PASTOR'S CORNER

Our clay appears in our first verse of our first reading: our Father forms us from the clay of the earth and breathes his own spirit into us. We met that earth again this last Wednesday, when gathering in church we were told, "Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return," as ashes were placed on our heads.

We do a lot to forget that we are clay: our efforts try to make us more important, more permanent, more attractive than we fear that we truly are. The excitement of the modern era is that our technology will finally free us from mortality, as our science and medicine will allow us to live forever, even if only as a computer program. We're not dust, we insist: we have overcome our humble origin.

The Lenten practice of Catholics invites us to love dust again. Because that's what God loves, and where he pours out his love and mercy. We don't have to put up facades, elaborate constructs: God knows us as dust, and loves us as dust.

Almsgiving, fasting, and prayer are all ways of announcing that we are insufficient on our own: that we're lacking something. Almsgiving is the most effective and direct: as we give away what we needed for ourselves, the lack this creates drives home that we don't have what it takes. We are insufficient: we need God. Fasting creates the same visceral experience: as our body hungers, it becomes inescapable that we are needy. Finally, prayer orients us toward the fount of life: where we've become exhausted trying to keep things together and under control, our God reveals that when we surrender everything to him, he is all we need.

God loves loving us; he loves you. But he loves you, not the masks or defenses that you have thrown up. Lent is our season to dare to lower our guard, where it's safe to reveal the brokenness of our real selves. We are dust, and we don't have to act like something more to be loved. As you give alms, as you fast, as you pray, allow God to meet you in your neediness. God breathes into dust and fills you with his glory and life.

REFLEXIÓN DEL PASTOR

Nuestro polvo aparece en el primer versículo de nuestra primera lectura del día de hoy: nuestro Padre nos forma del polvo de la tierra y nos infundió su propio espíritu. Nos encontramos de nuevo con ese polvo este pasado miércoles, cuando nos reunimos en la iglesia nos dijeron: "Recuerda que polvo eres y en polvo te convertirás", mientras nos ponían cenizas sobre la cabeza.

Hacemos mucho por olvidar que somos barro: nuestros esfuerzos intentan hacernos más importantes, más permanentes, más atractivos de lo que tememos realmente ser. La emoción de la era moderna es que nuestra tecnología finalmente nos liberará de la mortalidad, ya que nuestra ciencia y medicina nos permitirán vivir para siempre, aunque solo sea como un programa informático. No somos polvo, insistimos: hemos superado nuestro humilde origen.

La práctica cuaresmal de los católicos nos invita a volver a amar el polvo. Porque eso es lo que Dios ama, y donde derrama su amor y misericordia. No tenemos que poner fachadas, construcciones elaboradas: Dios nos conoce como polvo y nos ama como polvo.

La limosna, el ayuno y la oración son formas de anunciar que somos insuficientes por sí mismos: que nos falta algo. La limosna es la más efectiva y directa: al regalar lo que necesitábamos para nosotros mismos, la falta que esto crea nos hace ver que no tenemos lo que se necesita. Somos insuficientes: necesitamos a Dios. El ayuno crea la misma experiencia visceral: a medida que nuestro cuerpo tiene hambre, se vuelve ineludible que somos necesitados. Finalmente, la oración nos orienta hacia la fuente de la vida: donde nos hemos agotado intentando mantener las cosas unidas y bajo control, nuestro Dios revela que cuando entregamos todo a Él, Él es todo lo que necesitamos.

Dios ama amarnos; te ama a ti. Pero él te quiere, no las máscaras o defensas que has levantado. La Cuaresma es nuestra época para atreverse a bajar la guardia, donde es seguro revelar la rotura de nuestro verdadero yo. Somos polvo y no tenemos que actuar como algo más para ser amados. Mientras das limosna, mientras ayunas, mientras oras, permite que Dios te reciba en tu necesidad. Dios sopla en polvo y te llena de su gloria y vida.

St. Vincent de Paul

The St. Isidore Conference of Saint Vincent de Paul is dedicated to serving all families in Sutter County regardless of their religious affiliation, race, or ethnicity. We help those who need assistance with food, rent, utilities, furniture and household goods.

Our food locker provides both fresh and non-perishable food once a month. Over the past year, we have served 1600 families with food, 137 families with rent and utility assistance, 200 with furniture, and 240 with household goods.

We are staffed only by volunteers. Currently we have about 30 members who come on a rotating basis. The various jobs include helping at the food locker (including translation), furniture delivery, home visit teams of 2 to assist with financial aid, and sorting donations. Volunteers come according to the time they are available and their interests. Since the food locker is open 2 hours per day, 3 days a week, any other work is done when needed.

We are very grateful for the generosity of our parishioners and invite you to visit the Food Locker for a tour, for more information, or (hopefully) to volunteer. The building is open Tues-Thurs from 9:15-11:15, but we would be happy to have you come by appointment. The phone is (530) 671-5154.

February 22: First Sunday of Lent

Lent is a call to “give alms for the poor.” Wherever you live in the parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory bell. They are, in effect, ringing your doorbell.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help the suffering and poor.

22 de febrero: Primer domingo de Cuaresma

La Cuaresma es un llamado a «dar limosna a los pobres». Donde quiera que vivas en la parroquia, hay familias pobres a poca distancia de tu casa. Cuando lo necesitan, tocan el timbre de la rectoría. En efecto, están tocando tu timbre.

¿Conoces a alguna familia que necesite ayuda? Llama a la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl para que juntos podamos ayudar a los que sufren y a los pobres.

Today, we join with all parishes our Diocese for the 2026 Annual Catholic Appeal. The Appeal is dedicated solely to the social mission of the Church here in Northern California and affirms that when we come together as a community, we accomplish far more than we each could on our own. Your gift to the Appeal, no matter the size, helps thousands of our brother and sisters in need.

Please consider your individual commitment to support our brothers and sisters. We would like to emphasize that funds from the Appeal can only be used for the purposes described, namely Catholic Charities, Tuition Assistance at Catholic Schools, and Seminarian Education.

Thank you for your donation.

Por favor, considere su compromiso individual para apoyar a nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Nos gustaría enfatizar que los fondos de la Campaña solo pueden utilizarse para los fines descritos, a saber, Caridades Católicas, Ayuda para el pago de matrículas en escuelas católicas y Educación de seminaristas.

Q When are catechumens ready for the next period?

A Catechumens move into the period of purification and enlightenment (the third period of the initiation process) after sufficient time in the period of the catechumenate (the second period), where conversion takes root and faith strengthens. At least one year in the period of the catechumenate is recommended to experience the unfolding of the mysteries throughout an entire liturgical year. In the weeks before Lent a process of discernment takes place. Along with their sponsor, catechists, pastor, and others who may have been involved, the catechumens discern the movement of the Holy Spirit, take stock of their ongoing conversion, and reaffirm the intention to continue on the journey to baptism. This reflective process leads the Church to determine their readiness for advancement in the process.

Prayer to Holy Mary, Fountain of Light and Life

Lord, from the chaste womb of the baptismal font the Church, our mother, has given to children of this earth a new birth as children of heaven.

Grant that through the life-giving Gospel and your grace-filled sacraments the Church may form its daughters and sons in the in the likeness of Christ, its founder, who was born of a Virgin Mother as the firstborn of many brothers and sisters and the Savior of the whole human race.

Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

The 3 Month Malachi Challenge

Malachi 3:8-12

"Put the Lord to the Test"

Can anyone rob God? But you are robbing me!

And you say, "How have we robbed you?"

Of tithes and contributions!

You are indeed accursed,

for you, the whole nation, rob me.

Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse,

That there may be food in my house.

Put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts,

And see if I do not open the floodgates
of heaven for you,
and pour down upon you blessing without measure!

I will rebuke the locust for you
so that it will not destroy your crops,

And the vine in the field will not be barren,
says the LORD of hosts.

All the nations will call you blessed,
for you will be a delightful land,
says the LORD of hosts.

El Desafío de Malaquías de 3 Meses

Malaquías 3:8-12

"Poned al Señor a prueba"

¿Robará el hombre a Dios?

¡Pues vosotros me habéis robado!

Y decís: "¿En qué te hemos robado?"

¡En los diezmos y las ofrendas!

Malditos sois con maldición,

porque vosotros, la nación toda, me habéis robado.

Traed todos los diezmos al alfolí,

y haya alimento en mi casa;

y probadme ahora en esto, dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos,

si no os abriré las ventanas de los cielos
y derramaré sobre vosotros bendición hasta que sobreabunde.

Reprenderé también por vosotros al devorador,

y no destruirá el fruto de la tierra,

ni vuestra vid en el campo será estéril,

dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos.

Y todas las naciones os llamarán bienaventurados,

porque seréis una tierra deseable,

dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos.
