly brothers. And as men mature as brothers they in turn become fathers that pass on the faith. In Fraternus, we mentor young men from 5th grade through High School, and invite them to go deeper in their faith and to grow with their brothers in Christ.

Interested? Talk with an officer or captain of Fraternus after Mass today.

We meet each Tuesday night at 6:30 pm starting September 21st.

Contact Greg Thompson at 530-713-9909, to learn more, and to begin the adventure of a lifetime!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The View from the Back of the Line

Have you known that person? The one who leaves every person they encounter feeling a little more blessed for having met them? They're the friend you can count on when nothing is going well. They're the one who's always "doing" for others. They're never gossiping or sniping or complaining.

We wonder how they do it, how they have it in them. We're a little envious, even if we don't let ourselves acknowledge it.

That, folks, is what the view is like from the front of the line, gazing at those suckers in the way back and wondering why they're smiling so much.

We've all been at the front of a line and felt no shame about it. We show up early, we put in the time and the legwork, and we "earn" whatever it is we came for — sports tickets, the latest Apple product, whatever. That's how it works here on Earth, where the fastest win the race, the fittest survive and the first shall be first, always.

It's exactly why stewardship is such a tall order. Stewardship calls us to play by the rules of another kingdom — one where the richest have the least amount in their bank accounts and the happiest don't seem to have anything to show for it, at least materially.

If you have a person in your life who always seems happy "doing" for others, it's because by a boatload of God's grace, they play by the rules of the other place.

Watch and take notes — and don't be afraid to join them at the back of the line.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Communion Fasting

Question:

Do we need to fast for one hour before Mass, or one hour before communion?

Answer:

The practice of fasting before receiving the Eucharist is a centuries-old act of devotion that was once very different than it is today. In the 1917 Code of Canon Law, for example, anyone who wanted to receive the Eucharist had to fast from midnight until the time of communion (even water and medications were forbidden). Over the following decades, the rules for the eucharistic fast were relaxed, first by Pope Pius XII and, later, by Pope Saint Paul VI.

The current Code of Canon Law (1983) states very clearly: "A person who is to receive the Most Holy Eucharist is to abstain for at least one hour before holy communion from any food and drink, except for only water and medicine" (Canon 919, §1). And, in the case of those who are ill and the elderly, the rules are even more accommodating, "The elderly, the infirm, and those who care for them can receive the Most Holy Eucharist even if they have eaten something within the preceding hour" (Canon 919, §3).

So, if we strictly follow the "letter of the law," the fast is calculated from the time of Holy Communion and not the start of Mass. However, when we remember why we fast — it is a reminder of the deeper hungers of the spirit that our physical thirst or hunger symbolize — we see that the issue is much bigger than simply fulfilling what is called for by Church Law and tradition. Joining fasting to our prayers and reflection before Mass is an opportunity to really center ourselves and to prepare our minds, hearts, and bodies to welcome the One we receive in the Eucharist.
