8TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks." - Lk 6:43, 45

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Some of the books of the Bible are frequent flyers in our Sunday Mass. Obviously the four Gospels are read frequently. But some books show up too rarely, even though they are compelling reading—too much goodness but too little time.

So it's a treat today to hear from the Book of Sirach. One of the Wisdom books of the Old Testament, it definitely provides wisdom today.

In our hurried world, Sirach guides us deeper. In life, there is more than meets the eye, and Sirach helps get us there. Unfortunately for us modern folk, addicted to things like ‘convenience’, ‘instant’, and ‘easy’, what Sirach offers is a literal trial.

“When a sieve is shaken, the husks appear; so do one’s faults when one speaks. As the test of what the potter molds is in the furnace, so in tribulation is the test of the just.” Two things immediately jump out. Bad stuff does happen to good people: it doesn’t mean they’ve done something wrong. And we discover who we are through difficulties. Like the test at the end of the class letting us know what we’ve learned, trials in life show us who we are.

Often we give ourselves credit saying, “I would be a good person if . . . ” Or, “I only get mad when he’s a jerk.” But being calm when things are tranquil doesn’t count for much. Who are you when the going gets tough?

Pray For...Oremos por...

For the following souls of the recently departed, that through the mercy of Christ, they may rest in peace...
Oremos también por todos los fieles difuntos para que a través de la misericordia de Dios descansen en paz....

Luis Alejandro Ochoa, Guillermina Partida, Jose Apolina Bermudez Romero, Patricia Miller, Jean Capaul, Abel Torres, Sergio Brambilla, Father Ryan, Andrew Stawaisz, Peggy Steele, and Teodorico Mascusi

Please keep the following people in your prayers this week: For those suffering illnesses, infirmity, and those in need of our prayers. Recordemos en nuestras oraciones de esta semana a todos aquellos que están enfermos, especialmente a:

Luci Fisher, David Manriquez Lujano, Phil Speden, LaDonna Songer, Eugenio Alcala, Eric Kaufman, Jim Reese, Paul Borromeo, Lori Cremer, Lilia Castro-Mendez, and Jackline (a young girl).

Rincón Del Pastor

Algunos de los libros de la Biblia son volantes frecuentes en nuestra misa dominical. Obviamente, los cuatro evangelios se leen con frecuencia. Pero algunos libros aparecen con muy poca frecuencia, a pesar de que son una lectura convincente: demasiada bondad pero muy poco tiempo.

Así que hoy es un placer escuchar del Libro de Eclesiástico. Uno de los libros de Sabiduría del Antiguo Testamento, definitivamente proporciona sabiduría hoy.

En nuestro mundo apresurado, Sirach nos guía más profundamente. En la vida, hay más de lo que parece, y Sirach nos ayuda a llegar allí. Desafortunadamente para nosotros, la gente moderna, adictos a cosas como "conveniencia", "instantánea" y "fácil", lo que Sirach ofrece es una prueba literal.

"Cuando se agita un tamiz, aparecen las cáscaras; también lo hacen las faltas de uno cuando uno habla. Como la prueba de lo que el alfarero moldea es en el horno, así en la tribulación es la prueba del justo." Dos cosas saltan inmediatamente. A la gente buena le pasan cosas malas: no significa que haya hecho algo malo. Y descubrimos quiénes somos a través de las dificultades. Al igual que el examen al final de la clase que nos permite saber lo que hemos aprendido, las pruebas en la vida nos muestran quiénes somos.

A menudo nos damos crédito a nosotros mismos diciendo: "Sería una buena persona si . . . O, "Solo me enojo cuando es un idiota". Pero estar tranquilo cuando las cosas están tranquilas no cuenta mucho. ¿Quién eres cuando las cosas se ponen difíciles?

St. Isidore Church Prayer Blanket Ministry

Do you knit or crochet? We need help making blankets – make just one or make one a month or week. Due to a recent generous donation of yarn, we need people who can help with this important ministry. See details below.

Prayer Blankets are available at no charge at the Parish office during regular office hours, Monday-Friday 9:00-5:00.

What is a Prayer Blanket?

They are small lap blankets that are sewn, quilted, knitted, or crocheted by group members, are prayed over by the makers, are blessed by the priest, and are given free of charge to people in need of prayer, love, comfort, and healing.

Who is eligible to receive a blanket?

Adults or children with a physical or emotional illness, living with a chronic condition or in treatment for a life-threatening illness, those experiencing a crisis such as the loss of a loved one, loss of job, relationship crisis, or military deployment.

How You Can Help:

- You can sew, knit, or crochet Prayer Blankets at home; creativity is encouraged. Most people work at home on their own time. You can make just one blanket or make many of them.
- Donate materials needed for construction of the blankets: fabric, yarn, or money. Currently, because we were unable to pass out blankets due to the pandemic, we have many blankets and don't need more materials.
- Hold the participants and recipients of the Ministry in prayer.
