PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

"The crowds preceding him and those following kept crying out and saying: 'Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest.' And when he entered Jerusalem the whole city was shaken and asked, 'Who is this?'" Mt 21:9-10

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today, the whole Church around the world gathers to celebrate a very special milestone in the life of the Church: Deacon John Thoo's birthday!

Well, maybe only our parish is marking this commemoration, but certainly the whole Church is celebrating in a special way: red vestments, palm branches, processions remembering Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem as King, as Son of David.

For us, the red vestments bring a seamless event, as yesterday, Saturday, Bishop Soto joined us to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for our young people, as they received the fullness of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, strength from God, and life from on high, allowing them to live their full mission and identity. The red vestments used at that liturgy symbolize the fire from high that descended upon the Apostles in the upper room and which is still poured out on us today.

Red, of course, today on Palm Sunday also represents the blood that will be poured out in Christ's passion. The prayer found on the back cover of our missalettes, the Anima Christi, speaks of the healing work of this outpouring: "Blood of Christ, inebriate me." We are washed clean from our sins by Christ's blood, we are strengthened by this gift from heaven, and we are made sharers in the sacrifice of Christ that brings healing to the world.

While Palm Sunday won't always be Deacon John's birthday, this year in 2026, we can thank God for Deacon John's service, bringing the Blood of Christ to God's people in the liturgy, serving our community, and aiding in the redemption by Jesus' Blood being revealed to the world.

Happy Birthday, Deacon John, and get some rest before these busy days ahead!

REFLEXIÓN DEL PASTOR

Hoy toda la Iglesia de todo el mundo se reúne para celebrar un acontecimiento muy especial en la vida de la Iglesia: ¡el cumpleaños del diácono John Thoo!

Bueno, quizá solo nuestra parroquia conmemora esta conmemoración, pero desde luego toda la Iglesia celebra de una manera especial: vestimentas rojas, ramas de palma, procesiones que recuerdan la entrada triunfal de Jesús en Jerusalén como Rey, como Hijo de David.

Para nosotros, las vestimentas rojas traen un evento sin interrupciones, ya que ayer sábado el obispo Soto se unió a nosotros para celebrar el Sacramento de la Confirmación para nuestros jóvenes, al recibir la plenitud del derramamiento del Espíritu Santo, la fuerza de Dios y la vida desde lo alto que les permite vivir plenamente su misión e identidad. Las vestimentas rojas usadas en esa liturgia simbolizan el fuego desde lo alto que descendió sobre los Apóstoles en la cámara superior y que aún hoy se derrama sobre nosotros.

El rojo, por supuesto, hoy en Domingo de Ramos también representa la sangre que se derramará en la pasión de Cristo. La oración que se encuentra en la contraportada de nuestras misales, el Alma de Cristo, habla del trabajo sanador de este derramamiento: "Sangre de Cristo, embriágame." Somos lavados de nuestros pecados por la sangre de Cristo, nos fortalece este don del cielo, somos compartidos en el sacrificio de Cristo que trae sanación al mundo.

Aunque el Domingo de Ramos no siempre será el cumpleaños del diácono John, este año en 2026 podemos dar gracias a Dios por el servicio del diácono John al llevar la Sangre de Cristo al pueblo de Dios en la liturgia, sirviendo a nuestra comunidad y ayudando a la redención por la Sangre de Jesús revelada al mundo.

¡Feliz cumpleaños, Diácono John, y descansa antes de estos días tan ajetreados que se avecinan!

Q Why is Lent the appropriate time for the period of purification and enlightenment? What are the two main themes of Lent?

A During the season of Lent, the whole Church slows down and steps away from busyness to contemplate the paschal mystery—that is, the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus into which we are baptized. This time of reflection provides the space to name everything that is sinful within so that it might be transformed by the grace of the risen Christ. Because Lent calls us both to reflect on our baptism and its promises and invites us to do penance so we might grow in deeper communion with Christ, it is appropriate that the baptized journey with the elect, who are preparing for baptism.
