PASTOR'S CORNER

We are well underway into the Winter Olympics, with all the ice and snow sports broadcast globally. While most of us don't have a lot of experience personally with curling or the luge, here in Northern California many of us know what it's like to stand at the top of the ski hill and prepare to push off.

Having had the long leisurely ride up the ski lift you tumble off the chair onto the summit and toddle your way over to the brink. Then you stand poised, looking down at the precipice below, knowing that once you take the plunge you will plummet into greater and greater acceleration.

Our first reading today gives us a similar moment of being poised between two states, two options: "God has set before you fire and water, to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand." Like the brink of the ski hill, your next move will plunge you into full commitment—but here you choose what you commit to. "Before man are life and death, good and evil: whichever he chooses shall be given him."

Frequently we live without the clarity of our own agency, our own ability to choose. In the blur of life, we can feel we are just shuffled into different outcomes, with no real determination along the way. Even marriage works this way in our culture today: the one night stand becomes the weekend over, then we have a toothbrush and a top drawer for our things, then we let the lease on our own apartment lapse, then we're getting a dog, and next thing you know it's been 5 years and we just drifted into this arrangement, with no clear delineation or decision throughout the whole sequence.

Our culture wants you to be robbed of agency because consumerism doesn't need you rethinking whether to click on your purchase or continue your subscription. Individuals making their own choices don't promote fashion or buy the latest product.

But God wants you to recognize the importance of your heart, and the significance of your ability to choose. As Jesus lists today some of the commandments, don't murder, don't commit adultery, don't take an oath, he drives home that it's even the interior disposition of your heart, not only what's outwardly visible, that has impact.

God values your choices because he values you. Strap on your skis, board the lift: you have been created to fulfill a destiny.

RINCÓN DEL PASTOR

Ya estamos bien avanzados en los Juegos Olímpicos de Invierno, con todos los deportes de hielo y nieve retransmitidos a nivel mundial. Aunque la mayoría de nosotros no tenemos mucha experiencia personal con curling o luge, aquí en el norte de California muchos sabemos lo que es estar en la cima de la pista de esquí y prepararse para impulsarse.

Tras haber hecho el largo y tranquilo recorrido por el telesilla, caes de la silla hasta la cima y avanzas tambaleándote hasta el borde. Entonces te mantienes en posición, mirando hacia el precipicio abajo, sabiendo que una vez que te lances te precipitarás en una aceleración cada vez mayor.

Nuestra primera lectura hoy nos da un momento similar de estar entre dos estados, dos opciones: "Dios ha puesto ante vosotros fuego y agua, a quien elijais, extiende tu mano." Como al borde de la pista de esquí, tu siguiente movimiento te hará sumir en un compromiso total, pero aquí eliges a qué te comprometes. "Ante el hombre están la vida y la muerte, el bien y el mal: se le dará lo que elija."

Frecuentemente vivimos sin la claridad de nuestra propia autonomía, sin nuestra propia capacidad de elegir. En el borrón de la vida, podemos sentir que simplemente nos arrastran hacia diferentes resultados, sin una determinación real en el camino. Incluso el matrimonio funciona así en nuestra cultura hoy en día: el rollo de una noche se convierte en fin de semana, luego tenemos un cepillo de dientes y un cajón superior para nuestras cosas, luego dejamos caducar el contrato de alquiler de nuestro propio piso, luego tenemos un perro, y de repente han pasado 5 años y simplemente hemos caído en este acuerdo, sin una delimitación clara ni decisión a lo largo de toda la secuencia.

Nuestra cultura quiere que te roben la agencia porque el consumismo no requiere que reconsideres si hacer clic en tu compra o continuar con tu suscripción. Las personas que toman sus propias decisiones no promocionan la moda ni compran el último producto. Pero Dios quiere que reconozcas la importancia de tu corazón y la importancia de tu capacidad para elegir. Como Jesús enumera hoy algunos de los manda mientos, no matar, no cometer adulterio, no jurar, él deja claro que incluso la disposición interior de tu corazón, no solo lo que es visible exteriormente, tiene impacto.

Dios valora tus decisiones porque te valora a ti. Ponte los esquís, sube al telesilla: has sido creado para cumplir un destino.

St. Vincent de Paul

The St. Isidore Conference of Saint Vincent de Paul is dedicated to serving all families in Sutter County regardless of their religious affiliation, race, or ethnicity. We help those who need assistance with food, rent, utilities, furniture and household goods.

Our food locker provides both fresh and non-perishable food once a month. Over the past year, we have served 1600 families with food, 137 families with rent and utility assistance, 200 with furniture, and 240 with household goods.

We are staffed only by volunteers. Currently we have about 30 members who come on a rotating basis. The various jobs include helping at the food locker (including translation), furniture delivery, home visit teams of 2 to assist with financial aid, and sorting donations. Volunteers come according to the time they are available and their interests. Since the food locker is open 2 hours per day, 3 days a week, any other work is done when needed.

We are very grateful for the generosity of our parishioners and invite you to visit the Food Locker for a tour, for more information, or (hopefully) to volunteer. The building is open Tues-Thurs from 9:15-11:15, but we would be happy to have you come by appointment. The phone is (530) 671-5154.

Annual Catholic Appeal

February 21 & 22, 2026

Annual Catholic Appeal helps us bring Christ's saving mercy to our brothers and sisters.

25% comes back to our parish for our own outreach to those in need.

On the weekend of February 21-22 we will have the opportunity to offer ourselves as missionaries of hope to those who suffer emotional, physical and spiritual poverty. Each of our gifts, no matter the amount, makes a meaningful difference in someone's life. Catholic Charities can respond to the greatest needs in our communities.

Seminarians receive support as they prepare to serve our local parishes. Catholic schools in economically-challenged neighborhoods can provide tuition assistance. And our ministries receive support for another year. Prayerfully consider what you can give this year.

El Llamado Católico Anual

21 y 22 de febrero de 2026

El Llamado Católica Anual nos ayuda a llevar el mensaje de la misericordia salvadora de Cristo a nuestros hermanos y hermanas.

El 25 % se destina a nuestra parroquia para nuestro propio alcance a los necesitados.

El fin de semana del 21 y 22 de febrero tendremos la oportunidad de ofrecernos como misioneros de esperanza a quienes sufren pobreza emocional, física y espiritual. Cada una de nuestras donaciones, sin importar la cantidad, hace una diferencia significativa en la vida de alguien. Las Caridades Católicas pueden responder a las mayores necesidades de nuestras comunidades.

Los seminaristas reciben apoyo mientras se preparan para servir en nuestras parroquias locales. Las escuelas católicas en vecindarios con dificultades económicas pueden brindar asistenia de matrícula. Y nuestra parroquia de San Isidro recibe apoyo para un año más. En oración, por favor considere lo que puede dar este año.

Q Why are those baptized in another tradition not dismissed?

A Those validly baptized in another Christian tradition are not dismissed because they already share in the priestly ministry of the baptized. As members of Christ's Church, their proper place is in the midst of the Body of Christ, the assembly. They are able to profess faith in Christ; they are able to pray for the world; they are able to participate in the Church's thanksgiving to the Father in the Eucharistic Prayer. Although they remain with the assembly during the Liturgy of the Eucharist, they do not yet receive Communion. They continue to prepare for the day when they will be received and fully share at the Eucharistic table.

Prayer to Holy Mary, Fountain of Light and Life

Lord, from the chaste womb of the baptismal font the Church, our mother, has given to children of this earth a new birth as children of heaven.

Grant that through the life-giving Gospel and your grace-filled sacraments the Church may form its daughters and sons in the in the likeness of Christ, its founder, who was born of a Virgin Mother as the firstborn of many brothers and sisters and the Savior of the whole human race.

Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Amen.
