28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves,
"Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said,
"For human beings it is impossible, but not for God.
All things are possible for God." - Mk 10:26-27

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

PASTOR'S CORNER

What happens when Jesus is wrong? What happens when we recognize that something he said 2,000 years ago is incorrect?

Today in our gospel from Mark 10 Jesus mistakenly says: "How hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!" Us modern folks need to update him, because in our contemporary outlook, everybody makes it to heaven.

In our new and improved perspective, there's no other place for us to go besides heaven. All of us know that we're good people, we try to be nice, and we're going to make it.

Jesus meanwhile has a different message. "How hard it is," he says. He describes it as being very easy to end up in a different destination: one we don't even name any more.

What makes Mark 10 even worse is that Jesus adds, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" It's as though he singled us out with our technology, our comforts, and warned us how hazardous our situation is today.

What if we're wrong? What if our self-satisfied comfort is easy to sink into, but the Word of Life actually is right? He's warning us: can we hear his threat in time? Can we recognize that in the end only one thing matters, and today we need to change everything to make sure we get to where Jesus is?

Rincón Del Pastor

¿Qué pasa cuando Jesús se equivoca? ¿Qué sucede cuando reconocemos que algo que dijo hace 2,000 años es incorrecto?

Hoy, en nuestro evangelio de Marcos 10, Jesús dice erróneamente: "¡Qué difícil es entrar en el reino de Dios!" Nosotros, la gente moderna, necesitamos actualizarlo, porque en nuestra perspectiva contemporánea, todo el mundo llega al cielo.

En nuestra nueva y mejorada perspectiva, no hay otro lugar al que podamos ir además del cielo. Todos sabemos que somos buenas personas, tratamos de ser amables y lo lograremos.

Mientras tanto, Jesús tiene un mensaje diferente. "Qué difícil es," dice. Lo describe como muy fácil terminar en un destino diferente: uno que ya ni siquiera nombramos.

Lo que hace que Marcos 10 sea aún peor es que Jesús agrega: "¡Cuán difícil es para los que tienen riquezas entrar en el reino de Dios!" Es como si nos señalara con nuestra tecnología, nuestras comodidades y nos advirtiera lo peligrosa que es nuestra situación hoy.

¿Y si nos equivocamos? ¿Qué pasa si es fácil hundirse en nuestra comodidad, pero la Palabra de vida en realidad es correcta? Nos está advirtiendo: ¿Podemos escuchar su advertencia a tiempo? ¿Podemos reconocer que al final solo una cosa importa, y hoy necesitamos cambiar todo para asegurarnos de llegar a donde está Jesús?

Stewardship Renewal Weekend October 24

As we reflect on God's goodness, faithfulness, and generosity in our lives, Jesus has taught us how to live a life of discipleship. Following the example Christ set for us, we strive to offer ourselves in time, talent, and treasure to others. Every day, we have the choice to serve or to sit back; to get involved or be self-involved. This year, is God calling you to do more for others through service?

As the stewardship renewal weekend approaches, spend time in prayer as the Lord to show you how he is calling you to live a life of gratitude and stewardship. To learn more about the many ways you can get involved at St. Isidore's, visit the parish website and browse the ministry handbook and catalog on the home page. St. Isidore will host a Ministry Faire on October 24 for you to meet ministry leaders and ask questions. Remember visit stisidoreschool.org and browse the ministry catalog.
