PASTOR'S CORNER

Isn't it nice when people say nice things? When they compliment you, or appreciate something you've done?

But what about scolding? What about someone who comes in with criticism and attack?

Biblically, we describe words of affirmation as a blessing, and words of attack as a curse. But what if the one who is verbally condemning you isn't another human, but our creator?

Not one but several of our readings this Sunday proclaim God's curses. "Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings," God tells us in Jeremiah, "whose heart turns away from the Lord." Jesus in our Gospel today says: "Woe to you who are rich . . . when all speak well of you." "The wicked," our Psalmist declares today, "are like the chaff the wind drives away."

Why would God condemn us? And why would we dwell on these curses today? Shouldn't we just listen to the words that are nice?

In John 10:10, Jesus says, "I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full." God is very motivated that we experience our best life, and actively intervenes to protect us from hurt. His blessings and curses are among his clearest instructions.

This Sunday, we will find what these curses share in common. Self-sufficiency: when we rely on ourselves instead of on God. God extends his lifeline to us—now is our chance to grab hold.

Pray For...Oremos por...

For the following souls of the recently departed, that through the mercy of Christ, they may rest in peace...
Oremos también por todos los fieles difuntos para que a través de la misericordia de Dios descansen en paz....

Luis Alejandro Ochoa, Guillermina Partida, Jose Apolina Bermudez Romero, Patricia Miller, Jean Capaul, Abel Torres, Sergio Brambilla, Father Ryan, Andrew Stawaisz, Peggy Steele, and Teodorico Mascusi

Please keep the following people in your prayers this week: For those suffering illnesses, infirmity, and those in need of our prayers. Recordemos en nuestras oraciones de esta semana a todos aquellos que están enfermos, especialmente a:

Luci Fisher, David Manriquez Lujano, Phil Spedeni, LaDonna Songer, Eugenio Alcala, Eric Kaufman, Jim Reese, Ava Mitchell, Paul Borromeo, and Regina Revera

Rincón Del Pastor

¿No es agradable cuando la gente dice cosas bonitas? ¿Cuándo te felicitan o aprecian algo que has hecho?

Pero ¿qué tal cuando nos regañan? ¿Qué pasa con alguien que viene con críticas y ataques?

Bíblicamente, describimos las palabras de afirmación como una bendición y las palabras de ataque como una maldición. Pero, ¿y si el que te está condenando verbalmente no es otro ser humano, sino nuestro creador?

No una, sino varias de nuestras lecturas de este domingo proclaman las maldiciones de Dios. “Maldito el que confía en los seres humanos”, nos dice Dios en Jeremías, “cuyo corazón se aparta del Señor”. Jesús en nuestro Evangelio de hoy dice: “¡Ay de vosotros los ricos! . . . cuando todos hablen bien de ti.” “Los impíos”, declara nuestro salmista hoy, “son como la paja que arrebatara el viento”.

¿Por qué Dios nos condenaría? ¿Y por qué nos detendríamos en estas maldiciones hoy? ¿No deberíamos simplemente escuchar las palabras que son agradables?

En Juan 10:10, Jesús dice: “Yo he venido para que tengan vida, y la tengan en abundancia”. Dios está muy motivado para que experimentemos nuestra mejor vida e interviene activamente para protegernos del dolor. Sus bendiciones y maldiciones se encuentran entre sus instrucciones más claras.

Este domingo, encontraremos lo que estas maldiciones tienen en común. Autosuficiencia: cuando confiamos en nosotros mismos en lugar de en Dios. Dios nos extiende su línea de vida; ahora es nuestra oportunidad de agarrarnos.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Planted Near Water

We all know that there are times when life can feel, as Jeremiah writes, empty and wasted. There are moments when we think we resemble a barren bush, thirsting in the desert sun. That's why it is imperative for us to know the location of our water source. I promise you, it's closer than you think. God never planted a seed in barren ground.

For me, it's the Mass. Going to Mass is where I find total peace and renewal. I don't have any great theological explanation for this — Mass is simply where I can truly rest in God for a time, where nothing and no one in the world can touch me. And wouldn't you know it, it's in the toughest times that I need Mass the most — that my roots stretch harder for that water.

Woe to the rich, says Jesus — woe to the popular, to the content, to the happy. It's not because He hates to see us smile. It's because He knows our humanity. He knows our limitations. He knows that when things are going really well, we often stop looking for God.

What replenishes you as a disciple, as a steward, as a Christian? If it feels far away or hard to reach, why is that? How can you bring it closer?

We are all trees planted near water, to yield our fruit in due season. Let's pray for the strength to know where our water source is, and to seek it both in good times and in bad.
