St. Isidore Culture Champion

What is a Culture Champion?

Each month, this column will honor a "Culture Champion" – someone who embodies the culture we strive for at St. Isidore. The three pillars of our parish culture are Unceasing Prayer, Healthy Teamwork, and Active Discipleship. October's Culture Champion is Gina Krog. Gina is a familiar face to many of us, as she has been active in many ministries at St. Isidore since she moved here in 2007. She lives out Unceasing Prayer with her faithfulness to adoration, daily Mass, and the Rosary. Gina is the coordinator of the Stewardship Committee, an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, catechist, and a member of the Filipino Ministry, Procession Team, and choir, among other roles. She exemplifies Healthy Teamwork by uniting parishioners from different groups to work together. She recently helped to plan the procession for Our Lady of Fatima last Sunday, bringing together multiple ministries to represent our parish well! Gina is an Active Disciple who puts her faith at the forefront of everything she does and who never hesitates to welcome others in to our parish community.

Why do you serve?

"I serve because I'm thankful for all the blessings from God and of course to serve Him and extend to the community, leading by example. In particular, I am grateful for this life that he has given me from surviving 1st/2nd/3rd degree burns, my beautiful family, and my husband's cancer remission. Serving makes me feel like I'm making a difference! I can encourage others to do the same. I love doing it. It makes life feel worthwhile, fulfilling, satisfying, rewarding, happy. "Whatever you do to the least of your brothers, you do it for me." (Matthew 25:40) Serving or volunteering is something all can do to give thanks, praises & glorifying our Lord.

We have a purpose in this world. My goal is to serve & assist wherever is needed for our Church. Serving is loving God and one another. Let us share our talents in any ways we can. Our God is our provider, source of every good thing in our life. Let us be also generous in giving back to God and to our Church."

Thank you, Gina, for everything you do for St. Isidore!

Campeón de la Cultura de San Isidro

¿Qué es un Campeón Cultural?

Cada mes, esta columna honrará a un "Campeón Cultural", alguien que encarna la cultura por la que luchamos en San Isidro. Los tres pilares de la cultura parroquial son

Oración Incesante, Trabajo en Equipo

Saludable y Discipulado Activo.

La Campeona Cultural de octubre es

Gina Krog. Gina es un rostro familiar para muchos de nosotros, ya que ha estado activa en muchos ministerios en San Isidro desde que se mudó aquí en 2007. Vive la Oración Incesante con su fidelidad a la adoración, la Misa diaria y el Rosario. Gina es coordinadora del Comité de Administración, Ministra Extraordinaria de la Sagrada Comunión, catequista, miembro del Ministerio Filipino, del Equipo de Procesión y del coro, entre otros roles.

Ejemplifica el Trabajo en Equipo Saludable al unir feligreses de diferentes grupos para trabajar juntos.

Recientemente ayudó a planear la procesión para Nuestra Señora de Fátima el domingo pasado, reuniendo múltiples ministerios para representar bien a nuestra parroquia.

Gina es una Discípula Activa que pone su fe al frente de todo lo que hace y que nunca duda en dar la bienvenida a otros a nuestra comunidad parroquial.

¿Por qué sirves?

"Sirvo porque estoy agradecida por todas las bendiciones de Dios y, por supuesto, para servirle y extender a la comunidad, liderando con el ejemplo. Estoy agradecida por esta vida que Él me ha dado por sobrevivir quemaduras de primero, segundo/tercer grado, mi hermosa familia y la remisión del cáncer de mi esposo.

¡Servir me hace sentir que estoy haciendo la diferencia!

Puedo animar a otros a hacer lo mismo. Me encanta hacerlo. Hace que la vida se sienta valiosa, plena, satisfactoria, gratificante y feliz. "Lo que hagas al más pequeño de tus hermanos, hazlo por mí." (Mateo 25:40)

Servir o ser voluntario es algo que todos pueden hacer para dar gracias, alabanzas y glorificar a nuestro Señor.

Tenemos un propósito en este mundo. Mi meta es servir y ayudar donde sea necesario para nuestra Iglesia. Servir es amar a Dios y a los demás. Compartamos nuestros talentos de todas las formas posibles. Nuestro Dios es nuestro proveedor, fuente de todo lo bueno en nuestra vida. Seamos también generosos al devolver a Dios y a nuestra Iglesia."

¡Gracias, Gina, por todo lo que haces por San Isidro!

World Mission Sunday

Next weekend we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Leo invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses around the world, where priests, religious, and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Q How does an inquirer become a catechumen?

A The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults marks a person's journey with a different term for each step and period. In the first period (evangelization and pre-catechumenate), the person is known as an inquirer. After an appropriate time in that period, the pastor, catechists, and others who have been involved with the inquirer consult the inquirer and discern the outward indications of the inquirer's desire. When they feel the inquirer is ready, the Rite for Entrance into the Catechumenate is celebrated, and the inquirer becomes a catechumen.
