PASTOR'S CORNER

How did we get here?

We're just beginning Lent, but we're on the top of Mount Tabor with Jesus at his Transfiguration. Doesn't that seem like an Easter thing, with all the light and glory? What's this gospel passage doing here when we're fasting and doing penance?

This radiant light, these resplendent garments, this voice of the Father, all of this truly is the stuff of heaven. But otherwise how would we know where we were going, what direction to head in? Over these last 11 days we've asked what almsgiving we can do, what fasting we will undertake, what prayer we are called into—but what is the purpose of these practices?

Catholics don't deliberately make life hard because we like things to be difficult. We choose these three practices of penance in order to rewrite our hearts into compatibility with a different reality: the joy of heaven.

When we operate with routine practices, we can settle into the ups and downs of daily life as being the full extent of our story. But when we disrupt life with hardship, where our penances grab us by the shirt collar and we wake up each morning knowing it's Lent, then we are shaken out of complacency.

The gospel writers affirm that Jesus led Peter, James and John up the high mountain in order to prepare them for Golgotha: they needed to see the endgame in order to endure what it took to get there. We need to glimpse heaven in order to endure today's purgatory.

Jesus' Transfiguration launches his journey to Jerusalem and to his cross. Over these 40 days as we embrace our cross with him, we keep our eyes on his face, radiant in glory, shining in love, beaming on us in heavenly mercy. We will endure with him through our Calvary to the glory of heaven.

REFLEXIÓN DEL PASTOR

¿Cómo hemos llegado hasta aquí?

Estamos empezando la Cuaresma, pero estamos en la cima del monte Tabor con Jesús en su Transfiguración. ¿No parece eso cosa de Pascua, contoda la luz y la gloria? ¿Qué hace este pasaje de evangelio aqui cuando ayunamos y hacemos penitencia?

Esta luz rafiante, estas prendas resplandecientes, esta voz del Padre, todo esto es verdaderamente materia de Cielo. Pero si no, ¿como sabríamos hacia dónde vamos, hacia donde ir? Durante estos últimos 11 días nos hemos preguntado que limosna podemos hacer, qué ayuno realizaremos, a qué oración estamos llamados, pero ¿cuál es el propósito de estas prácticas?

Los católicos no hacen la vida difícil a proposito porque nos guste que las cosas sean difíciles. Elegimos estas tres prácticas de penitencia para reescribir nuestro corazón y adaptarlo a una realidad diferente: la alegría de cielo.

Cuando operamos con prácticas rutinarias, podemos acomodarnos en los altibajos de la vida diaria como si fueran la extensión completa de nuestra historia. Pero cuando perturbamos la vida con dificultades, donde nuestras penitencias nos agarran por el cuello de la camisa y nos despertamos cada mañana sabiendo que es cuaresma, entonces nos sacudimos de la compacencia.

Los evangelistas afirman que Jesús guio a Pedro, Santiago y Juan a la alta montaña para prepararlos para el Gólgota: necesitaban ver el desenlace para soportar lo que hiciera flata para llegar allí. Necesitamos vislumbrar el cielo para soportar el purgatorio.

Con la transfiguración Jesús inicia su viaje a Jerusalén y a su cruz. Durante estos 40 días, mientras abrazamos nuestra cruz con él, mantenemos la mirada en su rostro, radiante en gloria, resplandeciente en amor, irradiándonos con misericordia celestial. Resistiremos con él a través de nuestro Calvario hasta la gloria del cielo.

St. Vincent de Paul

The St. Isidore Conference of Saint Vincent de Paul is dedicated to serving all families in Sutter County regardless of their religious affiliation, race, or ethnicity. We help those who need assistance with food, rent, utilities, furniture and household goods.

Our food locker provides both fresh and non-perishable food once a month. Over the past year, we have served 1600 families with food, 137 families with rent and utility assistance, 200 with furniture, and 240 with household goods.

We are staffed only by volunteers. Currently we have about 30 members who come on a rotating basis. The various jobs include helping at the food locker (including translation), furniture delivery, home visit teams of 2 to assist with financial aid, and sorting donations. Volunteers come according to the time they are available and their interests. Since the food locker is open 2 hours per day, 3 days a week, any other work is done when needed.

We are very grateful for the generosity of our parishioners and invite you to visit the Food Locker for a tour, for more information, or (hopefully) to volunteer.

The building is open Tues-Thurs from 9:15-11:15, but we would be happy to have you come by appointment. The phone is (530) 671-5154.

St. Vincent de Paul needs your DUMP PASSES!

Please drop passes off at SVDP on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday from 9:15 am—11:15 am. Or at the Parish Office Tuesday through Friday from 9:30 am—4:00 pm.

Thank you for your support!

RECOLOGY
DUMP PASSES FOR ST VINCENT DE PAUL

We appreciate you helping St. Vincent de Paul with donating your dump passes. We need them now, and all throughout the year to help us save money and service our less fortunate Neighbors. THANK YOU!!!!

St. Vincent de Paul needs your DUMP PASSES!!

We use them to dispose of unused donations and to help elderly to clean up their homes.

You just need to go in and ask for them at the Recology office. They no longer mail them to you. This helps us to save money.

The 3 Month Malachi Challenge

Malachi 3:8-12
"Put the Lord to the Test"
Can anyone rob God? But you are robbing me!
And you say, "How have we robbed you?"
Of tithes and contributions!
You are indeed accursed,
for you, the whole nation, rob me.
Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse,
That there may be food in my house.
Put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts,
And see if I do not open the floodgates
of heaven for you,
and pour down upon you blessing without measure!
I will rebuke the locust for you
so that it will not destroy your crops,
And the vine in the field will not be barren,
says the LORD of hosts.
All the nations will call you blessed,
for you will be a delightful land,
says the LORD of hosts.

El Desafío de Malaquías de 3 Meses

Malaquías 3:8–12
"Poned al Señor a prueba"
¿Robará el hombre a Dios?
¡Pues vosotros me habéis robado!
Y decís: "¿En qué te hemos robado?"
¡En los diezmos y las ofrendas!
Malditos sois con maldición,
porque vosotros, la nación toda, me habéis robado.
Traed todos los diezmos al alfolí,
y haya alimento en mi casa;
y probadme ahora en esto, dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos,
si no os abriré las ventanas de los cielos
y derramaré sobre vosotros bendición hasta que sobreabunde.
Reprenderé también por vosotros al devorador,
y no destruirá el fruto de la tierra,
ni vuestra vid en el campo será estéril,
dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos.
Y todas las naciones os llamarán bienaventurados,
porque seréis una tierra deseable,
dice el SEÑOR de los ejércitos.

Q What is the third stage of Christian initiation, and what happens during this period?

A The third stage in the process is the period of purification and enlightenment, which coincides with Lent. With its dual theme of baptism and repentance, this is the final stage for those preparing to enter into the paschal mystery through baptism at the Easter Vigil. The period begins after the Rite of Election or Enrollment of Names, when catechumens become the elect. The community walks with them, pondering the same themes as they also prepare to experience the paschal mystery at Easter. This is an intense retreat time for the elect—more spiritual than catechetical—a time to pray and reflect, and to know Christ more intimately. The parish celebrates the three scrutinies with them—powerful prayers that "reveal what is weak, sick and sinful in the hearts of the elect so that it can be healed" (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, 141). The elect may also be presented with the creed and the Lord's Prayer.
