29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." - Mk 10:43-45

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

PASTOR'S CORNER

When in life can you be judged? For many of us the last time someone could appraise us was when we were in school, and each teacher could grade us on a ranked scale.

While different careers can bring different forms of assessment, school was vivid in how it reduced all our efforts to a letter grade.

James and John in our Gospel passage today recognize how important this judgement is, and want to get an assurance they'll ace the class before the course even begins.

Jesus corrects them by warning them how difficult the coursework is, and we would benefit by hearing that same advice: our grades are not guaranteed.

As Jesus invites James and John to join him in the path of service, he is ultimately inviting them into suffering. Do we understand that today, that to serve others ultimately means to suffer? And if we are faced with suffering, are we still attentive to our final grade, or does our scope collapse to today's hardship?

If there's anything we've forgotten in 2,000 years, it may be that anything worthwhile takes effort, or even pain. Jesus doesn't shy away from that truth, either in his word or example. As we recognize that we are defined by our ability to love, to serve, and to suffer, can we recommit to this fundamental call?

Rincón Del Pastor

¿Cuándo en la vida puedes ser juzgado? Para muchos de nosotros, la última vez que alguien puede evaluarnos es cuando estábamos en la escuela, y todos los maestros podían calificarnos en una escala clasificada.

Si bien las diferentes carreras pueden traer diferentes formas de evaluación, la escuela es un ejemplo de cómo se redujo todos nuestros esfuerzos a una calificación de una letra.

Santiago y Juan en nuestro pasaje del Evangelio de hoy reconocen lo importante que es este juicio y quieren tener la seguridad de que serán buenos en la clase incluso antes de que comience el curso.

Jesús los corrige advirtiéndoles lo difícil que es el trabajo del curso, y nos beneficiaríamos al escuchar el mismo consejo: nuestras calificaciones no están garantizadas.

Cuando Jesús invita a Santiago y Juan a unirse a Él en el camino del servicio, inevitablemente los invita al sufrimiento. ¿Comprendemos hoy que servir a los demás significa en última instancia sufrir? Y si nos enfrentamos al sufrimiento, ¿seguimos atentos a nuestra meta final o nuestro alcance se colapsa ante las dificultades de hoy?

Si hay algo que hemos olvidado en 2000 años, puede ser que cualquier cosa que vale la pena requiere esfuerzo, o incluso dolor. Jesús no rehúye esa verdad, ni en Su palabra ni en Su ejemplo. Al reconocer que estamos definidos por nuestra capacidad de amar, servir y sufrir, ¿podemos volver a comprometernos con este llamado fundamental?

Stewardship Renewal Weekend October 24

As we reflect on God's goodness, faithfulness, and generosity in our lives, Jesus has taught us how to live a life of discipleship. Following the example Christ set for us, we strive to offer ourselves in time, talent, and treasure to others. Every day, we have the choice to serve or to sit back; to get involved or be self-involved. This year, is God calling you to do more for others through service?

As the stewardship renewal weekend approaches, spend time in prayer as the Lord to show you how he is calling you to live a life of gratitude and stewardship. To learn more about the many ways you can get involved at St. Isidore's, visit the parish website and browse the ministry handbook and catalog on the home page.

St. Isidore will host a Ministry Faire on October 24 for you to meet ministry leaders and ask questions. Remember visit stisidore-yubacity.org and browse the ministry catalog.
