SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT | MARCH 12, 2017

Christ Jesus... destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

THE JOURNEY OF TRANSFIGURATION

"We used to be such good friends. How is it that you've moved so far away?" one man asked another. "Perhaps," the other replied, "you have moved away. By standing still." This exchange very well could have happened between Peter and Jesus, had Peter been allowed to erect tents to stay on the mount of the Transfiguration. He nearly succumbed to the temptation to stay in a place of wonder and light. But Jesus knew the hard truth: we are on a continual journey when we are walking the paths of God's will. It is not good for us to stay in one place on our faith journey. Equally unhealthy is staying put in times of joy and wonder to avoid life's difficulties, or to wallow in our trials and temptations and fail to be companions for our sisters and brothers who are also suffering—or celebrating! The pilgrim Church is required to do one thing on its Lenten journey: to walk continually with Christ as his Body born of water and the Spirit, seeking God's will, helping the reign of God to be known on earth, being led to the end of our journey, transfigured for all time into the company of heaven.

EL VIAJE DE LA TRANSFIGURACIÓN

"Solíamos ser tan buenos amigos. ¿Por qué te has alejado tanto?" un hombre le preguntó a otro. "Quizás", le respondió el otro "tú te has alejado al quedarte quieto". Este diálogo bien podría haberse dado entre Pedro y Jesús si a Pedro se le hubiera permitido armar tiendas para quedarse en el monte de la Transfiguración. Casi sucumbió a la tentación de quedarse en un lugar de maravilla y luz. Pero Jesús sabía la difícil verdad: estamos en un viaje continuo cuando transitamos los caminos de la voluntad de Dios. No es bueno que nos quedemos en un lugar en nuestro viaje de fe. Es igualmente malsano estancarnos en los momentos de alegría y milagros para evitar las dificultades de la vida que ensimismarnos en nuestros sufrimientos y tentaciones para evadir ser buenos compañeros de nuestras hermanas y hermanos que también están sufriendo; ¡o celebrar! La Iglesia peregrina debe hacer una cosa en su viaje de Cuaresma: caminar continuamente con Cristo como su Cuerpo nacido del agua y del Espíritu, buscando la voluntad de Dios, ayudando a que se conozca en la tierra el Reino de Dios, siendo guiada al final de nuestro viaje, transfigurada para siempre en la compañía del cielo.

If you were to ask our neighbors, folks who'd heard about Lent but didn't quite know what it was about, they could easily think Lent is a time for punishment. Because we deliberately choose things that are hard, extra prayer, challenging fasts, extended generosity, it could look like we were trying to afflict ourselves as a rebuke.

The actual purpose of Lent, as we see in our first reading today, is to free us up to receive grace. Genesis today not only gives us God's intention for us during Lent, but for all time. Speaking to Abram he says, "I will bless you . . . I will make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you . . . All the communities of the earth shall find blessing in you."

Five times God repeats, in about two lines, this theme of blessing. What an incredible affirmation. God's intention toward humanity is to introduce a grace that transforms our lives.

As the children of Abraham, our purpose in this world is to be a blessing to those around us. This is spontaneous for us because we have experienced God's blessing so deeply.

Realizing that these two dynamics are not always the case, our being a blessing and our experiencing blessing, is why we enter into our Lenten practices. The purpose of elevated prayer, difficult fasts, and increased generosity, is to sweep away the accumulated obstacles to God's initiative, to reconnect with what God is introducing into our lives.

Reread our first reading from Genesis today, and enter into the Blessing God has for his children.

EL RINCON DEL PÁRROCO

Si tuviésemos que preguntar a nuestros vecinos, o a gente que había oído hablar de la Cuaresma pero no sabía muy bien de qué se trataba, fácilmente podrían pensar que la Cuaresma es un tiempo de castigo. Debido a que elegimos deliberadamente cosas que son duras, mas oración, ayunos desafiantes, generosidad extendida, podrían parecer que nos estamos tratando de afligir oh castigar.

El verdadero propósito de la Cuaresma, como vemos en la primera lectura de hoy, es liberarnos para poder recibir la gracia. Génesis hoy no sólo nos da la intención que Dios quiere de nosotros durante la Cuaresma, sino para siempre. Hablándole a Abram le dice: "Yo te bendeciré ... haré tu nombre grande, para que seas una bendición, bendeciré a los que te bendigan ... Todas las comunidades de la tierra encontrarán bendición en ti . "

Dios repite cinco veces, en dos líneas, este tema de la bendición. Qué increíble afirmación. La intención de Dios hacia la humanidad es introducir una gracia que transforme nuestras vidas.

Como hijos de Abraham, nuestro propósito en este mundo es ser una bendición para los que nos rodean. Esto es espontáneo para nosotros porque hemos experimentado profundamente la bendición de Dios.

Es dándonos cuenta de que el ser una bendición y experimentar una bendición, no siempre son el caso, que entramos en nuestras prácticas cuaresmales. El propósito de la oración, los ayunos difíciles, y el aumento en nuestra generosidad, es barrer los obstáculos acumulados que impiden llevar acabo su iniciativa, reconectarnos con lo que Dios está introduciendo en nuestras vidas.

Leamos nuevamente la primera lectura de Génesis y participemos en la Bendición que Dios tiene para sus hijos.

Campaña Católica Anual

Este fin de semana tendremos la oportunidad de ser Cristo para los demás a través de obras de misericordia. ¿Cómo ayudamos a una familia en necesidad? ¿Cómo podemos ayudar mejor al hombre o a la mujer que nos encontramos a lo largo de la carretera pidiendo dinero? ¿Pasamos de largo? ¿Nos sentimos culpables? ¿Nos preguntamos cómo gastarán el dinero que les damos? Como católicos en la Diócesis de Sacramento, tenemos una manera de ayudar a aquellos que realmente los necesitan. Al hacer una generosa donación a la Campaña Católica Anual, usted puede vivir el mensaje del Evangelio y proveer asistencia. El año pasado 832 de nuestros feligreses contribuyeron $ 90,039 a esta apelación. Nuestra parroquia recibió el 25% para poder ayudar a las personas que llegaron a nuestra parroquia en busca de ayuda. La mitad de los fondos fueron distribuidos a San Vicente de Paúl y la otra mitad a nuestra escuela parroquial. Las obras caritativas de la Iglesia, ya sea en programas de servicio social católicos o en ministerios parroquiales, dependen de todos nosotros. Cada uno de nuestros regalos, no importa la cantidad, realmente hace una diferencia en la vida de alguien. Por favor, considere en oración lo que puede donar.

Question of the Week?

How do you listen to God?

Pregunta de la Semana?

Como escuchas a Dios?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Blessed Sacrament was not reserved in church buildings in the first centuries of the church. In those early years, of course, people met in borrowed "house churches," gathering on the Lord's Day for community, apostolic teaching, the breaking of the bread, and the prayers, as Acts of the Apostles tells us. Dispersed, people went their way into the workaday world until the next assembly. Weighing down their hearts was the absence of brothers and sisters, not only the sick, but those imprisoned for the faith. No wonder they developed a way of extending the food of the Holy Table to them.

Forty years ago, every altar boy in training heard about Saint Tarcisius. He was a twelve-year-old boy at the time of intense persecution in fourth-century Rome. His community had begun to convey the consecrated bread from their Eucharist to those condemned to death or awaiting trial. Normally deacons did this, but on one occasion, it was necessary to send the boy to bear the holy mysteries to the prison. The legend says that he was an athlete, and was detained on the way by some playmates who wanted him to join in their game. When he refused, they demanded to know what he was carrying. The situation went from bad to worse, and he was badly beaten and died of his injuries. A hundred years later, a pope called him a second St. Stephen. In the nineteenth century, Cardinal Nicholas Wiseman of England wrote a novel in which he expanded the story and popularized it. By then, no one seemed to notice that this twelve-year-old was actually touching and ministering the Eucharist, unthinkable until recently. Scholars say the story rings true: the first reason for setting some Eucharistic bread aside was not adoration, but Communion of the sick.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Muchos católicos aprovechan el tiempo de Cuaresma para confesarse. El sacramento de Reconciliación tiene una historia un poco complicada, pues ha sufrido muchos cambios con el transcurrir de los siglos. Al principio, la penitencia sólo se celebraba una sola vez en la vida de un cristiano y era necesaria en caso de pecado grave, como lo era la apostasía, el adulterio y el asesinato. El penitente tenía que hacer una confesión en público, frente al obispo y la comunidad entera. La penitencia consistía de un ayuno severo y vestir una indumentaria especial que lo distinguía. Esta penitencia podía durar semanas, y a veces, meses. Durante este tiempo, el penitente no podía estar presente en la mesa de la Eucaristía hasta que el obispo le diera la bendición de reconciliación, la cual, a menudo, se llevaba a cabo el Jueves Santo. Con el paso del tiempo, los cristianos se dieron cuenta de la necesidad de celebrar el sacramento de la Reconciliación con más frecuencia y por otras clases de pecado.

Algún tiempo después, esta práctica cayó en el desuso y fue sustituida por la confesión privada, la cual se originó entre los monjes irlandeses. Despues, esta práctica fue aceptada por toda la Iglesia. De esta manera es que nació el sacramento de la reconciliación que conocemos hoy. Actualmente, a pesar de que la Iglesia dice que no es necesario acercarse al confesionario antes de recibir la Comunión, se nos exhorta a confesarnos por lo menos una vez al año, o lo antes posible después de haber cometido pecado grave.

Couples in Cana

Pan de Vida Retreat

Calling all couples...

We need you!

We are currently looking for parishioners to serve on the retreat team to host engaged and married couples to deepen their relationship to each other and Christ.

Many hands make light work. We need the assistance of 5-6 couples or 10-12 individuals to make this possible.

Information will be available after all of the English masses or contact Ruth Pendilla @ 673-1573.

THANK YOU – THANK YOU – THANK YOU

Thank you to the all of the organizations and individuals who provided food, set up tables, chairs, cots and served meals to our guests in the shelter program during the months of January and February. In all ways you shared your time, faith and love of Jesus to our guests. We housed an average of 22 people each night. All were so very grateful for the wonderful meals, friendship and for a warm, comfortable place to rest overnight. Thank you Father Avram for approving our participation again this year – our 7th year!

In February the shelter was unexpectedly cancelled due to the evacuation. The Chamorro Ministry was ready to serve when we got the notification and the REST guests were transported to the evacuation center in Sutter. We were notified that the evacuation was lifted on Wednesday morning, calls were made, and with everyone coming together the homeless arrived at our parish Wednesday evening to a warm meal and friendly faces. Special thanks to Bob Cortese, who is always ready to help and to Jim Walsh who stepped in for us in our absence.

The vision statement for REST is, “Bear one another’s burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ.” (Gal 6:2). Our parishioners through their generosity and hospitality exemplified the spirit of this vision statement. Without each of you this would not have been successful.

The needs of the poor do not end with the REST program; the needs are every day. Please remember to continue to support our St. Vincent de Paul Society and the local Hands of Hope Resource Center who are committed to serve those in need throughout the year.
