EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

PASTOR'S CORNER

Happy Easter!

The Fourteenth Station of our Way of the Cross sees Jesus being placed in the tomb--and then left alone. It reminds me of the words from the old gospel folk song:

You gotta walk that lonesome valley
And you gotta walk, walk it by yourself
Nobody else can walk it for you
You gotta walk, walk it by yourself.

Death is the final isolator, separating us from those who have shared our journey. And theologically, the sin that causes death brings division, separating us from God, separating us from each other.

The Resurrection of Jesus shows that God's fundamental desire is not for isolation but for fellowship. God is love, we profess, and love means being drawn together. God as God has lived in relationship since forever, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and now Jesus rising from the dead means that every one of us is invited into relationship as well.

No one is meant to be alone. Jesus rising from the dead is God's intervention in our lives to call us back into encounter with each other, to family, to friendship. Life, Jesus' risen life, means we are with each other. Here at Saint Isidore's, we are blessed to see the Holy Spirit at work calling us into community. God wants us to be alive, not dead, together, not apart. Jesus walked the lonesome valley, not to remain there, but to bring us through it into relationship together.

Happy Easter!

Rincón Del Pastor

¡Felices Pascuas!

La decimocuarta estación de nuestro Vía Crucis ve a Jesús siendo colocado en la tumba y luego dejado solo. Me recuerda a las palabras de una vieja canción popular:

Tienes que caminar por ese valle solitario
Y tienes que caminar, caminar solo
Nadie más puede caminar por ti
Tienes que caminar, caminar solo.

La muerte es el aislador final que nos separa de aquellos que han compartido nuestro viaje. Y teológicamente, el pecado que causa la muerte trae división, separándonos de Dios, separándonos unos de otros.

La resurrección de Jesús muestra que el deseo fundamental de Dios no es el aislamiento sino el compañerismo. Dios es amor, lo profesamos, y amar significa estar unidos. Dios como Dios ha vivido en relación desde siempre, Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo, y ahora Jesús resucitando de entre los muertos significa que cada uno de nosotros también está invitado a tener una relación.

Nadie está destinado a estar solo. Jesús resucitando de entre los muertos es la intervención de Dios en nuestras vidas para llamarnos de nuevo al encuentro, a la familia, a la amistad. La vida, la vida resucitada de Jesús, significa que estamos juntos. Aquí en San Isidro, tenemos la bendición de ver al Espíritu Santo trabajando llamándonos a la comunidad. Dios quiere que estemos vivos, no muertos, juntos, no separados. Jesús caminó por el valle solitario, no para permanecer allí, sino para llevarnos a través de él a una relación juntos.

¡Felices Pascuas!

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Do you want our Lord to give many graces? Visit Him often.

Do you want our Lord to give few graces? Visit Him seldom.

Visits to the Blessed Sacrament are powerful and indispensable means of overcoming the attacks of the devil.

Make frequent visits to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and the devil will be powerless against you.

OCTAVE OF EASTER

OLPI

Prepare for Divine Mercy Sunday April 11, 2021!!

In her Diary, St. Faustina records a special promise given to her by Jesus. He told her to communicate it to the whole world: "My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy" (699). In her Diary, St. Faustina records our Lord's promises of specific, extraordinary graces: "I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My mercy" (1109). To receive these graces, the only condition is to receive Holy Communion worthily on Divine Mercy Sunday (or the Vigil celebration) by making a good confession beforehand and staying in the state of grace and trusting in His Divine Mercy. *A plenary indulgence, obtained by fulfilling the usual conditions, also is available. Keep in mind that, to fittingly observe the Feast of Mercy, we should: 1. Celebrate the Feast on the Sunday after Easter. 2. Sincerely repent of all our sins. 3. Place our complete trust in Jesus. 4. Go to Confession, preferably before that Sunday. 5. Receive Holy Communion on the day of the Feast. 6. Venerate the Image of The Divine Mercy. 7. Be merciful to others, through our actions, words, and prayers on their behalf. A plenary indulgence, granted under the usual conditions (sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer for the intentions of Supreme Pontiff) to the faithful who, on Divine Mercy Sunday, in any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honour of Divine Mercy, or who, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. Merciful Jesus, I trust in You!)..." St Isidore's will prepare for Divine Mercy Sunday with the Divine Mercy Novena; it will be prayed at 3:00pm in the Church in both English and Spanish every day from April 2 to April 10.

Divine Mercy Celebration will be April 11 at 3:00 with a holy hour. Information: Cathy 755-1536 or Teresa 645-7122.

4th Day, 5th Day, 6th Day, 7th Day, 8th Day, 9th Day - Monday, April 5 through Saturday, April 10 at 3:00 in Church during Adoration.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

A Happy Ending Isn't the Whole Story "Is there a happy ending?"

When my kids were young, we never made it past the first whiff of any narrative tension before I got this question. As soon as whatever princess or furry woodland animal who was the hero of the story got into any small scrape, they wanted that reassurance, "Is there a happy ending?"

I can't say I blame them. Don't we all feel that way sometimes? We enter into a relationship with someone or some situation, and we just want to protect ourselves. We want to know it's not going to go badly — or, if it does, that we will be able to come back from it. It's a human instinct, a reflex. Our inclination to protect ourselves makes it so that we sometimes want to press fast-forward on the bad stuff and skip straight ahead to the happily-ever-after.

Easter is the ultimate happy ending. It's the day of miracles. The day when all the stones roll away and all the sins are forgiven. It's the day that puts everything right.

But if we learned anything from this week — from the Passion and death of the Lord — it's that we can't press fast-forward on the hardships of life. That tension, that loss, that fear — it's crucial, isn't it? As Catholics, we are who we are because of Easter. But Easter doesn't happen without Good Friday.

So, does the story of salvation have a happy ending? We know it does. But we also remember that the ending isn't all that matters.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA - RECONOCER A DIOS EN LOS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS (Everyday Stewardship)

Un Final Feliz No Es Toda la Historia "¿Hay un final feliz?"

Cuando mis hijos eran pequeños, nunca superamos la primera bocanada de tensión narrativa antes de que recibiera esta pregunta. Tan pronto como la princesa o el animal peludo del bosque que era el héroe de la historia se metía en un pequeño lío, querían esa tranquilidad: "¿Hay un final feliz?"

No puedo decir que los culpo. ¿No nos sentimos todos de esa manera a veces? Entramos en una relación con alguien o en alguna situación, y solo queremos protegernos. Queremos saber que no va a ir mal o, si es así, que podremos volver de ahí. Es un instinto humano, un reflejo. Nuestra inclinación para protegernos hace que, a veces, queramos avanzar rápidamente en las cosas malas y saltar directamente al final feliz.

La Pascua es el final feliz definitivo. Es el día de los milagros. El día en que todas las piedras se remueven y todos los pecados son perdonados. Es el día que arregla todo.

Pero si aprendimos algo de esta semana, de la Pasión y muerte del Señor, es que no podemos adelantarnos y saltar las dificultades de la vida. Esa tensión, esa pérdida, ese miedo, es crucial, ¿no es así? Como católicos, somos quienes somos gracias a la Pascua. Pero la Pascua no ocurre sin el Viernes Santo.

Entonces, ¿la historia de la salvación tiene un final feliz? Sabemos que sí. Pero también recordamos que no solo el final importa.
