PASTOR'S CORNER

Déjà vu all over again! Or maybe you thought you dozed off during the readings. Saint Peter quotes extensively from the Old Testament in his homily during our first reading. Then if you were listening, our Psalm repeats line by line the same verses: the Church gave us as our responsorial Psalm the source that Peter was drawing from.

This returning to the same verses repeatedly is actually a familiar method of the Church's prayer. Just as we return to Lent and Easter each year, to draw deeper into what God is sharing with us, just as in the rosary we return to the same mysteries of Jesus' life to engage them more fully, so returning to the same passages of Scripture can allow our hearts to hear them in a new way.

In our devotional reading this can be a helpful practice. Our parish staff gather for lunch weekly to read through the upcoming Sunday Gospel. Reading through the passage aloud, one of our staff then reads it again a second or third time. With each hearing, different words, different emphases can come forward for the heart to hear.

In the practice of Lectio Divina, the prayerful reading of the Scriptures, this rereading of the passage allows us to slow down and listen more deeply. Where we often rush past what God wants to share with us, hearing the same thing multiple times can force us to pay attention.

Ask the Blessed Mother for help in hearing God today. Repeatedly in Luke's Gospel when something significant happens, Luke says that, "Mary pondered all these things in her heart." She can teach us to reflect on the Word of God, the invitation that God is extending to us today.

God has something to share with you. Are you ready to receive it?

REFLEXIÓN DEL PASTOR

¡Déjà vu otra vez! O quizá pensaste que te habías quedado dormido durante las lecturas. San Pedro cita extensamente el Antiguo Testamento en su homilía durante nuestra primera lectura. Luego, si estuvieras escuchando, nuestro Salmo repite línea por línea los mismos versículos: la Iglesia nos dio como nuestro Salmo responsorial la fuente de la que Pedro surgía.

Este regreso repetido en los mismos versículos es en realidad un método familiar de la oración de la Iglesia. Así como volvemos a la Cuaresma y a la Pascua cada año, para profundizar en lo que Dios comparte con nosotros, así como en el rosario volvemos a los mismos misterios de la vida de Jesús para involucrarnos más plenamente, volver a los mismos pasajes de las Escrituras puede permitir que nuestro corazón los escuche de una manera nueva.

En nuestra lectura devocional esto puede ser una práctica útil. Nuestro personal parroquial se reúne semanalmente para almorzar y leer el Evangelio dominical que se avecina. Leyendo el pasaje en voz alta, uno de nuestros empleados lo lee una o hasta tres veces. Con cada vez que lo escuchamos, pueden surgir palabras y énfasis distintos para que el corazón las escuche.

En la práctica de la Lectio Divina, la lectura orante de las Escrituras, esta relectura del pasaje nos permite ralentizar el ritmo y escuchar con mayor profundidad. A menudo pasamos por alto lo que Dios quiere comunicarnos; por eso, escuchar lo mismo varias veces puede ayudarnos a prestar más atención.

Pide ayuda a la Santísima Virgen para escuchar a Dios hoy. Repetidamente en el Evangelio de Lucas, cuando ocurre algo importante, Lucas dice que "María reflexionó sobre todas estas cosas en su corazón." Puede enseñarnos a reflexionar sobre la Palabra de Dios, la invitación que Dios nos está extendiendo hoy.

Dios tiene algo que compartir contigo. ¿Estás listo para recibirlo?

Funerals | Funerales

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Q What are the scrutinies and exorcisms in the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, and what is their purpose?

A The scrutinies, celebrated on the Third, Fourth, and Fifth Sundays of Lent, invite the elect, along with the assembly, into prayerful contemplation and repentance. The scrutinies help "reveal what is weak, sick and sinful in the hearts of the elect so that it can be healed; and what is honorable, strong and holy, so that it can be strengthened" (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, 141). The rituals help purify the heart and mind. They protect the elect from the power of sin, strengthen them against temptations, and orient them toward the saving waters of baptism. Each scrutiny concludes with a prayer of exorcism over the elect, through which they "are set free from the effects of sin" and the influence of evil (OCIA, 144). Unlike exorcisms depicted in popular films, these are beautiful prayers that speak of Christ's saving power over sin and death.

3 Month CHALLENGE

Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse,
That there may be food in my house.
Put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts,
And see if I do not open the floodgates of heaven for you,
and pour down upon you blessing without measure!
Malachi 3:10.

Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." Luke 6:38.

In every way I have shown you that by hard work of that sort we must help the weak, and keep in mind the words of the Lord Jesus who himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'" Acts 20:35

Desafio de Tres meses

"Traigan todo el diezmo al alfolí, para que haya alimento en mi casa.
Pónganme a prueba en esto —dice el Señor de los ejércitos, y vean si no abro las compuertas de los cielos y derramo sobre ustedes bendición hasta que sobreabunde." Malaquías 3:10

"Den, y se les dará: una medida buena, apretada, remecida y desbordante será puesta en su regazo.
Porque con la medida con que midan, se les volverá a medir." Lucas 6:38

"En todo les he mostrado que, trabajando así, se debe ayudar a los débiles y recordar las palabras del Señor Jesús, que dijo: 'Hay más dicha en dar que en recibir.'" Hechos 20:35
