4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

[He said to them], "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" - Lk 4:21-22

PASTOR'S CORNER

This week we celebrate Catholic Schools Week! We have a treasure in Catholic education, even reflected in Saint Isidore's stained glass windows. Included among the martyrs and missionaries are two saints who handed on the gift of discovery to the young: Saint Elisabeth Ann Seton, and Saint Julie Billiart.

Both saints gave us a treasure. Saint Elisabeth Ann Seton, converting to the Catholic Faith in her early 30's, quickly saw in the 1800's the need in young America for solid formation. Not only was she instrumental in making parish schools a part of the landscape, she saw that education is more than learning numbers and letters but forms the heart of a child of God.

Saint Julie Billiart lived in France at the same time. Like Elisabeth, she also gathered a group of women who dedicated themselves to poverty, chastity and obedience as religious sisters. And in the same way, her order was dedicated to teaching the young.

It was her sisters, of Notre Dame de Namur, who came first to Marysville and then launched our school in September of 1955. Though of course, on December 24th, three months after opening, our school was under 12 feet of water in the famous flood of '55.

That didn't stop our Notre Dame sisters or the parish from continuing forward, and today, 67 years later, we not only have a TK-8th program, but this fall we look forward to opening a high school! To become a part of the Saint Isidore School family, visit us at <https://stisidoreschool.org> or phone 530-673-2217.

¡Esta semana celebramos la Semana de las Escuelas Católicas! Tenemos un tesoro en la educación católica, incluso reflejado en las vidrieras de San Isidoro. Entre los mártires y misioneros se incluyen dos santos que transmitieron el don del descubrimiento a los jóvenes: Santa Elisabeth Ann Seton y Santa Julie Billiart.

Ambos santos nos dieron un tesoro. Santa Elisabeth Ann Seton, que se convirtió a la fe católica cuando tenía poco más de 30 años, vio rápidamente en el siglo XIX la necesidad de una formación sólida en los jóvenes estadounidenses. No solo jugó un papel decisivo en hacer que las escuelas parroquiales fueran parte del paisaje, sino que vio que la educación es más que aprender números y letras, sino que forma el corazón de un hijo de Dios.

Saint Julie Billiart vivió en Francia al mismo tiempo. Como Elisabeth, también reunió a un grupo de mujeres que se dedicaron a la pobreza, la castidad y la obediencia como religiosas. Y del mismo modo, su orden se dedicó a la enseñanza de los jóvenes.

Fueron sus hermanas, de Notre Dame de Namur, quienes vinieron primero a Marysville y luego abrieron nuestra escuela en septiembre de 1955. Aunque, por supuesto, el 24 de diciembre, tres meses después de abrir, nuestra escuela estaba bajo 12 pies de agua por la famosa inundación del '55.

Eso no impidió que nuestras hermanas de Notre Dame o la parroquia siguieran adelante, y hoy, 67 años después, no solo tenemos un programa TK-8th, ¡sino que este otoño esperamos abrir una escuela secundaria! A Great Promise from Our Lady of Fatima:

One of the most important aspects of the Fatima message was Our Lady's request for the First Saturday devotion. In the July 13, 1917, apparition at Fatima, Our Lady said to the children, "You have seen hell where the souls of poor sinners go. To save them, God wishes to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart...I shall come to ask for the Communion of Reparation on the first Saturdays." The Great Promise: Our Lady promised to assist all those who will practice the devotion of the first Saturday on five consecutive months with the graces necessary for salvation at the hour of their death. This is not a guaranteed passage into heaven. Our cooperation with grace is always required. Come join us on Feb 5 to answer Our Lady's request as a community. Beginning at 7:00am, the Rosary and Consecration Prayers will be prayed before the 8am Mass. Join us to pray for Peace and the salvation of sinners! For more information, contact Cathy at 530-755

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

First Corinthians and the Stewardship of Social Media

"Love is patient, love is kind ..." As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire.

But despite the fact that you've probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn't just for newlyweds. It wasn't written for married folks. It's for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe.

Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It's for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I'm forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn't there?).

A sense of division — whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else — is growing in our world, and it's never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen — especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree — even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window.

As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us — even if that's an opportunity to "strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts."

So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read — and remember, love never fails.

ENTREGA DIARIA - RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Primera de Corintios y la administración de las redes sociales

“El amor es paciente, el amor es amable...” Por más familiares que sean estas palabras, nunca parecen desviarse hacia el territorio de volverse trilladas o tontas. En esencia, comunican una verdad sobre nosotros y sobre nuestro Creador que nunca deja de inspirar.

Pero a pesar de que probablemente lo hayas escuchado en muchas bodas a lo largo del tiempo, Primera de Corintios no es solo para recién casados. No fue escrito para gente casada. Es para cada uno de nosotros, en cada estado de vida y cada situación social, en cada país, cultura e idioma en todo el mundo.

Lo que significa que Primera de Corintios es incluso para el mundo en línea. Es para Facebook y Twitter e Instagram y todas las demás plataformas que me estoy olvidando (parece que hay una nueva todos los días, ¿no?).

Una sensación de división, ya sea enraizada en la política, la cultura o cualquier otra cosa, está creciendo en nuestro mundo, y nunca es más evidente que cuando observamos las interacciones en línea. Después de todo, es mucho más fácil recordar qué es el amor cuando un ser humano de carne y hueso está frente a nosotros. Cuando todo lo que vemos es un avatar o una imagen de perfil en una pantalla, especialmente acompañada de una opinión con la que no estamos de acuerdo con vehemencia, incluso los cristianos más amorosos pueden tirar Primera de Corintios por la ventana.

Como mayordomos cotidianos, sabemos que estamos llamados a ser no solo amables sino también agradecidos. Recibimos a los demás, pero también damos gracias por lo que nos brindan, incluso si esa es una oportunidad para “luchar ansiosamente por los mayores dones espirituales”.

Entonces, antes de la próxima vez que publique algo en línea, le sugiero que lea Primera de Corintios, y recuerde, el amor nunca falla.

Immaculate Conception

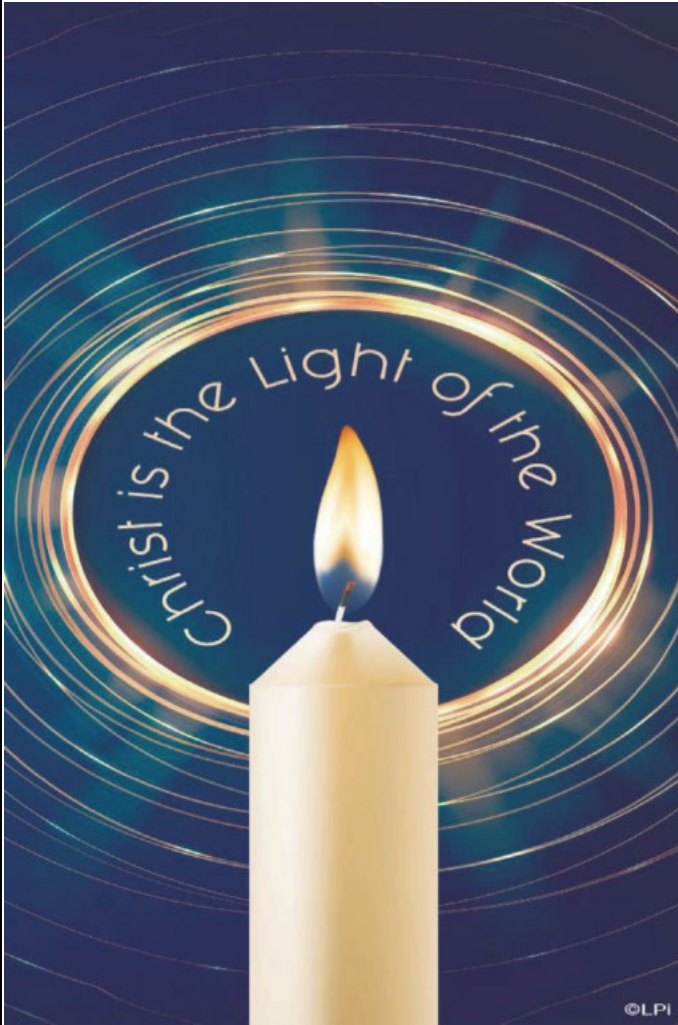

Question:

I've heard people call Jesus' conception by the Holy Spirit being "immaculately conceived." Is that what the Immaculate Conception is?

Answer:

While these two events are often confused, they are not the same thing. We celebrated the conception of Jesus on March 25th, the feast of the Annunciation. While that was surely miraculous, it isn't what we refer to as the "immaculate conception." The Immaculate Conception is Mary's conception, and we typically celebrate it on December 8th. If the 8th happens to be a Sunday, the Church moves the feast to December 9th. It is a holy day of obligation. Why does the Church consider it so important to celebrate?

Mary's conception is immaculate because she was conceived without original sin. The angel Gabriel acknowledges this when he hails Mary as "full of grace" (Luke 1:28). Scripture scholars identify several theological ideas that confirm this. In the Old Testament, the sacred, pristine Ark of the Covenant held the presence of God. The presence of God is now held within a new "arc" — the womb of Mary. Genesis 3 also prophesies of a woman who would oppose the devil and whose child would crush the devil's head. Christ is the "New Adam." This passage sets up Mary, then, as the "New Eve." Jesus and Mary are the beginnings of a new creation, one we all can participate in through the grace of our baptism. After all, God's love is more "original" than our sin!
