PASTOR'S CORNER

The fourth candle has been lit: our final week of preparation has begun.

This year the Fourth Sunday of Advent falls on the darkest day of the year, the longest night. Months have passed since June 21st and the longest day of the year; now the sun will abandon us at a stunningly early hour, leaving us in a darkened afternoon.

The winter solstice can have us missing our sunlight and desperate for cozy warmth, but a week ago we commemorated another event which put much more weight on this annual milestone. Nine days ago we gathered for our diocesan solemnity celebrating our patroness, Our Lady of Guadalupe, commemorating her apparition to Saint Juan Diego and through his tilma to all the people of Mexico.

But 500 years ago when Juan Diego and his fellow Nahuatl people lived, having just been liberated from the Aztec dominion a few years prior with the arrival of the Spanish conquistadors, they and the tribes of Mesoamerica saw a very different omen in this darkest day.

Having lived for all their lives under the cruel Aztec deities, they knew that they depended on the Sun God for life—and that his relentless sister the Moon God constantly pursued him across the sky to destroy him. And they knew that the Sun God depended on human sacrifice, human blood, to be empowered to fend off the Moon God's threat.

And so every year—up until the arrival of the Spaniards—December 21st would have been the day of prolific sacrifice, with heart after heart being ripped out of the chests of captured enemies.

And now in 1531 this woman appears to Juan Diego, greater than the sun whom she eclipses, and than the moon which she's standing on. Did she appear just nine days before this day of crisis?

In fact, when you remember that the Holy Father Pope Gregory XIII 50 years later corrected the thence erring Julian calendar established in the days of the Roman Empire, and you remember that the patch he had to introduce to get the calendar to mark the proper time was to jump forward 9 days to catch up, you realize that in 1531 the day marked as December 12th would have been the winter solstice—today's darkest day.

In our darkest trials our loving mother comes to us, and lifts our vision to the light; our fourth candle today pointing to the same dawning glory found in her risen Son.

RINCÓN DEL PASTOR

Se ha encendido la cuarta vela: ha comenzado nuestra última semana de preparación.

Este año, el cuarto domingo de Adviento cae en el día más oscuro del año, la noche más larga. Han pasado meses desde el 21 de junio y el día más largo del año; ahora el sol nos abandonará a una hora sorprendentemente temprana, dejándonos en una tarde oscura.

El solsticio de invierno puede hacernos extrañar la luz del sol y ansiar un calor acogedor, pero hace una semana conmemoramos otro acontecimiento que le da mucho más peso a este hito anual. Hace nueve días nos reunimos para celebrar la solemnidad diocesana en honor a nuestra patrona, Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, conmemorando su aparición a San Juan Diego y, a través de su tilma, a todo el pueblo de México.

Pero hace 500 años, cuando Juan Diego y su pueblo nahuatl vivían, recién liberados del dominio azteca unos años antes con la llegada de los conquistadores españoles, ellos y las tribus de Mesoamérica vieron un presagio muy diferente en este día tan oscuro.

Habiendo vivido toda su vida bajo las crueles deidades aztecas, sabían que dependían del Dios Sol para vivir, y que su implacable hermana, la Diosa Luna, lo perseguía constantemente por el cielo para destruirlo. Y sabían que el Dios Sol dependía de los sacrificios humanos, de la sangre humana, para tener el poder de defenderse de la amenaza de la Diosa Luna.

Así, cada año, hasta la llegada de los españoles, el 21 de diciembre era el día del sacrificio prolífico, en el que se arrancaban los corazones del pecho de los enemigos capturados.

Y ahora, en 1531, esta mujer se le aparece a Juan Diego, más grande que el sol al que eclipsa y que la luna sobre la que se encuentra. ¿Apareció justo nueve días antes de este día de crisis?

De hecho, cuando recordamos que el Santo Padre, el papa Gregorio XIII, 50 años después corrigió el erróneo calendario juliano establecido en los días del Imperio Romano, y recordamos que el parche que tuvo que introducir para que el calendario marcara la hora correcta fue adelantar 9 días para ponerse al día, nos damos cuenta de que en 1531 el día marcado como 12 de diciembre habría sido el solsticio de invierno, el día más oscuro del año.

En nuestras pruebas más oscuras, nuestra amorosa madre viene a nosotros y eleva nuestra visión hacia la luz; nuestra cuarta vela de hoy apunta a la misma gloria naciente que se encuentra en su Hijo resucitado.

St. Vincent de Paul December 21: Fourth Sunday of Advent

In today's Gospel, we hear that Jesus will be named Emmanuel, which means "God is with us." The mystery of the birth of Jesus is supremely a mystery of love. May each Christmas find us more and more like him: more humble, more holy, more happy and more full of God.

Your gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul helped those who are poor and suffering to find Emmanuel and they also came to know that "God is with us."

Jubilee Year Closing Celebrations

The evening prayer will be followed by a community potluck in the parish hall gym. Please bring a dish to share. Dishes can be dropped off before Vespers in the parish hall.

All are welcome and encouraged to attend the final gathering for the 2025 Jubilee Year.

Help Us Care for Our Church

Please help us by keeping the front doors closed to the Church when there is No Mass. Doing so helps us reduce our PG&E costs and care for the resources God has entrusted to us.

Two years ago, our PG&E bill was $25,000. Last year, thanks to everyone's cooperation in keeping the doors closed, it was reduced to $18,000.

*Let's continue to work together to be good stewards of our parish and our environment.
Thank you for your understanding and support!*

Ayúdenos a Cuidar Nuestra Iglesia y

Por favor ayúdenos manteniendo cerradas las puertas principales de la Iglesia cuando no hay Misa. Haciendo esto nos ayuda a reducir nuestros costos de PG&E y cuidar los recursos que Dios nos ha confiado.

Hace dos años, nuestra factura de PG&E fue de $25,000. El año pasado, gracias a la cooperación de todos en mantener las puertas cerradas, se redujo a $18,000.

Sigamos trabajando juntos para ser buenos administradores de nuestra parroquia y nuestro medio ambiente. Gracias por su comprensión y

Q What happens in a session for catechumens?

A The period of the catechu-menate is aimed at forming catechumens in the Christian way of life. Different types of sessions occur during this period.
At Sunday Mass after the homily, catechumens are kindly dismissed to reflect on the Word they have heard. Following immediately after this reflection session or on another day of the week, the catechumens meet to receive suitable catechesis that acquaints them with the dogmas and precepts of the Catholic faith and moves them to a deep sense of the mystery of salvation. They may also experience a celebration of the Word at this time or receive an anointing, blessing, or minor exorcism. Another sort of session may entail joining with a parish organization to offer service.

Attention / Atención

This Advent season, let us open our hearts in true Christian charity. If you see a person with a disability standing because there is no room in the pews, please offer your seat with kindness and compassion. Remember that Christ is present in each person we welcome—whether it be someone with a disability, a pregnant mother, or anyone in need. May our generosity reflect the love of the Holy Family. Thank you.

En este tiempo de Adviento, abramos nuestros corazones con verdadera caridad cristiana. Si ve a una persona con discapacidad de pie porque no hay sitio en los bancos, por favor, ofrézcale su asiento con amabilidad y compasión. Recuerde que Cristo está presente en cada persona que acogemos, ya sea alguien con discapacidad, una madre embarazada o cualquier persona necesitada. Que nuestra generosidad refleje el amor de la Sagrada Familia. Gracias.
