PASTOR'S CORNER

Gentleness and reverence. These two traits mark the Catholic, according to our first Pope in our second reading today. Saint Peter describes characteristics that might not be our first go-to, if we are typical Americans. Rather than gentleness, we often live with a me-first dominance, sensing we are quite fragile, so we have to impose our will on others. Rather than reverence, we often practice a shields-up rigidity, where our own predetermined path runs roughshod over those around us.

Why would Saint Peter highlight these qualities of meekness and respect? He has fully received the promises of Jesus in our gospel today. Where we, still limping with our secular presets, have to push ourselves forward to protect our turf, Saint Peter heard Jesus' words: we have a supernatural advocate, the divine Spirit of God defending and guiding us. When our protector is so great, we don't have to fret about defending ourselves. God has our path and the path of the Church fully provided for.

I will not leave you orphans, Jesus tells us today. Adopted as God's children, we no longer have to push and shove to get our own way. God is our Father, and he has a plan for our lives. Ultimately, with the Holy Spirit within us, we are gentle because God is gentle with us. We practice reverence, because we have learned it from the consideration with which God treats us.

Our gentleness and reverence towards others becomes one of our greatest testimonies. As we treat others in a way they have perhaps never experienced before, they can begin to wonder where our difference springs from. But gentleness and reverence fundamentally become natural, innate to us because we resemble our Father with his Spirit within us.

Ask God to show his gentleness to you. Invite the Holy Spirit to open your heart to true reverence for God and others. We live in a way the world, our society, does not recognize, because we have received the Spirit of God.

REFLEXIÓN DEL PASTOR

Ternura y reverencia. Estas dos cualidades marcan al católico, según nuestro primer Papa en nuestra segunda lectura de hoy. San Pedro describe características que quizá no sean nuestra primera opción si somos estadounidenses típicos. En lugar de ser gentiles, a menudo vivimos con una dominancia de yo primero, percibiendo que somos bastante frágiles, así que tenemos que imponer nuestra voluntad a los demás. En lugar de reverencia, a menudo practicamos una rigidez de escudos levantados, donde nuestro propio camino predeterminado pasa por encima de quienes nos rodean.

¿Por qué San Pedro resaltaría estas cualidades de mansedumbre y respeto? Ha recibido plenamente las promesas de Jesús en nuestro evangelio hoy. Donde nosotros, aun cojeando con nuestros reajustes seculares, tenemos que esforzarnos para proteger nuestro territorio, San Pedro escuchó las palabras de Jesús: tenemos un defensor sobrenatural, el Espíritu divino de Dios que nos defiende y guía. Cuando nuestro protector es tan bueno, no tenemos que preocuparnos por defendernos. Dios tiene nuestro camino y el camino de la Iglesia plenamente provistos.

No los dejaré huérfanos, nos dice Jesús hoy. Adoptados como hijos de Dios, ya no tenemos que empujar y forzar para salirnos con la nuestra. Dios es nuestro Padre, y tiene un plan para nuestras vidas. En última instancia, con el Espíritu Santo dentro de nosotros, somos amables porque Dios es amable con nosotros. Practicamos la reverencia porque la hemos aprendido de la consideración con la que Dios nos trata.

Nuestra gentileza y reverencia hacia los demás se convierte en uno de nuestros mayores testimonios. Al tratar a los demás de una manera que quizá nunca hayan experimentado antes, pueden empezar a preguntarse de dónde surge nuestra diferencia. Pero la ternura y la reverencia se vuelven fundamentalmente naturales, innatas en nosotros, porque nos parecemos a nuestro Padre con su Espíritu dentro de nosotros.

Pide a Dios que te muestre su ternura. Invita al Espíritu Santo a abrir tu corazón a la verdadera reverencia por Dios y los demás. Vivimos de una manera que el mundo, nuestra sociedad, no reconoce, porque hemos recibido el Espíritu de Dios.

Feliz Día de las Madres

Que Dios te bendiga con paz y alegría serena, y llene tu corazón con Su amor hoy y siempre.

Did you know….?

After receiving the Eucharist in a Catholic Mass, the expected response is very simple:

- The minister (priest, deacon, or extraordinary minister) says: "The Body of Christ." (or "The Blood of Christ" if receiving from the chalice)
- You respond: "Amen."

That "Amen" is important—it means "I believe" or "so be it," affirming your faith in the Church's teaching about the Real Presence.

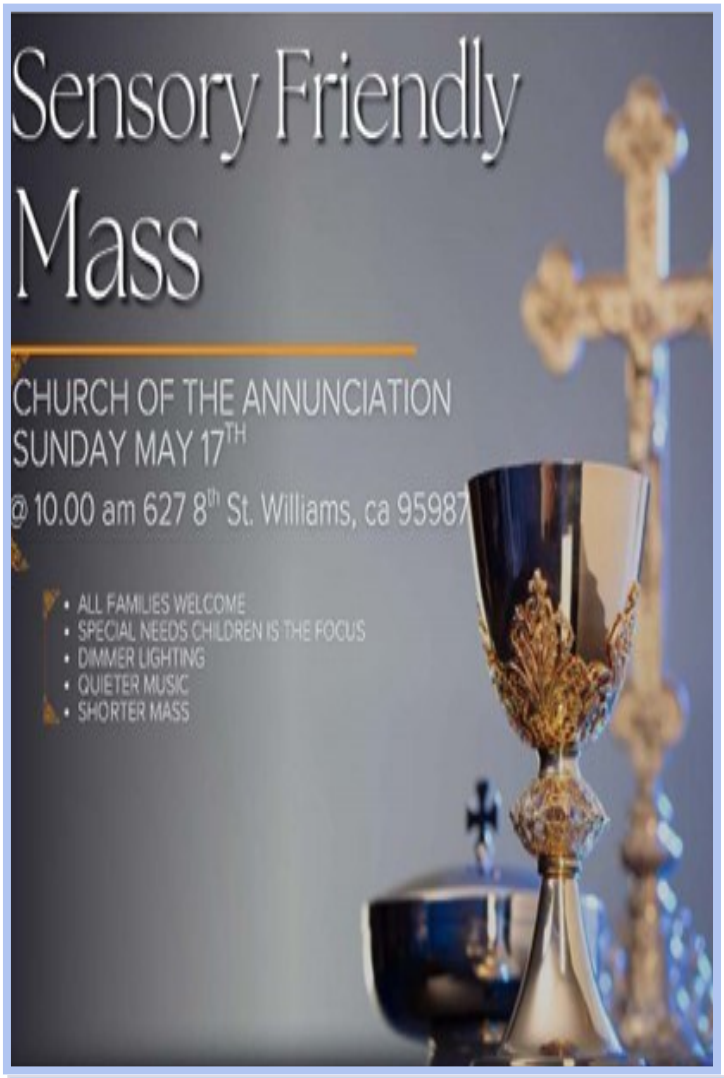

¿Sabías que...?

Después de recibir la Eucaristía en una misa católica, la respuesta esperada es muy sencilla:

El ministro (sacerdote, diácono o ministro extraordinario) dice: «El Cuerpo de Cristo» (o «La Sangre de Cristo» si se recibe del cáliz).

Tú respondes: «Amén».

Ese «Amén» es importante: significa «creo» o «así sea», afirmando su fe en la enseñanza de la Iglesia sobre la Presencia Real.

Q What is the role of the assembly in the experience of the elect? How can the assembly be helpful to them?

A Initiation is the responsibility of the entire parish community. The assembly accompanies the elect in this last phase of their journey—through participation in the scrutinies and presentations and by providing witness to the life of Christ, a listening ear, and hearts filled with gratitude for their presence. Members of the assembly can make an effort to reach out to the elect, share conversation, and pray for them.

The Lazarus Consolation Ministry

In the funeral rites of the Roman Catholic Church, we celebrate the death, burial and resurrection on Jesus Christ. We believe that Christians who have been baptized into the death and resurrection of Christ will pass with Him from death to life.

As Catholics, we want a death and burial that reflects who we were in life.

It is important that you make financial preparations for your family following your death. Its just as important to include your funeral plans in your estate planning. When we die, our loved ones might be struggling to think clearly. In your planning you can choose readings, songs, celebrant, etc. Remember, a funeral Mass is not a "celebration of life"; rather, it is a primarily a prayer for the dead. It is a time to pray for the soul of the deceased and to give mourners the grace to endure and hope.

Putting your wishes in writing is like leaving a last gift to your family.

The Lazarus Consolation Ministry will help you with this pre-planning. Email me for more information: Bev Vignery bevignery@sbcglobal.net
