5th Sunday OF LENT

"'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. So Jesus said to them, 'Untie him and let him go.' Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done began to believe in him." Jn 11:43-45

PASTOR'S CORNER

As a quick review, let's consider all the things you did in order to be created. Apparently, for you to be called into existence, you did nothing to earn it. Life, bestowed by your creator, comes as a free gift.

Let's compare that to our gospel passage today when Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead. From the tomb, what effort did Lazarus expend to return to life? How much of his contribution made Jesus' miracle possible? In the same way as our own creation, the one doing everything was God. Lazarus was the recipient of a free gift, which he participated in just by being present.

Jesus' marvelous miracle reveals what our swiftly approaching Easter is all about. While we frequently confuse our religion with a program where we have to work hard, do some heavy lifting, and then show God our report card, that's not what God has in mind. He is the limitless Lord pouring forth superabundance, and his plan is to share extraordinary gifts with us: our role is to receive the love and blessing he gives.

This is why the Church returns to these seasons of renewal year after year. We celebrate Advent again, we celebrate Christmas again, we enter our current 40-day season of Lent, we live the extended season of Easter, to be reminded that God is the agent here–he's the one taking the initiative and bringing life to us.

What in your life today needs to receive that life-giving presence of God? What in this Lent, this Sunday in March, is your heart needing? Jesus knows you better than you know yourself. He knows the wounds of your heart, he knows your deepest longings, and he is here to bring you to life.

Lift up your heart to God. Let him see where you need him, where you are in trouble. As you see yourself as he sees you with love, in the new light of his healing, allow yourself to experience hope and confidence again.

REFLEXIÓN DEL PASTOR

Como repaso rápido, consideremos todo lo que hiciste para ser creado. Aparentemente, para que fueras llamado a la existencia, no hiciste nada para ganártelo. La vida, otorgada por tu creador, llega como un regalo gratuito.

Comparemos eso con nuestro pasaje evangélico de hoy, cuando Jesús resucita a Lázaro de entre los muertos. Desde la tumba, ¿qué esfuerzo hizo Lázaro para volver a la vida? ¿Cuánto de su contribución hizo posible el milagro de Jesús? De la misma manera que nuestra propia creación, quien hacía todo era Dios. Lázaro recibió un regalo gratuito, en el que participó simplemente por estar presente.

El maravilloso milagro de Jesús revela que nuestra Pascua se acerca rápidamente. Aunque a menudo confundimos nuestra religión con un programa en el que tenemos que trabajar duro, hacer trabajo duro y luego mostrarle a Dios nuestra boleta de calificaciones, eso no es lo que Dios tiene en mente. Él es el Señor ilimitado que derrama superabundancia, y su plan es compartir con nosotros dones extraordinarios: nuestro papel es recibir el amor y la bendición que nos da.

Por eso la Iglesia vuelve a estas estaciones de renovación año tras año. Celebramos el Adviento de nuevo, celebramos la Navidad otra vez, entramos en nuestra actual temporada de 40 días de Cuaresma, vivimos la temporada prolongada de Pascua, para recordar que Dios es el agente aquí: es él quien toma la iniciativa y nos trae la vida.

¿Qué necesitas en tu vida hoy para recibir esa presencia viva de Dios? ¿Qué necesita tu corazón en esta Cuaresma, este domingo de marzo? Jesús te conoce mejor de lo que tú te conoces a ti mismo, conoce las heridas de tu corazón, conoce tus anhelos más profundos y está aquí para darte vida.

Eleva tu corazón a Dios. Deja que vea dónde lo necesitas, dónde estás en problemas. Así como te ves a ti misma como él te ve con amor, bajo la nueva luz de su sanación, permítete volver a experimentar esperanza y confianza.

3 Month CHALLENGE

Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse,
That there may be food in my house.
Put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts,
And see if I do not open the floodgates of heaven for you,
and pour down upon you blessing without measure!
Malachi 3:10.

Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." Luke 6:38.

In every way I have shown you that by hard work of that sort we must help the weak, and keep in mind the words of the Lord Jesus who himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'" Acts 20:35

Desafio de Tres meses

"Traigan todo el diezmo al alfolí, para que haya alimento en mi casa.
Pónganme a prueba en esto —dice el Señor de los ejércitos, y vean si no abro las compuertas de los cielos y derramo sobre ustedes bendición hasta que sobreabunde." Malaquías 3:10

"Den, y se les dará: una medida buena, apretada, remecida y desbordante será puesta en su regazo.
Porque con la medida con que midan, se les volverá a medir." Lucas 6:38

"En todo les he mostrado que, trabajando así, se debe ayudar a los débiles y recordar las palabras del Señor Jesús, que dijo: 'Hay más dicha en dar que en recibir.'" Hechos 20:35

Q What is the Book of the Elect, and how is it used?

A The Book of the Elect is an official register that catechumens sign either at their parish during the Rite of Sending Catechumens for Election or at the cathedral in the presence of the bishop during the Rite of Election or Enrollment of Names. After the godparents and assembly affirm the readiness of the candidates, the bishop invites the catechumens to sign their names as an official sign of their commitment to enter fully into the life of the Church through the sacraments of initiation. The book is often displayed in the parish as a reminder for the community to pray for the elect during their final days of preparation.

Eucharistic Adoration

Adoration in the Church is a sacred time of silence with Jesus, who is truly present in the Eucharist.

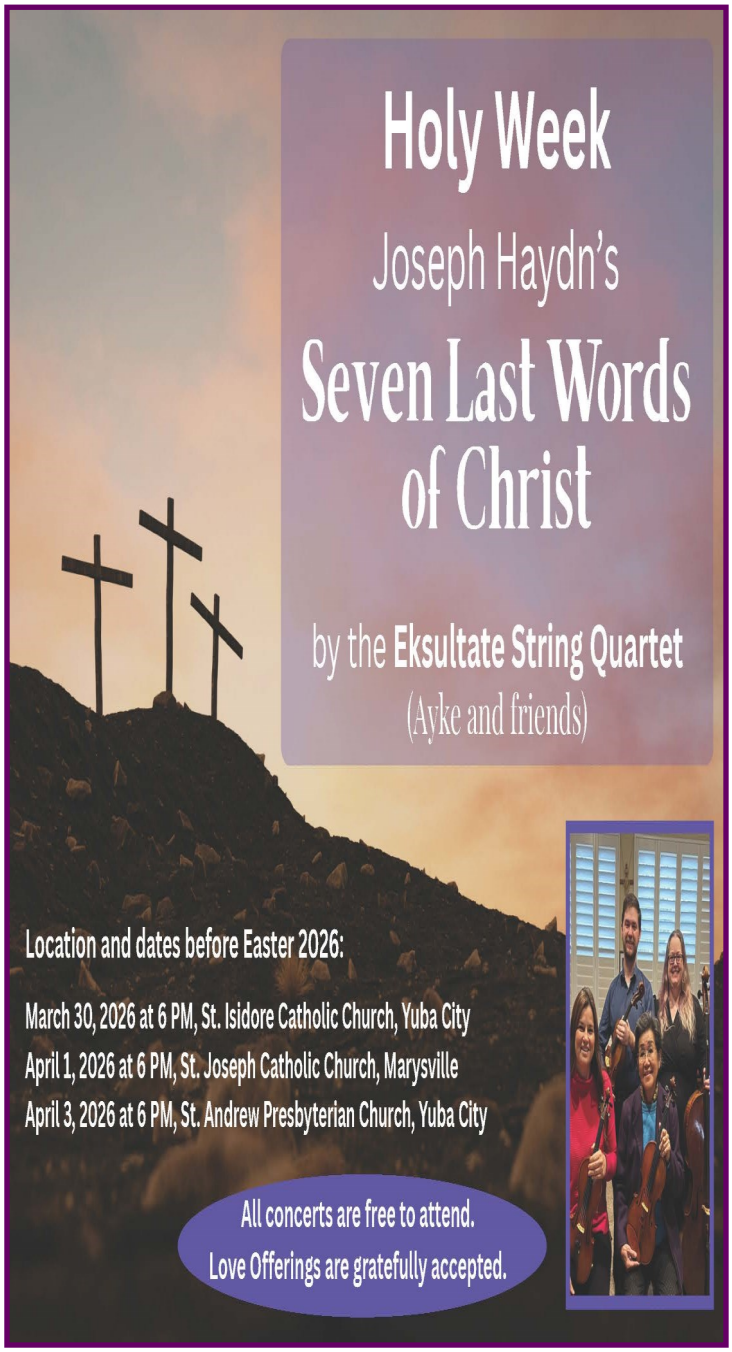

Out of reverence for His presence, please maintain silence while you are here.

Thank you.

We are thrilled to announce that Ayke and Friends, the "Eksultate String Quartet,"  will be performing on three special dates. See dates below.

To help cover the musicians' costs, we are seeking donations totaling $600. Your generous support will make these beautiful performances possible.

Please consider donating to assist with this expense. Thank you for your kindness and support! Drop off donations at the Parish Office.
